Service Is the Natural
Outflow of a Heart Filled with the Gratitude of Grace!

From Study Group Paper: Service Is the Natural Outflow of a Heart Filled with the Gratitude of Grace!

I want very much for each and every one of you to truly, to truly embrace this simple fact – and I speak to you now, each individually, if you will. I give thanks to my Father for your presence. I bow down before your Light and your Love and your beauty. I cannot possibly find words in any language that can possibly express to you the gratitude and the Love that I feel, the joy I feel when I look upon you.

It isn't what you do. It isn't what you say. It's who you are. And throughout all of eternity I have and will remain in awe at the stupendous Light that you are. Thank you from the depth of my being. Thank you for the Light that you bring to creation. It's a rather joyous state, you see, to be in a place where constantly with everyone that comes into your experience the feeling that I just expressed to you is there. Is there always.

Forever, I am with you. Forever, I am with you. For long before the stars were birthed, long before the planets arose, long before even a thought of physicality had emerged within the divine mind of the Son of God, we were already created together and equally. Yet, that creation of what alone is Real knows no point of birth.

Therefore, because the Father is forever, so too, have we abided together, held together and sustained together in Love. And throughout all time and even unto eternity do we abide together in the Reality of who we are.

Therefore, think it not extraordinary when I say unto you:

I am with you always, even unto the end of this age.

This is the time of your “Thanksgiving” as it is called. Will it be that time in which you truly give thanks for the Grace that sets you free? Will you honor that Grace by descending the stairway to the quiet places of the Heart in each of your days?
