Perfect Christedness Is Never Outside Of Your Reach!

From Study Group Paper: Perfect Christedness Is Never Outside Of Your Reach!
(with ACIM)

I once made a decision as a man to take on the misperceptions of the world – and rest assured, that is the only reason that I come forth to communicate with you. For if I have not experienced all that you have experienced, nothing I say to you holds any value or meaning. There is no substance to the words of one who speaks without having experience. But because I, too, took on the misperceptions of the world, I came to learn all that I could learn of this dimension, which is merely a temporary thought. And I learned it because I love my Father.

You are the presence of the Thought of Love in form. You are unbounded and eternal. There has never been a time that you have not existed as the Thought held lovingly in the Mind of God. Your Reality knows no boundaries. It knows neither beginning nor end and, therefore, you have never tasted birth nor death. You cannot possibly have ever sinned against God. You are indeed Loved wholly, and the Light shines in you as completely in this moment as the Light has ever shined in me. That Light is what you are.

Love allows all things. Love is the willingness to show up in the way that can best serve the growth of another soul. And the wise teacher learns the language of the student. What is the language? Not the words, just the predilection – the patterns within the soul. The vibratory quality, if you will. And Love adapts itself endlessly and ceaselessly through you and as you, to serve one another.

You cannot fail to accomplish what the Father gives unto you to do, and the only thing worth doing is what that One gives you. And what that One gives you is Love, that through you might be extended the good, the holy, and the beautiful. And what is that but a reflection of your Self? You are the good, you are the holy, and you are the beautiful.
