Let Us Stir The Light Of The Father Within Us!

The time is upon this plane for the sleeping Son to awaken and to remember His rightful place, sitting at the right hand of the Father, the perfect servant of a Grand Mystery. The Awakened Son longs for nothing, craves nothing, desires nothing and, therefore, lacks nothing. (ARC)

For what has the world ever offered you that has ever given you the fulfillment you have sought? Contemplate this question well and come within your own self to realize fully that the world is but emptiness. It has not served you save in the continuing of a dream you chose to dream so long ago. It has not fed you but with the illusion of sustenance, a myth of security and but a faint echo of peace.

And yet within the secret chamber of your Heart sits the Father upon His Holy Throne and He is not apart from you, nor you from Him. And yet to enter this secret and most Holy of chambers requires but a simple thing: that you leave behind you everything you have believed, everything you have known and all things to which you have clung so tightly, even the possession of your own self. Herein lies the meaning to be given to anyone who would pass through the eye of the needle, for the only thing that can pass through the eye of the needle is the Son you already are.

Become Then That Happy Ray, Empty Of All Traces Of Self

He that would possess nothing already owns the world. And he who would abandon his desire to be loved will find Love incomprehensible flowing through him. And it will embrace and it will transform the whole of the world before your very eyes. And when you have come to understand that there is nowhere you need to be and nothing you need possess, you will stand in the midst of Heaven and you will hold the whole of all universes in the palm of your hand. And then, my beloved brothers and sisters, you will know that peace that forever passes all understanding.

The mind cannot comprehend the Kingdom. It was not designed with this purpose. For the mind was created to be but a servant of the Holy Spirit that would move through you. Seek not then to understand what is spoken to you but throw open the shutters of your Heart that the Spirit that these words convey might make their home within you and that Spirit will transform you. And yet you cannot know what will be born of the transformation of which I speak. But you can give yourselves to it.

This then is the meaning of perfect sacrifice: to lay down all that you are and all that you believe yourself to be and trusting in faith that the Father already knows what He would have you do and what He would have you be. For does a ray of light speak unto the sun, "Fill me in the way that I would choose."? It simply delights in expressing the light of the sun as the sun would so direct.

Become then that happy ray, empty of all traces of self that you might be filled with all that the Father is. And thus does the Son proclaim, prior to every breath taken, "I and my Father are One!"

You Will Come To Live Evermore Deeply In The Heart Of The Kingdom Within You!

Who among your brothers and sisters is not worthy of being bathed in that Light? Why would you choose to conceal it from them? For is not darkness but the absence of Light? And is not the cold but the absence of warmth? Be therefore bearers of Light and warmth, even that most Perfect Light that is the presence of the Father within you, even that most perfect warmth that is the unconditional Love given through you from the Father to the world that sleeps in darkness.

And those who would choose to wholly serve the Father, let this be as a meditation for you to be practiced in each moment and know that as you practice it, the Power of the Father will increase seven-fold to be radiated through you. And as you practice it, you will come to live evermore deeply in the Heart of the Kingdom within you. And the meditation is simple and it resides in these words, "Holy Father, let there be Light." Let this be as your prayer in every moment and every situation and you will behold the work of your Holy Father. For when you abide in the meaning and the energy of these words, obstacles that you would perceive before you will but dissolve and be as if they never were. And those yet sleeping will be attracted to you, though they know not why. And yet you need to speak nothing, save that which the Spirit would give you to say.

For when I walked among you, did I not teach you that of myself, I do nothing but the Father does all things? Are you willing then to release the dream of the dreamer himself? The dreamer who would insist, "I do, I am the maker!" To see through this illusion is to have already released the pain that is your world and to abide in a simple joy as the humble and the perfect servant of your Holy Father. And the perfect servant cares not for what the end of things will be, but he delights at all times in residing in that Perfect Presence and allowing the Light that the Father is to move through him as the Father would Will. And the perfect servant delights in beholding the transfiguration of your world.

Sitting Easily At The Right Hand Of Our Father

There is no death because in Truth there is no beginning. I was born unto you in the form of a man and I walked with you in the forms that you know so well. I knew hunger and fatigue. I experienced pain of the flesh, even unto its very death. And yet did I not demonstrate unto you that the transition of forms touches not the Spirit within you?

You have adorned yourself with more forms of embodiment than you can ever count and you have cast them off a million times. For if you would receive it, you have always lived the life of every being.

Many of you have been taught that there are innumerable souls that go through a long progression, embodiment after embodiment after embodiment. But I say unto you, never have you left the abode of your Father. Never has there been one thing outside of you. And your life and your experience is that of every person that has ever walked upon this planet. All masters, all angels, are already contained within you. Would you know them? Would you speak unto them? Then simply do so.

And if you find difficulty in this, know immediately it is because you are choosing to deny your only Reality. And though a thousand worlds arise and pass away, yet do you abide in Perfect Peace, sitting easily at the right hand of our Father.

What The Father Would Give You Is Infinite!

The life that you have insisted belonged only to me is already yours. The greatness that you perceived within it is already yours. For you could not perceive it if it were not so. This then is the Heart of my Gospel: the Holy Son of God is eternally One, united in perfection with all that the Father is. So that if you would look, you will see not where the Father begins and the Son ends. And it is this understanding to which I would call you and it is this Reality of which I would speak. And it is from this Reality that the energy conveyed by these words comes forth.

And yet I say this unto you again, of myself I do nothing but all things come of the Father. Embrace Him then, Mystery beyond all mysteries. Give thanks unto Him, knowing that He hears your thanks before you even think them. And the Father would that His Son have joy and Perfect Bliss. And these things are already laid upon His table. They have been there for eternity. Never has He asked that you earn them. He has asked only that you receive them.

When in Truth you have thrown open the shutters of your Heart, then and then alone will you say, "Father, I accept. Shower down your wealth upon me. Take up your abode within me and share of Yourself wholly and without measure and without limitation to my brothers and sisters that are still sleeping."

Unto you is given all Power. Unto you is given all Wisdom. Unto you is given all Peace and yet the only way that you can embrace and possess these things is to never cease in giving them away. For all that you give away will come back to you ten-fold. The more you give the more you receive. And what the Father would give you is infinite. There is no end to His abundance and, therefore, no end to yours.

There Is Not One Thing That You Can Give Away That Will Not Be Replaced!

You have created a world that believes in lack, in separation, in pain and in great complexity. And if you experience these things within your own life, know it is because you would yet insist on abiding in the world and denying the Kingdom.

The only poverty that I knew and that I taught was the poverty of owning nothing. And yet never did I lack, save in those times I chose to do so to bring an understanding and a teaching to my sleeping brothers and sisters. Would you not open your hands and receive now and forever more all that the Father would give unto you? There is not one thing that you can give away that will not be replaced. And yet what it is replaced with will shine in glory far greater than anything you have given away. For you hold the power within yourself to give away your homes and your jewels and your foods and your clothing and in the very next instant the Father would bestow upon you these things ten-fold. If you have but faith, you will know it is so.

And the world around you cries out for the abundance of the Father. Why then would you deny it to your brothers and sisters? Therefore, I would teach you: cling to nothing. Fear the loss of nothing. For the only thing that you could ever lose is your choice to believe that you are separate from the Father. Not even death can separate you one from another or from all that the Father is. I would tell you now in this very moment to go within the chamber of your Heart and to release me. And if you would but do so, clinging not to the belief that I am your saviour, you will in Truth know your salvation. And in the knowing of your salvation you will find that I already embrace you, and you will recognize what I came to teach you and to demonstrate to you: we are already one.

The only need you have of me is to share in the celebration of this one Holy Truth: the only begotten Son of God is One, embraced eternally in the arms of the Father. Never have you been the makers of your Reality, but you have been the dreamers of your illusions. And believing them to be real, you denied the Reality given freely to you by the One maker and the One eternal doer, Abba, Father. He alone is the maker of your Reality and you are what He has made you to be: Perfect, Loving Wisdom incarnate.

The Most Mystical Of Transformations Must Come To Your Own Heart!

Acknowledge this simple Truth: "I am the Son, risen from the death of the illusion of separation and I open the arms of my Heart and I embrace all worlds." And speak these simple words attributed to me and know that they are your own. Claim them as your own. Proclaim them as your own: "I and my Father are One."

Never again will you slumber in the only sleep that truly exists: the belief that you are anything but the Son of God. And then give silent thanks to the Father and recognize well that the Son would not awaken if the Father had not touched Him.

Herein is the meaning of Ascension given. For what was demonstrated upon this your beloved earth is that most mystical of transformations that must come to your own Heart. Not to behold a saviour separate from you, but to behold you are that saviour. And in every moment of your experience you can embrace this Truth. Before you is the Perfect Will the Father would give unto you. And that in each moment you have the power to choose to express and manifest all that the Son is and all that I have demonstrated unto you.

Herein lies the meaning of birth: that you would choose to dream that you are other than the Son. Herein is the meaning of death: the death of a moment's dream. Herein is the meaning of rebirth given: the Son claims His rightful place. Claim it now and forevermore.

For the time is upon your earth, that even the Father has willed that in this time, there can be Heaven on earth. That even the Kingdom of the Father that shall be spread across the face of the earth, mankind will finally see it. You hold the power to end all suffering. You can end all hunger and all lack. You can end the need for authorities born of the complexities within the minds of mankind – yet sleeping – and establish again the reign of the Father living in and as each Heart.

Do not take lightly what is given you. For my beloved brothers and sisters, the time is at hand. Would you not take upon yourselves this joyous task of proclaiming by being this Holy Truth which has been given to the sleeping Son by the Father throughout all ages and all worlds and in many forms?

Give over Every Last Trace Of Your Belief In Separation.
Desire Only The Perfect Will Of Our Holy Father.

Join with me and let us stir the Light of the Father within us, without need to make excuse and without need to bow down to the mere shadows of the world around you. Be who you are. Teach who you are. See all others as who they are.

Now is the time upon your earth when Hearts have longed to be filled with your Light that they might know themselves to be that Light. It is for this that I have called unto you and it is this Truth already carried within your Hearts that has given forth the Power unto you to hear my call. Doubt not what you feel, for you know the words that I speak unto you echo the Truth you already contain within you.

The hour is come. The light of a new dawn breaks across the horizon. Bring forth its rays to touch all living things, to bring back all things to the embrace of the Father. And in this even your earth will rejoice and throw off its pain and its agony that you have bestowed upon it, only because you have chosen to dream the dreadful and complex dream of separation.

Let thine eye be single. Let your intention be but one, even to proclaim with every breath the one Reality you are. Let your desire be single, desiring only the Perfect Will of our Holy Father.

Release the tension that yet would bind your Heart and allow the Light within you to shine. Give over every last trace of your belief in separation. Surrender everything that you have thought yourself to be and when you have emptied yourself, will the Father begin His most Holy of works and raise up his Perfect Temple, first within your Heart and then throughout the whole of your body, transforming your mind, your emotion, your memory, your expectations. And then will you arise the Christed, the anointed, the Perfect Servant of God and you will know and understand well in this and this alone does your fulfillment reside. In this and this alone is the end of all seeking. In this and this alone is your salvation: not to seek the saviour of the world but to be that savior.

There Will Be A Period Upon This Earth Of Perfect Peace and Great Rejoicing!

Beloved children of the most High, offspring of Light eternal, you have never sinned. You have never made a single choice for which the Father has judged you. Every thought you would call evil, every action you would call hurtful and self-serving, for the Father, exists not. Would you not then choose to abide in the only Reality that you could ever possess and be what the Father knows you to be the Holy Sacred, Son of God, in whom the Father is eternally well pleased.

And when the whole of mankind looks upon the Truth within him, then there will be a period upon this earth of Perfect Peace and great rejoicing. Then even the whole of creation will have fulfilled its purpose and all things that already reside within you as the Son will return to the embrace of the Father. And beyond this, nothing can be said. For no words can utter the Perfection and the mysteries that will be known there.

Beloved children of God, great is my Love for you who have suffered so long. For you have sought me and you have prayed to me. And now if you would but receive it, you have found me. And you have found me abiding in and as your own being.

You Will Take Me In Your Arms and You Will Feel All That I Am Melt Within You and Become You!

Inasmuch as the Father has given freely unto you, go therefore and do likewise, giving freely to those whom the Father would bring to you and think not that you can know the form that the Father would bring those to you who would know Him. But be ever vigilant and always quiet and in this quietness, born of the recognition that you lack nothing, you will see clearly the Father's Will for you.

Would you have Wisdom come unto you? Then be ever watchful for Wisdom can come as the thief in the night. But if you wait, insisting that it come in the light of day, the thief will come and leave the treasure for you and you will not see it. Only when you are still can you hear the Voice of the Father, given of the Holy Spirit whispering unto you that which you would seek. Empty then your Hearts, release the emotions that would bind you to a past that in Truth has never been. And you will find yourself residing where I am. And you will look upon me and in my eyes you will see naught but yourself. And you will take me in your arms and you will feel all that I am melt within you and become you. And then will you recognize who you have always been, beloved and Holy Christ. Before you do I bow down, for all of the Light that you have brought into this world. And yet know that it is but a trace of the Light yet to come.

And know well and always that I love you. For how can I do anything else but love myself? Learn to embrace one another, not as a stranger, not as an acquaintance, not yet as a brother or sister, but learn to embrace the Holy Son of God in all that you see, in all that you feel. I would have you understand this well: there is not one blade of grass in which the Son does not abide and you are that Son. So what is there to do, my beloved friends, but to abide and rejoice in the miracle you already are. Let this time be unlike any that you have ever experienced. Grasp the courage within your own Hearts to do what I have suggested unto you. Embrace it fully, do it fully, live it fully and feel the joy fully of acknowledging that you are the risen Christ.

The Beginning Of A Sacred Journey Arises!

Now does the presence of the Father sweep away all past things. Now does His Perfect Countenance cast upon your Hearts that Perfect Peace. Now does the Light of Wisdom light up all dark places and now does the Holy Son of God return to the throne room of the Father and take up his place at the Father's right hand to do naught but that which the Father would have him do. Now and forevermore it is so.

Give thanks to the Father, for it is He alone that has traveled with you throughout your many journeys. It is He alone that has fed you all you needed to create and sustain your illusions. For never would the Father seek to disturb the dream His child would choose to dream. But even as you have dreamed that you are separate from the Father, so too have you begun to dream that perhaps you could come again unto Him. And with the beginning of that dream did you turn about and seek to find your way again to the Kingdom.

Give thanks to Him then, for He alone has nurtured you and sustained you and guided you without error to this moment, and to this teaching. Would you yet stand outside the threshold of the door upon which you have knocked for so long? And now the door is opened. For the key that would open the door to the Kingdom is found in the recognition that you are the One you seek. And in embracing this Truth you cross that final threshold and the end of the journey is known and the beginning of a sacred journey arises.

It is here that you will find me, here that you will know me, here that I await the choice to be made by the Holy and only begotten Son of God: I choose to acknowledge who I already am, the anointed one, the Christ, the Son of God.

Would you not then allow the Father to remake you?

So then, beloved brothers and sisters, abiding in and as the Christ, at one with the Father, yet is there much to set in order. For though the threshold be crossed, the journey that the Father would have you take is without end. For how can there be an end to rejoicing in your union with all that the Father is? For God is Spirit and Spirit knows neither beginning nor end.

Would you not then allow the Father to remake you, to form your thoughts, to shape your emotions, to remake your very bodies to be as a fit temple for the incredible energies that the Father would give forth unto the world through you? Why would you choose to resist your own transformation? For you cannot embrace the Kingdom and yet remain possessed by the world. And there is not one thing that the Father would ask you to release that could ever cost you anything. For what cost can there be in the releasing of a mere shadow?

I have called and you have come. I have held out to your lips a cup filled with living waters, but I cannot drink for you. For even as you chose your dream of separation, so must you alone choose your reunion and the awakening of all that your dream has been. Would you not place your hands upon the side of the cup and take it to your lips and drink deeply the living waters of the Holy Spirit given to you freely and eternally because the Father Loves all that you are?

And He asks you now to join with Him in the transformation of all that your world is and the rebuilding of that which has been known by each of you, though it has been forgotten. Drink deeply and drink often. Whenever you know doubt or fear or longing or loneliness, take the cup to your lips and drink deeply and you will feel the energy that is the Love of the Father coursing through your veins. And what you have believed to exist will be no more. And you will wonder even in that moment that it could have ever seemed to exist, and you will rejoice and you will go forward with gladness upon your Heart and a lightness to your countenance and Truth will be upon your lips and Love shining through your eyes, compassion through your touch and transformation through your presence. Be this; teach this; embrace this; know this.

Rejoice In This! Practice This! Live This and, Therefore, Teach This!

Herein is the Heart of my Gospel known: you are the One you seek! The Kingdom is not born with effort. There is nothing you need do, for in Truth there is nothing you can do, save to be empty and to rejoice in the Father's presence, to move your body and breathe as a knowing and a prayer to all that the Father is.

What transpires for you is a grand and deep healing, and what you have been guided to learn, learn well and practice these things daily, for within them is the power to bring the light of ten thousand suns to bear on the recesses of your soul. Embrace and rejoice in what is brought forth by the Light that shines upon you and let them be as shadows being eternally released. Rejoice in their passing as they lift up, move through and out of you.

Trust this process and rejoice in it, for your rejoicing will accelerate the process itself. For there is much work to set the house in order and the house is the soul in which the Father and the Son together dwell. And the Father would that it be rid of all cobwebs yet lurking in the corners.

And when Light is brought to bear upon darkness, does darkness squirm and move and then it is dissolved. Let it pass away even as night passes forth into day. Beyond this it would not be wise to speak specifically. For this would only serve to focus your attention on the recognition that you are the Awakened Son of God. And that the power of the Father is already cleansing you of all shadow. Rejoice in this. Practice this. Live this and, therefore, teach this.

What, Then, Is The Key? It Rests In Only This: To Begin At The End!

I have chosen to look upon you and to recognize that you are my brothers and my sisters. I have chosen to learn to look and see only the Light of Christ within you. That Light, which shines radiantly beyond all limitations, it is that Light that I speak to, that Light that I come to, that Light that I join with through your dreams and in the space between the thoughts you would choose to think. If this is so, it must mean that what you are seeking is already within you. And that perhaps the way of transcendence rests not in efforting or striving, but on wondering. (CD-HES1)

What, then, is the key? It rests in only this: to begin at the end. To first acknowledge, in Reality, I have never changed. In Reality, I am as God has created me to be. In Reality, I have already tasted all experience and there is nothing new under the heaven of my consciousness. I am perfect and whole now. From that choice it then follows that you can begin to accept that regardless of what you think you see and what you think you're experiencing, there is a depth of Wisdom within you that can bring enlightenment from the Higher Self, if you will, from the soul, down through the levels of the personality all the way into the cellular structure of the body, if that be your true desire.

The true way home, then, my precious, precious friends, rests on the willingness to withdraw the value that you have placed on all of the perceptions you have created. To be willing to stand with empty hands, to look upon an object, a person, an event, a feeling, and to begin with the thought, "I am Whole and Perfect."

And to acknowledge that you are beholding mystery, and that you cannot rely on your own ideas to understand anything. That is the beginning of Wisdom.

And now let His Will be done on earth, even as it is already done in Heaven. For it is in Heaven that we already dwell. Be at peace and accept my Love that I would shower down upon you, now and in every moment. What lies before you is the transformation of all that you have believed yourself to be, until there is naught but one Mind, the Holy and only begotten Son of God, anointed Christ. (ARC)

Rejoice then, for the ending of illusion is now upon this plane and you will see the completion of Heaven on earth!

Amen!
