It Is Love and Love Alone
That You Are!

From Study Group Paper: It Is Love and Love Alone That You Are! with ACIM

Precious friends, you carry one of the greatest gifts and the power of it will begin now to blossom. It is the gift of your presence, the gift of your ability simply to be, without need of trying to get anything from the future, without need of casting judgment upon anybody, without need of feeling there is something lacking. Just your presence brings a Light that is like a beacon, and as you allow – the most important key to the Kingdom, by the way, allowing – as you allow yourself to simply acknowledge and listen well, that you need do nothing, much will begin to be done around you and through you.

Just have fun. But above all it is absolutely critical that you allow your, what has been called by others a mantra, to be simply this:

"I need do nothing, save to just be."

That's more than enough. Put aside your confusion and rest in faith. And from faith clarity will be born, rest assured. The tendency in your mind is that, "There must be something else that I can do. What can I develop in myself?" Nothing. You need only be willing, and if you give the Holy Spirit a little willingness, rest assured, if there's a mountain to be moved, it will be moved. You need do nothing save remember and be at peace.

You are the presence of the Thought of Love in form. You are unbounded and eternal. There has never been a time that you have not existed as the Thought held lovingly in the Mind of God. Your Reality knows no boundaries. It knows neither beginning nor end and therefore, you have never tasted birth nor death. You cannot possibly have ever sinned against God. You are indeed loved wholly, and the Light shines in you as completely in this moment as the Light has ever shined in me. That Light you are. . . . and you have a very good laugh because the drama has become a comedy, and then you can choose anew.

~ Jeshua
