The Light Of A New Dawn Breaks Across The Horizon!

Join with me and let us stir the Light of the Father within us, without need to make excuse and without need to bow down to the mere shadows of the world around you. Be who you are! Teach who you are! Proclaim to all others who they are! For now is the time upon the earth when the ears of mankind will listen. Now is the time upon your earth when Hearts have longed to be filled with your Light that they might know themselves to be that Light. It is for this that I have called unto you and it is this Truth already carried within your Hearts that has given forth the Power unto you to hear my call. Doubt not what each of you now feels even in this moment, for you know the words that I share with you echo the Truth you already contain within you.

The hour is come. The light of a new dawn breaks across the horizon! Bring forth its Rays to touch all living things, to bring back all things to the embrace of the Father. And in this even your earth will rejoice and throw off its pain and its agony that you have bestowed upon it, only because you have chosen to dream the dreadful and complex dream of separation.

Let thine eye be single. Let your intention be but one, even to proclaim with every breath the One Reality you are. Let your desire be single, desiring only the Perfect Will of our Holy Father. Release the tension that yet would bind your Heart and allow the Light within you to shine. Give over every last trace of your belief in separation. Surrender everything that you have thought yourself to be and when you have emptied yourself, will the Father begin His most Holy of works and raise up his Perfect Temple, first within your Heart and then throughout the whole of your body, transforming your mind, your emotion, your memory, your expectations.

And then will you arise the Christed, the Anointed, the Perfect Servant of God and you will know and understand well in this and this alone does your fulfillment reside. In this and this alone is the end of all seeking. In this and this alone is your salvation:

Not to seek the Savior of the world but to be that Savior.

Rejoice Then, For The Ending Of Illusion Is Now Upon This Plane!

Beloved children of the most High, offspring of Light eternal, you have never sinned. You have never made a single choice for which the Father has judged you. Every thought you would call evil, every action you would call hurtful and self-serving, for the Father, exists not. Would you not then choose to abide in the only Reality that you could ever possess and be what the Father knows you to be – the Holy Sacred, Son of God, in whom the Father is eternally well pleased.

Rejoice then, for the ending of illusion is now upon this plane and many of you will live yet within the bodies you have called your own and you will see the completion of the New Jerusalem. And yet it matters not if you would abide with the body or without it, for in Truth you already abide everywhere and every when.

You have proliferated bodies upon bodies, forms upon forms, personalities upon personalities, all because you have believed yourself to be other than who you are. And when the whole of mankind looks upon the Truth within him, then there will be a period upon this earth of Perfect Peace and great rejoicing. And then even the whole of creation will have fulfilled its purpose and all things that already reside within you as the Son will return to the embrace of the Father. And beyond this, nothing can be said. For no words can utter the Perfection and the Mysteries that will be known there.

Before You, Do I Bow Down, For All Of The Light That You Have Brought Into This World!

Beloved children of God, great is my Love for you who have suffered so long. For you have sought me and you have prayed to me. And now if you would but receive it, you have found me. And you have found me abiding in and as your own Being.

Inasmuch as the Father has given freely unto you, go therefore and do likewise, giving freely to those whom the Father would bring to you and think not that you can know the form that the Father would bring those to you who would know Him. But be ever vigilant and always quiet and in this quietness, born of the recognition that you lack nothing, you will see clearly the Father's Will for you.

And would you have Wisdom come unto you? Then be ever watchful for Wisdom can come as the thief in the night. But if you wait, insisting that it come in the light of day, the thief will come and leave the treasure for you and you will not see it. Only when you are still can you hear the Voice of the Father, given of the Holy Spirit whispering unto you that which you would seek.

Empty then your Hearts, release the emotions that would bind you to a past that in Truth has never been. And you will find yourself residing where I am. And you will look upon me and in my eyes you will see naught but yourself. And you will take me in your arms and you will feel all that I am melt within you and become you. And then will you recognize who you have always been, beloved and Holy Christ. Before you do I bow down, for all of the Light that you have brought into this world. And yet know that it is but a trace of the Light yet to come.

And know well and always that I love you. For how can I do anything else but love myself? Learn to embrace one another, not as a stranger, not as an acquaintance, not yet as a brother or sister, but learn to embrace the Holy Son of God in all that you see, in all that you feel. I would have you understand this well: there is not one blade of grass in which the Son does not abide and you are that Son. So what is there to do, my beloved friends, but to abide and rejoice with one another in the miracle you already are. Let this Easter be unlike any that you have ever experienced. Grasp the courage within your own Hearts to do what I have suggested unto you. Embrace it fully, do it fully, live it fully and feel the Joy fully of acknowledging that you are the risen Christ.

And now does the presence of the Father sweep away all past things. Now does His perfect countenance cast upon your Hearts that Perfect Peace. Now does the Light of Wisdom Light up all dark places. And now does the Holy Son of God return to the throne room of the Father and take up his place at the Father's right hand to do naught but that which the Father would have him do. Now and forevermore it is so.

The Beginning Of A Sacred Journey Arises!

In this moment give thanks to the Father, for it is He alone that has traveled with you throughout your many journeys. For never would the Father seek to disturb the dream His child would choose to dream. But even as you have dreamed that you are separate from the Father, so too have you begun to dream that perhaps you could come again unto Him.

And with the beginning of that dream did you turn about and seek to find your way again to the Kingdom. Give thanks to Him then, for He alone has nurtured you and sustained you and guided you without error to this moment, to this place and to this Gospel. Would you yet stand outside the threshold of the door upon which you have knocked for so long? And now the door is opened. For the key that would open the door to the Kingdom is found in the recognition that you are the One you seek. And in embracing this Truth you cross that final threshold and the end of the journey is known and the beginning of a Sacred Journey arises.

It is here that you will find me, here that you will know me, here that I await the choice to be made by the Holy and only begotten Son of God:

I choose to acknowledge who I already am, the Anointed One, the Christ, the Son of God.

So then, beloved brothers and sisters, abiding in and as the Christ, at One with the Father, yet is there much to set in order. For though the threshold be crossed, the journey that the Father would have you take is without end. For how can there be an end to rejoicing in your union with all that the Father is? For God is Spirit and Spirit knows neither beginning nor end.

Would you not then allow the Father to remake you, to form your thoughts, to shape your emotions, to remake your very bodies to be as a fit temple for the incredible energies that the Father would give forth unto the world through you?

Why would you choose to resist your own transformation? For you cannot embrace the Kingdom and yet remain possessed by the world. And there is not one thing that the Father would ask you to release that could ever cost you anything. For what cost can there be in the releasing of a mere shadow?

Join Him In The Transformation Of All That Your World Is and Drink Deeply and Drink Often!!!

I have called and you have come. I have held out to your lips a cup filled with living waters, but I cannot drink for you. For even as you chose your dream of separation, so must you alone choose your reunion and the awakening of all that your dream has been. Would you now place your hands upon the side of the cup and take it to your lips and drink deeply the living waters of the Holy Spirit given to you freely and eternally because the Father Loves all that you are?

And He asks you now to join with Him in the transformation of all that your world is and the rebuilding of that which has been known by each of you, though it has been forgotten. Drink deeply and drink often. Whenever you know doubt or fear or longing or loneliness, take the cup to your lips and drink deeply and you will feel the energy that is the Love of the Father coursing through your veins. And what you have believed to exist will be no more. And you will wonder even in that moment that it could have ever seemed to exist, and you will rejoice and you will go forward with gladness upon your Heart and a lightness to your countenance and Truth will be upon your lips and Love shining through your eyes, compassion through your touch and transformation through your presence. Be this; teach this; embrace this; know this. Herein is the Heart of my Gospel known:

You are the One you seek!

Look Well, Not With Your Physical Eyes, But With The Eyes Of Your Soul and See That You Are The Son Of God!

The journey of the Son that has chosen to sleep and in his sleep to dream countless dreams has been complex, has been rich in its diversity. And yet the end of the dream remains simple. But does not the sleeping child simply open its eyes, lift its head from its pillow and behold? Does the child not know that it is Home again? Thus does the Kingdom come as a thief in the night, silently and without warning. And yet the thief is eternally blessed for the thief is nothing but the messenger of the Father, even that Holy Spirit whose Voice, ringing in the Temple of the Heart of the sleeping Son, awakens the Son.

And yet I would say to you, remember always that the Kingdom is as far from the world as the east from the west. If you would but look from where I am, you would know beyond a doubt that the world carries no trace or Knowledge of that which the Son is. And yet it is a Mystery of Mysteries that were it not for the Presence and the Sacred Union of the Father and His beloved Son no worlds could arise. Come then to this understanding. Look well, not with your physical eyes, but with the eyes of your soul, enshrouded in veils of distant dreams and ancient memories. Release them and behold the Truth. You are the Son of God! In this rests all salvation. In this rests the end of all longing. In this alone is Life. For the awakened Son looks upon the whole of His journey and knows that it has not yet begun. For the only journey that contains Life is a journey within the Kingdom.

The path is simple and easy to walk. No obstacle is found upon it. For the Awakened Son who has become as the Perfect Servant of the Will of the Father steps firmly but lightly, not in the direction that he would go but in the direction given him through the Holy Spirit. And already does the Father remove all stones from the path before him. Therefore my sojourn among you, so long ago, was not one of effort or struggle. Always in my days upon your earth I rejoiced in quiet Joy. For I knew well then that the world contained nothing that could fulfill me. And when you choose to release all wanting that veils the Light of the Heart, you will look and you will see and you will know whereof I speak.

What Is The World When Compared To The Radiance Of The Kingdom?

What could the world have ever done to me that could separate me from my Father? And my life and the apparent death of my physical body was but a demonstration that there is nothing in your experience that can separate you from that Grand Love that is your Being.

And now hear well these words: the Father is come to abide upon the throne that He has already set within your Heart. And what effort can be spent in doing but the simplest of things? And that simple thing is but to acknowledge the Reality of that Throne upon which the Father sits.

For where the Heart is made Pure, the Father abides. And yet the Heart has always been Pure. It is only for each of you to look, to see and to acknowledge. Never has there been a trace of sin that has darkened the Secret Chamber that lies within you. For all sin and the thought of it is but of the world. And what is the world when compared to the radiance of the Kingdom? It is less than even a shadow for it has no being and no power. Always do you abide as the Holy and only begotten Son of the Father.

And always do you abide at the Right Hand of the Father. To behold His presence you need simply turn the head of your attention and you will see Him and you will feel Him and you will know Him. And you will know Him because you have forever been with Him. Herein is the end of all seeking. Herein is the end of all practice that would turn the Heart of the Son away from the confusion of the world and the noise in the mind toward the silence of that Perfect Place in which the Father resides.

And in the end of all searching and in the end of all striving does the Awakened Son look and behold the journey never was. No effort has been expended, no mountains climbed, no pain overcome. For the Son abides wholly in the Kingdom or chooses to forget the Kingdom and to imagine that he abides in a complex and fearful and changing world. Let this be as a guide unto each of you when there is felt but a trace of contradiction of the Heart: know that you have begun to choose the world over the Kingdom. And yet in that same moment by acknowledging the Truth of your Being you can feel that contraction dissolve. And in its release know that you have chosen the Kingdom over the world. It is here that whatever the Son so asks, the Father shall give it unto him!

Paradox Of All Paradoxes!

The Awakened Son is like a man who would go upon a journey and his preparation resides in this:

He opens the palm of his hand and gives thanks for the jewels and the coins that he perceives there.

And opening his Heart, and his eyes and his mind and every cell of his body, he beholds that he is already in the Land to which he would journey. And his feet move, not in answer to his own desires, but he is impelled to move as the Father would have him move. Thus does he move without effort, without strife and without striving. He has given all things back to the Father and the Father has shown His Light, perfectly and brightly throughout all things that the Awakened Son beholds. And the Awakened Son simply rejoices in simple and quiet humility.

And yet I say this unto you: though the Awakened Son is never apart from the Kingdom, yet does the Kingdom remain forever Mystery. Paradox of all paradoxes. For the Father and the Son are One. And in Truth the Son is the form of the Father made manifest. Not to live in strife, not to struggle in lack, but to rejoice and to allow the fullness of the Light of the Father that cannot be comprehended to shine forth in every thought, in every word, in every action. And yet the Son knows that it is not he that can think a Perfect Thought nor speak a Perfect Word nor act from Perfect Purity. For these things abide in the Father and are given to the Son that through the Son the world might awaken and be transformed into what has been called Paradise, what has been called the Kingdom of Heaven. For the Kingdom is indeed already spread across the earth but the sleeping minds of mankind choose not to see it.

And know this, every choice made by the mind in believing in the illusion of separation is already used by the Father to gently guide the sleeping Son to awakening. Nothing ever brought forth in the worlds that you have experienced has ever done anything but to serve the awakening of the only begotten Son of God. And well do you know that the condemnation placed upon me by those who feared me has done naught but to serve the spreading of my Gospel.

Never Is The Wealth Of The Father Spent!

Herein know well the harmony of the Kingdom and give thanks for all things that come to you. Give thanks to the Father for all things that are felt and seen and touched and tasted. For well does He know what you most have need of. For it is only when you have chosen to abide in the illusion that you have been separate from Him, that you have longed for things that could not fill you. And the anger that you have known and the enmity between yourselves and your brothers and sisters is born not of the Father but of your choice to dream of separation that there could be anything outside the Presence of the Father that could fill you, that could nourish you, that you must surely need, for the Awakened Son has need of nothing. Seeking not, the Son gives all that he has and when he gives all that he has, he looks and, behold, he has more given unto him.

And never is the wealth of the Father spent. Would you not open your Hearts and your minds to receive of the abundance that the Father would give unto you? And as quickly as would receive it, would you not give it away gladly to your sleeping brothers and sisters? For the more that you give, the more you will receive. This is the Truth of the Kingdom and the fear of the world.

You Can In This Moment Release All Things Of The World!

Beloved Christ, know well that you do not abide in the body, but that the body abides in you. And if you would but receive it, as you look around you, there is not one thing that you behold that does not exist within you. For in Truth you are of One Heart, One Mind and One Soul eternal.

And the dawning of this, called the New Age, requires a new teaching. And yet what seems new has been already present from before that ancient beginning of journeys that never in Truth needed to be.

You have heard it said unto you that you have known many lifetimes, but I would say unto you, you are all lifetimes. You have heard it said unto you that you must perfect your weaknesses. But I would say unto you, you are already Perfection. You have heard it said unto you that you must experience the consequences of your sins, but I would say unto you, you have never sinned. What consequences must you endure?

You can in this moment release all things of the world, even those things to come. Here in this moment you can stop the momentum that has carried you to this point and would carry you into future lives and experiences of separation. You can let the wheel of the world cease in its movement. And in its ceasing is found the Peace that forever passes all understanding. And in the ceasing of its movement you will rest in the Fields of your Father's Kingdom in perfect and unending abundance.

For the Awakened Son need only stand with outstretched arms, palms heavenward, and without even asking simply receive the abundance that is already his. Thus is the Kingdom born without effort. And thus does the Awakened Son proclaim:

"Behold, brothers and sisters, my burden is eternally Light and my way is very easy."

There Will Be Joy Upon Your Heart and A Smile Upon Your Face!

All that I am and have been, you already are. And all that I did upon this your beloved earth, you can already do, and more than these. Think not then that you must change the water to wine nor that you must raise the dead to life. For the Father will speak unto you of what He will have you do. Will you be willing to listen?

Only when the Son abides eternally in silence can he hear the Voice of the Father. For in silence is the noise of the world shut out. And in silence, the world touches the Son not. And in this most Holy of Silences, not a pause between thoughts, but that which abides eternally prior to all thought. And in this most Holy of Silences do you already know what your purpose is. And when you have chosen to acknowledge it, you will go forth lightly and without effort and there will be Joy upon your Heart and a smile upon your face.

And the Light you are will shine forth through your eyes and others will behold It and know It. But some would still choose to fear It. Be not concerned for those that would choose fear, but abide always and eternally and with every breath in the Light of the Father's Perfect Kingdom. Choose, then, to be the Perfect Servant. And allow the world to be transformed, not as you would transform it, but as the Father would will it to be transformed.

Nothing Can Be Released Until It Is First Embraced!

Who among you would yet choose to lift their head from the pillow when first they awaken in the morning and not acknowledge the Truth of their own Being? Who among you would yet choose to forsake the giving of thanks to the Presence of our Holy Father? For the world would have you arise and immediately turn your attention to what can only be momentary shadow. But in Joy does the Awakened Son acknowledge first the Kingdom of God in all things.

Despise nothing, for it too, has served you in your journey, even to this very moment. Love it well and Love it wholly. For if you would come completely to where I am, know that you cannot do this if there is anything that you have not first embraced. Therefore, if you carry enmity with your brother, your sister, your mother or your father, make great haste and make peace with them. Care not what they would say nor what they would think, but speak from the Heart within you and give them your Love and see in them the presence of your own Self. For nothing can be released until it is first embraced.

There Will Be An Age Of Perfect Peace!

The Kingdom of Heaven is indeed eternal. In It do you dwell. From It do you draw your sustenance. And in your acknowledging of the Truth of your Being will you become It. And your Light will light all darkness and your presence will be as a healing. And your glory that has never been tainted in the eyes of the Father will shine before the world that through you the Father might bring the whole of creation back again to Himself.

You are the Son even as I am. And I Love all of you greatly. And do you not see that in Loving you, I Love naught but myself? And in Loving me, you Love naught but yourself.

Those of you that have sought me and have prayed to me, know this well:

You need only look upon your brother or your sister and behold, I am there.

The time of dreams is ended now. This then is my gospel. This then my message unto you. Never have I been far from you. And in these the last days I am come forth in many forms and I will be with you until you choose wholly to be with me. Thus will the Kingdom again be established in the minds of those who are yet sleeping. And there will be an age of Perfect Peace. It will be seen and known upon the earth and then will the very purpose of creation have been fulfilled. And yet beyond this, nothing can be said. For in each and every moment the Will of the Father is given you – you need only attend to the Voice of the Spirit within you.

And if you would know the Will of the Father, open the eyes of your Heart. For never would you be where the Father would not have you be. Gently has He alone guided you. Gently does He alone sustain you. Therefore, know no envy of the path of another. Look not around you and believe that you must have what you see, that another seems to possess. For it is not given unto you to know the purpose of the path of another. But it is given unto you to Love the other to be the Son you are, and allow your own journey to be ended.

I call you then to abide with me, in me and as me!

The work that we have begun here together comes forth because each of you, even beyond the threshold of your minds, has heard the Voice of the Holy Spirit. If you would look with your awakened eyes you would see the many pathways that have been tread by each present. Is it not a grand miracle that throughout innumerable ages that you find yourself here in this moment? Never has there been an accident upon your path, never a surprise, save to the sleeping mind. And so you have come again to hear the Truth of your own Being, mirrored back to you, and would you not now accept It? Or would you choose again to journey throughout the labyrinths of time and experience, only to hear this gospel again?

I call you then to abide with me, in me and as me. For in Truth there is nothing else to be done save the listening to the Voice of the Spirit that would guide us into the fulfillment of our Father's Will. And is it not in these times to be simply the servant to our brothers and sisters yet sleeping, that the Kingdom might again be made known, and that mankind might again take its place within the Garden he believes he left so long ago?

Be, therefore, the Light you are. Rejoice in yourself and in one another. And again I would ask you to come together often. And where two or three are gathered, I am there among you. Come together in the complete recognition that the Messiah has indeed come. For I cannot be recognized by the eyes of the body until I am embraced by the Arms of the Heart.

Know well that I love you, for Love you are. Know well that I am with you, for I am you. Know well that the Father makes His abode in you and waits patiently for you but to turn to Him and to acknowledge His Presence with every breath you breathe, with every thought you think, with every word you speak and with every action you do. And heed well the answer given, for never speak until you first abide in the Father and hear what He would have you speak.

You Will Marvel At the Speed In Which This Is Accomplished!

Peace be unto you, my beloved brothers and sisters and those who have journeyed long and far to come once again to the threshold of the Kingdom. And yet is it not that Kingdom which in Truth you have never left? I have spoken unto you the Heart of the Gospel that was brought to you so many years ago. It was not understood then, but by a few. But now is there a time upon this your beloved earth when the Gospel can indeed be spread to the far corners of the earth and you will marvel at the speed in which this is accomplished. For I would have you understand this:

The transmission of that which alone is Reality, that which alone is Truth, that which alone is the Essence of your own Being requires no distances to be traveled and no time to be spent.

There is but one requirement for the rebirth of the blessed Kingdom of our Holy Father, that for which you have prayed, that for which you have longed and that for which you have seemed to suffer so very much. And the requirement is but this:

That each of you choose to acknowledge that you are the One you seek!

The Perfect Silence Of Your Heart!

Never has the Kingdom been denied you; never has it been hidden from you, for the Presence of the Holy Father stands before you, around you and within you. And the Father never hides from the Son. But the Son you are has indeed chosen to veil from his sight the Presence of His Father. And in that grand veiling has come forth the birth of all worlds and every trace of every thought, the seeds of every perception that you are separate one from another. For I will say this unto you yet again and again, until you choose to hear in the Perfect Silence of your Heart that which cannot be spoken but can be remembered.

The Gospel is this:

You are the One you seek. You abide always where you have always longed to be. For the Kingdom is indeed spread across the face of this your beloved earth.

And if you would not comprehend it, lament not that it is the Will of the Father but look within and see that the choice has been yours. In Truth there is no distance to be traveled nor effort to be expended. For that which takes effort is the denial of Reality. And yet in that choice to deny the Truth you are, there has fostered habits of seeing, habits of being.

And all that you see around you in the complexities and the confusions of your world are there because you have chosen them to be there. And they are but the children of the habits with which you have unwittingly identified. And yet never have they been yours.

The Age Of Darkness Is At An End!

You have never lacked; you have never suffered. You have known no hurt nor have you hurt another. For eternally the Son is One. And if you would but gaze out with eyes cleared of the dust of the momentary choices, you would see and rejoice, and what you would see is this:

That you never look upon another.

It is with these eyes that I call you to see with. For the age of darkness is at an end. And for this reason have I indeed come forth and yet I would have you clearly understand that there has never been a time nor a place that you have been without me, save in the illusions of separation which you have chosen to believe in but for a little while.

For in the end of all suffering and in the end of belief that you are separate from all the Father is, there is the direct experience that the journey to the Kingdom has never been.

For in that eternal moment that is beyond all time the Awakened Son beholds the Truth of his own Being and instantaneously does he comprehend that the whole of Creation has arisen in him. But he alone has been the maker of all worlds, he alone the dreamer of all dreams.

And in the ending of all dreams does the Son lift his eyes to the Presence of the Holy Father and gazing upon that which has never left him – he is established once again in the most Holy of Holies, even that Sacred Union of the Father and the Son as One.

And when this clear Light dawns, wherever a place of consciousness might be, the Awakened One rejoices and proclaims:

"I and my beloved Father are One!"

There Will Be Unleashed A Power Not Seen Upon This Plane and That Power That Moves Through You Can Transform The Whole Of Your World!!!

When you choose wholly to acknowledge throughout every cell of your Being the Truth of your Being, nothing shall be impossible unto you.

What would you see the world become? It is, in Truth, that simple. Lament not what you perceive in your world but learn to rejoice and give thanks and to recognize that it is you who has brought it forth. And in the end, simply to perceive what God is not.

From what would the world disappear when the Son awakens? I say unto you, that which is eternal has neither beginning nor end and, therefore, can never cease to be. But when each of you chooses to join with one another and to see with the same eyes and to feel with the same Heart, then will there be unleashed a power not seen upon this plane.

For verily I say this unto you, in the twinkling of an eye, that Power that waits to move through you can transform the whole of your world. And the separations and the doubts and the sufferings – that you believe must exist within it – will be as if they never were. And all that the Father would ask you to do is to embrace who you already are.

For the abundance that the Father would shower down upon you would overwhelm you if you could but see for a moment that it has no boundary and no end.

So, let it begin!
