

K. Kamper President

I have had on and off contact with Jesus (a.k.a. Jeshua ben Joseph) from childhood, but it was not until accepting A Course in Miracle (ACIM) in 1981 that that contact would be almost daily. Fully accepting the Atonement as defined in ACIM meant that contact with Jesus would accelerate and indeed it did. I was immediately placed into a managerial position to practice ACIM principles and, then, subsequently experience transformation of that business into “Heaven on Earth” within two years. The numerous miracles to make a transformation on this scale are too extensive to mention here. However, from that moment on I had complete faith in what Jesus could accomplish through miracles if we just opened our hearts and followed his guidance.

In 1983, He asked me to formally teach ACIM and that He would teach me how to teach. This teaching climaxed with channeled dialogue material with ACIM which was to be used in all my teachings. A book called “A Call to Awaken, a Dialogue with A Course in Miracles” (now out of print) was the first level culmination of that effort. I have been using this dialogue method of communicating with Him ever since. The technique He gave me keeps my mind focused and clear as to His awakening intent. Initially, however, the undoing of my spiritual ego was quite distressful, but worth every experience Jeshua (Jesus) provided for me. This undoing is still going on today, but in a less intense manner.

The Way of Mastery (TWOM) was a natural and inspiring transition for me. Jeshua clarified some principles in ACIM that were stubbornly hard to teach with full commitment, especially “I Need Do Nothing” and the “Holy Relationship.” But most important, The Way of Mastery began opening my heart to the presence of God’s Love more and more and more and is still continuing to this day.

When I was asked to become president of Shanti Christo Foundation (SCF), I hesitated because of the enormous amount of activities or tasks that had to be accomplished, but in meditation, Jeshua, assured me that he would take care of everything and, of course, He has done so. He also gave me insights on how to develop Holy Relationships with the board and staff so that SCF could be managed through Holy Relationships. Encouraging everyone to listen to the Holy Spirit for guidance and direction was the first step in developing Holy Relationships. Trusting that the Holy Spirit is working through each SCF member can be challenging, but ultimately worth the effort because of its results.

There is not much I can say about our paths except if you decide to join Jeshua and the Holy Spirit’s Atonement (or awakening plan), He and the lineage will provide endless experiences to teach you the real meaning of every concept or idea embedded in TWOM, ACIM or coming from his other 2000+ channels. Experiences always integrate the teachings at a much deeper and understanding level than one can comprehend using mere intellect.

Communication with Jeshua is as natural as though you are talking with a brother. I am a hard-core advocate of keeping Jeshua ben Joseph to his word, and I fully believe and support that each one of us has the ability to communicate directly with Him, if they so choose. I invite everyone to do so as He himself has promised in the beginning of The Way of Mastery:

Beloved friends, I come to where you choose to be. And if you would choose to open that place within the heart and within the mind in which you can communicate with me directly, I will meet you there as well.
