

The Only Curriculum That Needs to Be Learned!

Index

	Page
The Only Curriculum That Needs To Be Learned!	2
The Ability to Tune In to See How Your Friends Are Doing On the Other Side Of the Planet!	3
The Light That You Are Begins to Vibrate at a Higher and Higher Frequency!	3
Hold Your Joy Button Until It Holds Itself!	4
A Strength Begins To Come Into You, A Strength That Shall Indeed Become Like A Mighty River!	5
There Is A Strength In You, A Strength You Haven't Even Begun To Touch!	6
Your Father Longs To Pour Forth The Fullness Of His Power And Creativity Through You!	7

The Only Curriculum That Needs To Be Learned!

I call you this evening to join with me in, shall we say, a bit of a new direction in our time together. I call you to join with me in learning how to express the mastery that you are. All that has transpired and all that we've done to this point is to shake things up a bit and find out who really wants to get on with it.

While I extend my love to everyone, I cannot force myself on any mind and I cannot give what gifts I would bring to anybody who chooses not to put them into action. And if you love to talk about unlimitedness and mastery, ask yourself if you are really ready for it.

For what we are going to begin in this evening is, if you will, a progressive experience of bringing mastery into manifestation. But it will require your diligence and your complete commitment. It will require that you support one another and love one another. It will require that you set aside the whole of the world wherever you happen to be and choose joy.

Can you begin, to allow yourself to admit, to consider that every feeling and every perception has no cause outside of you? Each time you believe that it does, you have chosen, you have decreed – like a judge with the anvil – you have judged that the world outside of you is real and contains a power over you.

That choice occurs nowhere save within yourself, within the mind that you are, and it requires something quite fundamental: it requires that in that very moment you have set aside the remembrance of yourself as a great Ray of Light. You have given back your God given power and have chosen an illusion to be your authority.

Can you understand the great blessing of each moment? The Holy Spirit has already translated the world that has been brought forth in error, that you've gotten a little caught up with, into the very means whereby you can awaken from the dream of separation, re-identify with the Light that you are and, therefore, outshine everything that has represented the world to you. Every anger, every hurt, every fear, every limitation, every empty wallet, whatever it is, you can outshine it. You can actually change the whole picture because you are using your Light to create the world that you see and have believed in.

Look around you for a moment, fellow travelers, desirous of mastering the only curriculum that needs to be learned. There are many ways to approach it but until you accept that to learn that curriculum must mean that the structure of your life around you becomes wholly and radically changed, and that will mean something different to each of you even now. You really haven't quite yet been willing to learn the curriculum no matter how many texts you've read, no matter how many verses you've memorized, no matter how many prayers you've said, some part of you has not quite been willing to become vulnerable.

.....

The Ability to Tune In to See How Your Friends Are Doing On the Other Side Of the Planet!

When you have indeed desired first the Kingdom and when your intention has been unwavering, and when you have learned to master the key of allowing in which you learn to forgive the world, to forgive yourself and to trust all things that arise, you can begin to look at them with new eyes and learn how you are the creator of all that you have experienced.

As you rest then into the safety of surrender, the Holy Spirit comes by with a little golden key and says, "Here is what you have been looking for. I couldn't give it to you earlier because you were too busy running around in small circles in the mind. But now that the mind of the world has been set aside, I can speak to you dearly, and I deliver to you the key whereby you begin to translate the unhappy dream that you may have created, or aspects of it, into a happy dream."

But remember, it's not just thought. It is a feeling of power that literally wells up, vibrates the cells of the body so you can't contain it. It's not quite the same thing as what you experience as ecstatic happiness that seems to take you to a crescendo and then you're burned out afterward. That's not quite what I am talking about. This Joy is a frequency that you can feel vibrating, and it can become constant and you can learn to master it so that you walk around, albeit a few inches off the ground, and you'll find that you will be able to function even in that frequency. Certain things begin to emerge within that frequency: your ability, for instance, to be in this world and yet be totally with me, in total communication with me or any master you want to be, becomes available. There is no separation between you and myself whatsoever. The ability to tune in to see how your friends are doing on the other side of the planet and to know what they are doing – all becomes very natural. Where to go, who to talk to; it all becomes an effortless flow.

.....

The Light That You Are Begins to Vibrate at a Higher and Higher Frequency!

Joy is like a fire and a frequency that burns out all of the cobwebs, gets rid of all of the static, clarifies the Mind of Christ. And if you don't feel it down to the cells of your body, you don't know yet what it is.

The Kingdom of Heaven is a state and a quality of such joyousness that what takes place is that the Light that you are begins to vibrate at a higher and higher frequency until the things that arise in your world that seem to be limiting you don't even matter any longer. And that is extremely important, and that's what I want to speak with you about this evening. If when what you would perceive as a limitation pops up in your life, rest assured it is coming forth to reveal to you that there is a shadow of perception, of thought, of feeling that is less than whole joyousness, if you will, that yet needs to be, shall we say, corrected within you.

Now, the mind, through its habits, will look at the limitation that arises and believe that the limitation is real and, therefore, will in a sense step the vibration down to match the vibration of the limitation so that you can do battle with it. Do you know what that feels like? It is called "beating the head against a brick wall." Now, who is the builder? Who is the bricklayer? You were.

.....

Hold Your Joy Button Until It Holds Itself!

Enlightenment, empowerment, whole joyousness, if you will, cannot begin until you are willing to accept total and complete responsibility for everything you see, everything you think, everything you say and everything you do – but, above all, everything you feel, because the causative factor of what you feel and what you perceive is never outside of you.

We have talked about how the Holy Spirit translates the things of time into the very means by which you may awaken. Therefore, be thankful for the time that is given to you for it is the means by which you will relearn how to not only press, but to hold your joy button until it holds itself. It is the means whereby the translation of an unhappy dream occurs so that a happy one replaces it. And as the dream becomes happy, what happens? Something that everybody knows. Anytime you feel relatively happy, you relax. You expand. You open. You become more creative. You feel more in tune, more alive. The cells of the body sing.

That's why everybody likes being happy. The problem is that you have learned to believe that happiness is a conditional expression. That is, it depends on external circumstances. "I will be happy, when. . ." And, of course, "when" never comes. And if it arrives, because you haven't learned how to be happy, you feel uncomfortable. And many of you know what that's like. "Now that I have what I have been seeking, I can't quite be happy yet." Why? Because you forgot to practice being happy.

Now, joy, as you practice becoming the frequency of joy, something begins to happen. And all of you know this to some degree. It's just a matter of making it constant. When you choose to, shall we say, abide and to vibrate in the frequency of the Light of the joy that you are, no matter what is coming up around you, when you choose joy, when you draw the Light in through the toes, through the fingernails – it doesn't matter; just do it. Let the body begin to vibrate. It will feel like the body is vibrating at any rate. Feel the Light; feel the joy – it actually begins to blow the cobwebs out, out of the cells of the body and out of the mind, the Mind in which you are already connected with me and with God and with every mind that has ever awakened. Every master that has ever been is no further than a phone call away from within your mind.

Many have said, "Gee, I have been trying but I just can't hear you, Jeshua. I just... meditation doesn't go well. What's going on?" It is because there is static in the mind like a cloudy day that blocks the sun. The sun that truly shines, dwells within your Heart, now. Not one thing separates you from your right and your power to choose to dwell in the joy that is the presence of the Light of the Son of God that dwells within your Heart.

As you choose that frequency and vibration, miracles accelerate. The picture that you have created, called your life, begins to vibrate a little, you see, because it always responds to the frequency that you are living in. You could say that the world is your perfect servant, and it will always show you exactly where your frequency is.

As you choose that vibration, you could say that you begin to vibrate the molecules of matter. You begin to break up the old picture so that that which does not resonate with the frequency of joy that you are choosing to live within, those things begin to have a few earthquakes. And if you are willing to allow them, they will drop out of your life.

Now this is a big stumbling block, you see, because part of the mind is still attached to believing that its identity, its reality is made up of the things outside of it, so that as you choose awakening, as you choose joy, all the little fears that you've been carrying begin to float to the surface and you have a choice to make. Love or fear? Ever heard that before?

The way is easy and without effort, and yet it takes you through the eye of the needle. The way is the Way of Love and Love is the expression of Joy, a Joy that must spill over into every dimension of your experience until every dimension of it mirrors to you the happy dream of your constant union with God, and then the world itself fades away. You transcend the world.

.....

A Strength Begins To Come Into You,
A Strength That Shall Indeed Become Like A Mighty River!

There is a process to go through. It is a process that will take you from where you think you are to where you long to be. And the process requires that willingness to trust Love, to trust Love to carry you beyond every fear that has ever limited you and ever made you believe that you can only be who you are now.

Fear can arise when the things that you have constructed out of misperceptions, whether they be relationships, careers, whatever it is, if you have made it from the perspective of the ego, rest assured its foundation is a house built on sand and it is going to crumble sooner or later. Your world, you see, is one in which you are taught to strive, to struggle, to feel anxiety, to try to keep your creations on solid ground.

Beloved friends, be of good courage. When you have truly relinquished every attempt to make and control your world, fear will arise, rest assured, but it is just to show you where you've been living, and just beyond it is the peace that you seek. And each time you choose joy, no matter what, you, shall we say, pass an initiation would be one way to put it. You step to the next highest level and a strength begins to come into you, a strength that shall indeed become like a mighty river and the things of this world will not deter you from the path that would be set before you and that you would choose to walk.

.....

There Is A Strength In You, A Strength You Haven't Even Begun To Touch!

The Holy Spirit requires enlightened and, therefore, empowered minds to join with It, with Him, in the translation of the whole of this world into a happy dream. Does it require strength? Indeed it does. Is it going to feel uncomfortable at times? Yes, to the degree that you try to hold on to old habits, whether they be habits of diet, habits of thought, habits of relationship, habits of career. If you believe those things are keeping you safe, you are going to go through quite a struggle because once you choose to awaken, that is like you have taken your finger out of the hole in the dam and the water begins to pour forth – first a trickle, but eventually the power and the force of that water of Joy, of Truth and of Light will break down the dam completely. If you resist that, you are going to feel fearful and believe that everything is crumbling to dust . . . and it is. And yet, what crumbles is only an illusion, only something that has limited the Holy Son of God.

If I walk with you, your way is certain and fear need not master you. And the situations that are presented to you in your life are there so that you can recognize what you are now, as a soul, choosing to overcome, to grow beyond. Stop trying to keep the things that limit you in place and give yourself wholly to the force of the water that is the Joy of the Soul that would break the dam down so that the river can flow. The river of creativity. The river of Joy. The river of eternal life that flows from the Mind of God to and through the Son of God to be demonstrated and spilled over into this world.

I can never make that choice for you. Never. I can only whisper to you. I can only come to you. I can only abide with you, the Truth in you. And I can tell you that it's safe. It's safe to let the false constructs dissolve from your mind. It is safe and it is necessary, and if you would receive it, contemplate what this means: it is inevitable!

I have said many times that freedom does not mean, free will does not mean that you can choose whether or not to take a certain curriculum. You are only free to decide when you are going to take it. And the reluctance of the mind to truly take the course, live it and master it, is that part of the mind that wishes summer vacation could at least last a little bit longer. But all the time you think you are enjoying your summer vacation, you are not really getting anywhere, and it takes a resolve – desire and intention – in which whatever it takes, you finally voice within yourself, "No, I'm not going to tolerate error in myself any longer under any circumstances. I am the holy Son of God, and Joy is my birthright and my Kingdom and I am going to be that! And if it kills me, good."

There is a strength in you, a strength you haven't even begun to touch, a strength that when embraced will indeed dismantle every limitation that you believed existed in your life. And the right use of that strength rests on your willingness and your determination to choose Joy always.

"Can it be that simple?" Yes. Yes, it is! Joy is an incredible thing, an incredible blessing. Every time you choose to be wholly joyous, rest assured you have decided not to identify with the ego. And remember, you are asked to do only one thing: to live as though you are not an ego. Every time a judgment slips through the mind and is projected onto someone, "Oops, I misidentified." Take it back. Burn it up. Laugh and get on with JOY.

Your Father Longs To Pour Forth The Fullness Of His Power And Creativity Through You!

Joy is like a light, like a fire that purifies the mind, that purifies the body. And why is that necessary? Because your Father longs to have you join Him as a co-creator and an awakened, healed mind. Such a mind's creations are always loving, always expansive, always healing. The creations of an Awakened Mind seem to attract other minds to it like moths to a light bulb. And that is exactly what is happening.

Your Father longs to pour forth the fullness of His power and creativity through you. But if you've closed yourself off so tight that only a trickle comes through, just enough to keep the body alive, then is there any wonder that there is lack mirrored to you in your life?

Now, some will say, "I'm a pretty happy guy. I live in a high state of joy most of the time." Notice the word "most." And understand that if there is anything in the world that you are still judging, still fearful of, still condemning, whether it be your monetary system, your government, your schools, your mass transit systems, garbage strikes, whatever it is, if you are judging it, you are blocking off the flow of Joy that would transform the whole of your life.

What I am seeking to share with you is that the world you have dreamed into being, with all of its complexities, including the body, is really no big deal. It's quite harmless and holds no power over you. Each time you see something that seems to be a limitation, realize you are just looking at the boundary of your mind that you have chosen for yourself. Now, there is a great power in that because if you recognize the boundary of your mind but you know that what you really want is Joy, you can choose to walk through that ring of fear, whatever it is. And just like stretching a muscle, the boundary expands. And as the boundary expands, more Joy flows from the Mind of God through you. More creative ideas and more responsibility.

For when you have expanded the boundaries of your mind to allow Joy to be the fountain in which you swim always, and when that deep part of the mind within you that is the Mind of Christ says, "All of creation is arisen within me. This is my doing. Therefore, I'm going to heal it and I'm going to correct it and I assume responsibility for the whole of the world," without jumping ahead to how you are going to take care of that, then the Father pours forth into you the power and the wisdom and the Light and the life to achieve your goal of healing the whole of creation and completing the Atonement.

Amen.

Page Ref:

From: Jeshua Transcripts: Joy II

This material was prepared to help Mastery groups in studying The Way of Mastery. You may copy and redistribute this material so long as you do not alter it in any way, the content remains complete, and you include this link as the source of the material: www.shantichristo.com

If you want to use this material for any purpose other than to help facilitate a study group (such as posting to the internet or a website), please contact Shanti Christo Foundation for written permission to do so at: 505-216-7541 or staff@shantichristo.com.

The Way of Mastery, Copyright © Shanti Christo Foundation. All Rights Reserved.