

A Message From The Shanti Christo Foundation ..

For Those Who Would Be As I Am

Beloved Son of God, he who would drink from my mouth, indeed, must become as I am, and I shall be he. Herein is the Truth of rebirth: To see a transfigured world requires only that you would look upon it with new eyes. Are you willing to release the eyes upon which your world has insisted that you see with and to see with the eyes of the Awakened Christ abiding in your Heart, even that very Heart of the whole of creation? And looking out from that place of sacred and Holy silence in which the mystery of the Trinity is known, can you look out upon the whole of creation and know that already do you hold it in the palm of your hand? And it is given unto the Son by the Father for no other purpose than to rejoice in the extending of that unconditional Love and incomprehensible Light that would fill the heavens and the dark places of your Earth, if only you would allow it to do so.

Within your own minds ponder the world in which you now live. In an instant, see it in all its complexities and ask yourself truly, is this the world that you would behold? Is this the world you would give unto your brothers and sisters? If it is not, why do you choose to tarry longer? For all power is given unto the Son, and yet the Son must embrace it. And he must draw that power to his own bosom and giving thanks to the Father, ask then in silence, "What would you have me do?" For you have well been taught to ask of the world, "What would you have me do?" and have you not strained ceaselessly to conform yourself to what the world would ask you to be? But of what value is the world when compared with the Truth of the Kingdom?

Many of you have read, that I instructed my disciples in that time that I walked among you, to go forth and to teach this simple Truth. And if anyone would not receive them, to shake off the dust of their sandals and to journey on. And yet there is a far deeper meaning in this simple teaching. He that would be my disciple, he that would in Truth follow and arrive where I am, must shake off the dust of the world from his mind, his emotions and his body, and cast it aside as a small child would cast away a toy, now long since outgrown and turn your face heavenward. And to do this is to simply bring your attention from the world to the Heart that lies within you. And there to abide in perfect Peace, wanting nothing, longing for nothing, caring for nothing, knowing that already does the Father extend to the Son all abundance, all Truth, and all wisdom. Can you now in this moment realize this Truth: You lack nothing! If you experience lack in your world, why are you choosing not to embrace the abundance the Father would set before you?

Many of you have been taught that it is in piety and in poverty that one might follow Jeshua the Christ. But I say this unto you, never has the Father asked that you suffer, that you know limitation and that you be distracted from His Holy work because you lack. Never has the Father asked the Son to toil at work that does not fulfill the Heart, simply because the world would teach the sleeping Son that survival is the only good. What would you survive? You who have never been born and can never die, what would you survive?

[Period of silence]

And in this moment of silence, have you found an answer to that question? What would you survive? You have already created innumerable forms and lifetimes that have had a beginning and an end. So countless are these and yet here you are. Have you ever died?

Go then in peace beloved and Holy friends. Amen

~Jeshua
