Allow, Allow, Allow Your Life To Reflect The Unlimitedness Of The Love Of God!

I once chose as a man, not because I was ordered by God – God doesn't order anyone to do anything – I chose to bring upon myself a demonstration that death is unreal, as a way of teaching my brothers and sisters that if you think of the most extreme circumstance that you can, the opportunity to choose Love is always available. Rest assured that I know perfectly well that even if a tyrant ordered someone to strap you to a heavy wooden beam and to pound nails into your hands and feet, the power within you to choose Love has not been taken from you in any stretch of the imagination. (CD - GR1)

And paradoxically, in the midst of even your most painful circumstances, when you make a choice to allow Love to descend first into your own being, so that it can radiate out to everyone else concerned, you will feel the nails as though they were being withdrawn from your hands and feet. All of you know what it is like to be crucified in some way or another. All of you have felt that. All of you have had glimpses of the power of forgiveness and Love. When you just relinquished your beliefs, your anger, everything about a situation that comes, peace comes back. There have been times in some of your lives when some rather dramatic things have happened and it's got your kettle boiling. And all of a sudden you said, "Oh, the heck with it." And you changed your attitude, and you actually laughed. What happened? You used the power of choice given unto you to remember the Truth.

Correction comes with relinquishing the world. Relinquishing the world does not have anything to do with living in caves and eating a grain of rice a day. It has everything to do with relinquishing your perceptions of what the world is for, and allowing it just to be as it is, while you focus on choosing peace, so that you become the center of Light that seems to walk around in a body. Do you know what begins to happen when you do that? You will, quite literally, open up what could be called an "inner eye." And perception will be healed, and it feels like a very literal physical shift. You are taken away, if you will, from identifying as the body, and you literally see the body for what it is...a nothing. A momentary device through which the Light of Christ can extend Love. It's not even yours any more. Yes, you'll continue to feed it, do little things you need to do so that it can function, as long as it lasts. But something quite literally shifts. It's not you any longer. And you look upon your relationships and upon your careers, and they'll all be different.

The world will have been swept clean from your mind. It will be replaced by the perception that you're the Holy Son of God, and you're here for a very short time. And each opportunity, each moment, is given unto you because the world is crying out for your blessings. Not the ego's blessings..."Yes, I bless you, my child." The world cries out for the blessings that you can extend to it by choosing peace, and by smiling at the ego and the ways of the world. By being the demonstration that there is another choice, another way, another path.

When Perception Is Healed, A Major Shift Will Occur In Your Mind and You Will Know That It's Time!

The way that the threshold is crossed is by laying aside your perception of yourself as a separate one who is seeking God, along with every other perception of yourself you've ever held, in which you become finally willing to acknowledge that you have found. Think about it. To acknowledge in your own mind... "No! No more games. I know the Truth. I am the Son of God. I am, therefore, here only for the extension of Love, and the world's gains mean nothing." Think what it would mean to acknowledge that within yourself. "My God, I have set up a drama so that I can pretend to be a seeker again and again and again, so that I can avoid finding." And some of you like the game. That's okay. There's nothing wrong with liking it. And I hope you enjoy it.

But in the end, seeking becomes like a weight upon the Heart, and the soul in its weariness drops to its metaphorical knees, because obviously it doesn't have any. And it just says, "I'm tired." And it sets aside the weight of the world, and the Light begins to be remembered. The echo of an ancient melody, at once so familiar, that seemed to be forgotten, begins to arise in the soul that has relinquished the world and returned to silence. And the thought comes to replace the one thought of separation, for upon it all worlds have been built, and all subsequent thoughts and dramas are nothing more than expressions of that one thought of separation. And an inner Voice speaks these words: "You are My beloved Son, in whom I remain well pleased. Arise, for you are Christ."

"The gift of Christ is all I seek today." What but Christ's vision would I use today, when it can offer me a day in which I see a world so like to Heaven that an ancient memory returns to me? Today I can forget the world I made. Today I can go past all fear, and be restored to Love and Holiness and Peace. Today I am redeemed, and born anew into a world of mercy and of care; of loving kindness and the Peace of God. (ACIM WL 306)

"And so, our Father, we return to You, remembering we never went away; remembering Your holy gifts to us. In gratitude and thankfulness we come, with empty hands and open hearts and minds, asking but what You give. We cannot make an offering sufficient for Your Son. But in Your Love the gift of Christ is his."

And then, perception is healed, and for the first time a major shift has occurred in your mind, and you know that it's time. And before the altar of God that rests in the silent sanctuary of your Heart, you have the audacity, in the eyes of the world, to finally exclaim the Truth:

"I and my Father are one. By myself I've never done anything, but now, through me, my Father will do all things. I am home, and I am at peace. Truth is restored. And I will go out no more from this holy place, for the light of day has come and all darkness is vanquished. I and my Father are one. And it's never been any other way."

Does that bring responsibility as long as you seem to live in time? Of course, it does. It is a responsibility that the world has taught you not to take on. The world has actually taught you that I'm the only one who had the strength to assume that responsibility. Now, isn't that a clever device of separation? All power is given unto you as the Holy Son of God. All power under Heaven and Earth to hear only the Voice for Love. It's a delightful Voice. It speaks gently, and it shows you the humor of your illusions. And if you would hear only that Voice and acknowledge that you are one with God, that you're not sent to suffer the world, to live in lack, to live in poverty, to judge the world.

You are sent to be a Light to the world, to show the world that its perceptions and beliefs don't cut it. To allow miracle-mindedness to descend upon you, so that miracles can be lived and extended through you, given unto your brothers and sisters who have been given unto you, that they might look upon the face of Christ and remember that they see only themselves.

Would you then choose, to allow this hour to be the point at which you decide to learn the curriculum? Right here and right now, in your own beingness, to say, "Okay. What the heck. I know I've got a few perceptions that seem to be blocking me from peace. I've held onto them for a long time. They haven't gotten me there yet. What have I got to lose? Maybe I should just set them aside and allow correction to come to the mind...to trust the safety of the Heart's vulnerability. To become filled with humility. Of myself, I do nothing. I don't know what a single thing is, but thank God, my Father does. I don't even know what this situation is for, so I'm just going to be here as the presence of Love, trust, and allow it to unfold, knowing that there is one Teacher that has been given unto the world, the One that I've called the Comforter, who knows how to take everything that unfolds and weave it into the tapestry that awakens the Holy Son of God." Look lovingly upon every experience you have, for there is a purpose to it. For you, as well as for others. And every experience is the opportunity, the blessing, to remember to choose Love.

There Is A Way Of Living Where There Are No Laments Of The Past, No Anxiety Over The Future!

Just as you've created your thought of separation, you as a soul are creating your pathway Home. Nothing can arise by accident. And if you seem stuck right now for a while, it just means you're taking a break, vacation. It's not that you have to take a break, it's that you're choosing to take a break. Within you lies so much power. In the twinkling of an eye, the Holy Son of God could radically transform this world into the Kingdom of Heaven on Earth. But that can't occur until you allow that transition to occur within you.

So there you have it. Grace as Reality comes when you consciously choose to accept what is always the case. So illusion is not true. These feelings of lack are not true. This need to make judgment isn't true. That's all the voice of the ego. It's an illusion. My Father's Grace pervades my being. I choose to be wholly joyous and at peace. And each time I seem to forget, I'll just choose to remember. And thereby, the world is restored and healed. Grace as Reality is the only Reality.

And please listen to this: Grace as Reality is the only Reality that is available to anyone at any time. What is Real cannot be threatened and exists eternally. What is unreal exists not. If the mind holds the thought that it does, it is only because you've allowed the mind to choose illusions over Truth, that's all. (CD - GR2)

*The opposite of love is fear, but what is all-encompassing can have no opposite.
This course can therefore be summed up very simply in this way:*

*Nothing Real can be threatened.
Nothing unreal exists.*

Herein lies the peace of God. (ACIM Intro)

Grace is your Reality, and it means that you can go gently in this world. There is, indeed, a way of living in which there are no laments of the past, no anxiety over the future. A sense of the eternal comes to fill your days, so that even as you wash your dish – something that is eternal, that is felt and known – a peace descends gently upon you.

There is a way of being in the world without strife and without suffering, and the way to that is to embrace honestly every illusion that you insist on carrying, and see that it is untrue. Every judgment, every thought that would seem to limit the Holy Son of God is unreal.

And just beyond the drama of the world is the Peace, the Kingdom of Heaven, waiting only for you to grant it welcome by making the choice to be a finder and not a seeker. "I and my Father are one. I might as well admit it and Love it!"

If The World Is The Reflection Of The Belief In Complexity, Then Heaven Must Be Exceedingly Simple!

I have come, indeed, unto you through as many voices as I can possibly find, to remind you of the simplicity that you are Love. That in Truth, there is nothing to fear. For what you see around you is but the projection of the thoughts you have held, the thoughts that spoke unto you and said, "Perhaps I can succeed at separating myself from Reality." Fear not. And why? For whenever fear makes a home in your mind, it is the reflection of a choice already made to deny the Truth of who you are. Therefore, whenever fear arises, acknowledge what has already occurred. Release the world from your projections, and make straight your path by seeking first the Kingdom of Heaven. And can this be anything but the welcome remembrance of the Love that has birthed you? (CD - HTSL)

All that you see arising and passing away before your eyes is but a moment's dream, because it arises only from the Holy Mind of God's one creation...the Self, the soul, the Christ. What arises and passes away can never be lost unto you. The eyes of your body cannot show you the Truth, but the eyes of your Heart will reveal to you Reality.

When next you observe a friend walking away from you, for whatever reason, remind yourself that they have gone nowhere. You need only Love them, and you are one with them.

And if the world is the reflection of the belief in complexity, then Heaven must be exceedingly simple, for the world is always the exact opposite of the Kingdom of Heaven. And in that ancient beginning, which is now and forever, the Truth does remain True, always. Hear this Truth, embrace this Truth, breathe this Truth, exude this Truth with every thought you think, with every breath you take, with every gesture that you make.

The Greatest Of Gifts That Can Be Given To Any Soul At Any Time!

Resolve, as you move into a new beginning for focusing your attention on the deliberate decision to make no decision until you have returned to the place of the silent Heart that remembers that you are in God, as a fish is in the sea. And that you are asked in Truth to do nothing save to receive that Love, that it might of its own accord overflow through you in a way that blesses this world. And if the world receives it not, don't be concerned about it.

For it is not your task to uplift the world, but to be uplifted that the world might have the opportunity to look upon a change that has occurred to one of its members. And if the world will look upon you as one who has chosen to arise from death...which simply means, since death is unreal, to awaken from the dream of suffering and loss, the dream of the false self, to awaken to the Reality that only Christ abides...then perhaps the world can learn that it can make a new choice.

This is the greatest of gifts that can be given to any soul at any time. Relinquish, then, the ideas you have held, that by your action someone might be saved. Release from yourself the burden of healing the sense of separation that another might know. And recognize that you are asked only to allow that healing to be made manifest in you, by gently remembering that you are now that one. And that, regardless of all of your attempts to the contrary, you have never succeeded in proving to God that you are the simple, depraved, and unworthy creature that you have believed yourself to be.

Can you imagine, then, gracefully allowing the life you are living to be laid down upon the altar of the Heart of Christ, to release possession of your own life and give it back to the Source of Life? To recognize that through you in any moment life can be extended or denied. And that the only thing you truly have need of doing is to attend with vigilance to the choice you are making moment to moment. If you have ever tasted the sweetness of your union with God, and if you've ever smelled the sweet nectar of the flower of Perfection, remember then that the only thing that can separate you from it is the wrong use of your free will. And that wrong use has nothing to do with your actions, which are always and only the effects of the true power of free choice...to think the thought of fear and to replace it with the Reality of Love.

Here, then, is your only task. And if you would truly understand what I've sought to share with you in so many ways, you will come to see that it is not a burden but a blessing and a joy to recognize that time that seems to be the prison of your suffering...for if you would look well, you will know that whenever you have suffered there have been links to events in time...that time itself can become the glorious field in which you get to master the choice for Love. Know, then, that any sense of conflict or suffering comes only because you've been inconsistent in your practice. And simply begin anew.

What Is Your Will At This Moment?

The message I would share with you is simple. But upon it rests the foundations of the coming of Heaven to Earth. And to all who would hear these words, I beseech you...practice well the remembrance of the Truth that is True always...that through you the Love of God might flow into this world. You need not be the director of that Love, but only the allower of it. And if you allow it not to yourself, what have you to offer your brother and sister? But the greatest of giving is to give to yourself. And the Comforter will know how to take what overflows and direct it as needed. Therefore, make sure your own cup is full always, before you lift a finger or say a word.

Therefore, rest now in this moment. Give yourself back to that Perfect Peace. And we will rest here together, for though you believe you are in a body, rest assured you are not. In Truth, you are where I am...unlimited forever.

The re-training of the mind is all that there is. Until the mind thinks perfectly with God, and God is but Love. Love does not punish, and Love does not condemn. Love allows all things. Love trusts all things. Love rests in perfect quiet. Imagine, then, if you will, in a distant meadow on a beautiful spring day, a small, tiny flower opens itself to the rays of the sun. No one is around to notice, and not a sound has been made. The petals of the flower open and willingly receive the light that is there to nourish it. Such is Love. Such is the Love of the soul that releases its illusions and opens its petals to simply receive the Light that is always there. And even in the midst of your world, while yet you seem to be identified with the body that passes through many, many changes and seems to express the very epitome of limitation...even there...even there, you can be as the petals of the flower in the meadow...unseen and unheard. You are that one with the power to open your petals, to let the Heart open, to be the one who will choose to be the presence of Love.

You have that power, to open to the Rays of Light streaming forth eternally, without measure, from the mind of the One that has sent you forth in Her image...in His image...as the thought of Love in form. You are that one that could open the petals of the Heart to the Father. (JT - DSL)

What is your will at this moment? What needs to be spoken? What course of action would you have me take, so that You, through me, awakens the Son-ship? You are that one who is the gentle flower living in the most beautiful of meadows. You have been placed there by Love Itself. You are the one with all power under Heaven and Earth to open the petals of your own Heart, to receive the Rays of Light shining upon you from the One who Loves you.

And then to allow Love to guide your words, your gestures, the movements of the body, the place that you will live, the work that you will do...all is provided for the one...all is provided for the one who will open the petals of the Heart and be nourished by the Light of a Perfect Love.

Are You Then Powerful? Oh, Yes, Beyond Measure!

There is, indeed, no power created from the illusion of separation that can begin for even an instant to take that power from you. There is no one that you have ever known that has had the power to cause the petals of your Heart to contract and to wither. For it is, indeed, in the very choice for Love that healing is restored. I would not say these things unto you if I did not know that they were True. I learned that these things are, indeed, True. When as a man I walked upon your Earth and chose to take my Father at His word; I am his beloved Son, and in Him do I dwell.

And my life became my way of coming home, even unto what was called the Crucifixion. Yet again, and still I've said this unto you many times, rest assured I have gone nowhere. And those that sought once to get rid of me have only discovered that in the very attempt they merely created a resonance between themselves and me, and I have become the guest that came for dinner and never left.

What, then, did my life teach me, if not that God is Love. God is not judgment. God is not spite. God is not punishment. God is Love. And each time you dwell in a perfectly Loving thought, you are the Presence of God. You are the Presence of Love. That very thought is the scent of the blessings that shines forth from the flower of your Heart. As the petals have opened and received the Light of Truth, that Truth radiates out and touches the farthest of stars. And each time you Love, the whole of Creation has been uplifted to the open arms of God. The whole of Creation has journeyed forth in its remembrance of what is True.

Are you then powerful? Oh, yes, beyond measure! For from you comes forth whatever you choose. Nothing can arise by accident. Each event that you experience can come to you only because you have called forth for it. It is, indeed, an answer to your very prayer for a perfect and consummate awakening. It is the answer you seek as you make the transition from one who is journeying to the Kingdom to one who journeys within it.

Please listen well...the egoic mind would have you truly believe that the only purpose is to journey to the Kingdom. But rest assured, beloved friends, that journey is an illusion. That journey to the Kingdom has already been taken care of by the Grace of Love that restored you to Perfect Union in the very moment that you dared to dream this dream of separation. It is already over. There is only the process whereby you give yourself permission to receive the Truth that is True always. But the journey to the Kingdom, the remembrance that the journey is complete, is not the end...it is the return to an ancient beginning. For you were birthed to create. Not to make, not to do...to create. Because you were birthed in the image of God, you will step into the Kingdom, wherefrom you will create without end the good, the holy, and the beautiful!

Therefore, seek first the Kingdom and seek it with diligence. Look not upon your circumstances as your reality, but recognize you have created them simply for the experience of learning how to transform them, and taste and feel the unlimitedness of perfect abundance waiting to shower forth upon you and to burst forth through you. Allow, allow, allow every aspect of your circumstances to be transformed into that which reflects the unlimitedness of the Love of God that dwells within you as your very Heart and Soul. (JT - HSC)

Be Willing To Allow Yourself To Rest In Each of Your Days and Simply Feel the Reality Of Heaven On Earth!

Whatever you choose to bring your attention to, notice with perfect wonder and awe that you are literally choosing to create the experience you are having. Because this is true, Heaven on Earth is actually no further from your experience than the width of the thoughts you are willing to think. Heaven on Earth is not apart from where you are. Would you, therefore, be willing to join with me in daring to think the thought of a planet healed and a humanity enlightened? Are you willing to allow yourself not to run around with placards in your hand and placing billboards around what you call your highways? (CD - HES 1-4)

Would you be willing to allow yourself to rest in each of your days and simply feel the Reality of Heaven on Earth, and know that this has already come to pass? And in the field of time, it seems to be taking time for that to occur. But, after all, that's what time is about: process. In Reality, if you hold the thought, it is done.

And, in Truth, you can acknowledge it. For what the Son of God decrees is, no matter the state of mind in which he decreed it, what you say in that moment, whether you speak it out loud, or whether you merely think the thought, you have literally created that reality. That fast, in the twinkling of an eye.

This seems like madness to your world because your world is madness. It is the complete reversal of Christed consciousness. The world represents the complete opposite of Heaven. It is upside down and inside out. So that when I say unto you: when you think the thought of Heaven on Earth, you have decreed it, and it is so and now you're totally free to experience unlimited radiance, Perfect Peace, Perfect Joy, right where you are now! The world will say: that is nonsense. Right there is the point that you must begin to make a new choice, to learn to think with the Mind of Christ rather than against It. By choosing to think with It, you become It, and when you become It, you realize a discovery, a discovery of what has always been and is never changed. You are, indeed, and you forever remain, as you were created to be.

You are the creator of all worlds. And never, ever, ever, ever are you losing or in a state of loss of your Power to Create precisely as God birthed you. That is how powerful you are, right where you are!

Be you therefore of single intent, from the consciousness to a single point in which the thought you would truly desire to manifest is the only thought you imbue with Reality. When you have mastered the ability to discipline the mind, you will discover that you can create an entire universe with one thought. And if this is true, and I assure you that it is, you will be the bearer of miracles. And, lo and behold, you might dare to think the thought of Heaven on Earth and put all of your focused attention on that one thought until it is your only Reality, and nothing else matters. Nothing else holds value. Nothing else can exist for you. And if the rest of the world thinks you're crazy, so what! That, too, is just a thought.

You can bring Heaven to Earth in the twinkling of an eye. And it will come to pass that Heaven on Earth will be the case, and when it is established, it will seem to have occurred effortlessly in the twinkling of an eye.
