It Is Love and Love Alone
That You Are!

From Study Group Paper: It Is Love and Love Alone That You Are!

Grace, the word itself is so powerful. It speaks of something that comes that is wholly given and can never hopefully be earned. No dance you could ever dance could ever earn you a smidgen more of Grace. And Grace descends gently upon you even now. Fully, in every moment, Grace is available to every mind and every heart that would but choose to receive it, to remember the Truth of the Kingdom, to set aside the beliefs of the world.

“Love is the nature of my being. Father, I receive it. Do with me what You will. I have never known what to do with me, anyway.”

Grace. Grace brings a gentleness to all of your activities. Grace brings a peace. Grace brings that Light that can flow through you in this moment, if you would but allow it. Grace, given fully by God unto His only creation – you

Are you then powerful? Oh, yes, beyond measure. For from you comes forth whatever you choose. Nothing can arise by accident. Each event that you experience can come to you only because you have called forth for it. It is, indeed, an answer to your very prayer for a perfect and consummate awakening. It is the answer you seek as you make the transition from one who is journeying to the Kingdom to one who journeys within it.
