

A Message From The Shanti Christo Foundation

Never Have You Been A Victim Of The World Around You!

Now, in that most ancient of beginnings before time is, the Son was with the Father and the Father with the Son. Eternally the Son was One, united in the Father. If you would receive it, you are that Son who is from before time. And again I say unto you, all worlds that have been brought forth have been brought forth in you. So then, to bring about great change upon this your beloved planet is not such a difficult thing to do. When you recognize that you are the creator of all worlds, you will regain your power as the Holy Son of God.

Never have you been a victim of the world around you. Never is there power within the world around you, save that which you would give unto it. Can you learn in each of your days to look out upon all that you would perceive, and then see that you have brought it forth? Do you love it? Is it what you wish to see continue? Consider this question well, and if you would but practice it, you will begin to reawaken ancient memories, memories of a time when mankind walked with God and knew it. It is as to a return to that time that you will feel yourself drawn. You will feel a growing impatience. You will feel born within you the desire to serve in the Reawakening of the Children of your blessed Father, that His Perfect Kingdom might again be made manifest.

Now, the Love of the Father is extended unto you with every moment. Embrace the angel of sunlight when it caresses your skin and give thanks. Embrace the angel of air that you would breathe deeply and give thanks. Embrace your friend, your brother, your sister, your child, your mother, and your earthly father and give thanks. For if you would receive it, every moment of your experience is as a jewel extended unto you from the very Hand of your Father. Through it and it alone will you remember the Kingdom of the heart of the Son that dwells within you. There is no task too tedious, no moment too boring for you not to remember what it is. For as I have said unto you, there is only Spirit. And if you would worship the Father, worship every moment. For I have taught you that God is Spirit, therefore worship Him as such in every moment.

Go in peace, precious and Holy Son of God.

Amen.
