The Second Coming Of Christ Depends On Your Choice

What is the Second Coming?

Christ's Second Coming, which is sure as God, is merely the correction of mistakes, and the return of sanity. It is a part of the condition that restores the never lost, and re-establishes what is forever and forever True. It is the invitation to God's Word to take illusion's place; the willingness to let forgiveness rest upon all things without exception and without reserve. (W 449) [W-p11.9.1. - W-p11.9.5.]

It is the all-inclusive nature of Christ's Second Coming that permits it to embrace the world and hold you safe within its gentle advent, which encompasses all living things with you. There is no end to the release the Second Coming brings, as God's creation must be limitless. Forgiveness lights the Second Coming's way, because it shines on everything as one. And thus is oneness recognized at last.

The Second Coming ends the lessons that the Holy Spirit teaches, making way for the Last Judgment, in which learning ends in one last summary that will extend beyond itself, and reaches up to God. The Second Coming is the time in which all minds are given to the hands of Christ, to be returned to spirit in the name of True creation and the Will of God.

The Second Coming is the one event in time which time itself can not affect. For every one who ever came to die, or yet will come or who is present now, is equally released from what he made. In this equality is Christ restored as one Identity, in Which the Sons of God acknowledge that they all are one. And God the Father smiles upon His Son, His one creation and His only joy.

Pray that the Second Coming will be soon, but do not rest with that. It needs your eyes and ears and hands and feet. It needs your voice. And most of all it needs your willingness. Let us rejoice that we can do God's Will, and join together in its Holy Light. Behold, the Son of God is one in us, and we can reach our Father's Love through Him.

To Be The Thought Of Love In Form Is To Choose To Incarnate Christ!

Quite simply, you are not the body. You are not the personality. What you are transcends all space and all time, and all lives that have ever been lived arise within you. And in this drama, this scheme of space and time, even as you have all together as one mind chosen the perception that you are separate from God and therefore separate from one another, so, too, as you have been the creator of your world in error, you have been the creator of the form of salvation. And every master and every teacher that has come and given you grand words or brought healing to you, who inspired the Heart to look beyond its limitations, each and every one of them has but come as a reflection created by the soul you are, to mirror back to the conscious mind the Truth that necessarily lies within you. (JT - A)

And that Truth is not difficult to find. It is not far from you. Indeed, the Kingdom of Heaven can be no further than the distance of a single choice. How then to rediscover that Truth? To touch that place that some of you believe that I mirrored so perfectly? How could you see that perfection if you did not already know that that perfection is in you?

How then to rediscover that Truth? Not by striving. Not by seeking. Not by mastering a plethora of techniques. But by wanting above all things, to become once again the Thought of Perfect Love in form. To be willing to release every perception you have cherished because once upon a time in your long journey you thought it would make you safe or bring you some greater good. To be willing to give each day back to God. To be willing to become innocent. To set aside and imagine what it would be like if in each day you were to set aside every and each perception you held about what reality is, about where you came from, about what your purpose and function is, about what the brother or sister in front of you means.

To abide in an innocence and a faith that trusts what appears to be unseen and be willing to allow that unseen Love to guide you moment to moment, to teach you anew until each and every perception that has been created in error has been released as a veil from before your mind, before your Heart. And then you will not see what you have created. You will see what you have always been. And you will know that there is no such thing as separation, and time and space cannot be a barrier between minds that are joined in Love.

To be the Thought of Love in form is to choose to incarnate Christ. Not to wait for another to do it. Not to hope that it has already been done two thousand plus years ago so you can skip around the corners, but rather to choose to allow your life, what you call "my life," to be transformed – gently perhaps, a moment at a time, and at times not so gently. You call those major breakthroughs.

The only reason it feels so major is the thing that you are releasing is something you have been holding on to for so long that you couldn't comprehend being without it. And yet, it has only been a perception – something so flimsy, so thin that it holds no power and does not distort the Light that comes to your soul. But you have looked upon it as something to be cherished and treasured and have made it part of yourself and have believed that it holds a power to keep you separate from God or that you have needed it to remain safe in an unsafe world. And that is most interesting because the perception that you abide in an unsafe world is just that – a perception – and it, too, must be released.

How Can I Know What My Father's Will Is For Me?

How can you know what your Father's Will is for you? When you are truly willing to be honest about what seems to be the burning desire in your Heart. And if you look at that desire and it is not caught up with manipulation or hurting of anybody, not the taking of anything because you think you need it, but just a burning desire that seems to have been with you no matter how often you tried to ignore it, it's a safe bet that you might as well go for it. And if you do, many miracles will come.

Many miracles. And what you thought was your Heart's desire will have been realized to be only a stepping-stone that the Holy Spirit has placed before you, because your Holy Spirit knows what's in your Heart, you see, and creates then that desire because you will be attracted to it and as you step upon it, like a flower it opens up, and you realize that it really meant something else, and you've become something else. Perhaps in your pursuit of abundance you discover that you have been asked to be a teacher of God.

Allow yourself to step lightly and with joy upon the stepping-stones that are placed before you. Not one thing arises in your day by accident. It only waits for you to turn your attention to it and embrace it and say, “Well, if this is here, there is a purpose for it.” And in that moment you hold the power to discern its purpose if you are willing to embrace it with your Love. Learn from it. Step upon it and go on. And everything serves, everything serves what could be called here, your becoming. For as you have lived in time and have created the dramas that would draw you into the perception of separation from God, so, too, now, as the arisen Christ, you allow time to be used as the device through which you witness the flowering of the Light and Love you are.

It Is Absolutely Impossible To Regress On This Journey Once You Choose To Begin It!

You walk through a magical kingdom. There is nothing realistic about this world. Nothing. Someday you will understand that even the body is not realistic. You walk through a magical kingdom. Everything is being formulated for you out of the thoughts and perceptions you have held, and when you choose only God, please rest assured that everything quickens and a new power comes to form everything. And every experience that comes to you is given to you as a stepping-stone, as a touchstone if you will, that leads you evermore into the fullness of the Christ you are.

Contemplate what that must mean and see how it asks you to change your perceptions about what you experience. Now, the grand thing is this: that if you forget, all you have to do is remember and the game goes on. It is absolutely impossible to regress on this journey once you choose to begin it. So the next time you go, “Ohhh, God, I'm really gonnne” – Nonsense! Pinch yourself and wake up and walk on. You can't go backwards, you see, because the past has been washed away from you. There is nowhere back there to step. So even if you experience doing something again – you call it the pattern that goes around in a circle and you can't seem to break it – you are not stepping backwards. You are fully choosing in the present to create that experience. It is not coming up from behind you to bite you in the butt.

Take a nice deep breath – the Breath of God – and exhale and let your Light radiate out in all directions. And then remind yourself that after all is said and done, you are the Light of the world. How about that? And even now many of you have felt in the last twenty-nine and a half seconds the descent of like a blanket of peace – and though this may seem a little fantastic to some of you, to others it won't – I never come and do this work alone.

I have some friends – just as you are my friends – but these don't have a body, and they come with me whenever this work is done. And that blanket is bestowed upon you by what you would perceive as several masters, though I am not so sure we like the term. Think of them as friends that Love you deeply and know that you are not separate from where they are. And that peace is available to you with one breath anytime you choose to receive it.

Know you the term, some of you, “The Ascended Masters?” Perhaps “The Great White Brotherhood?” Think not that they are unavailable to you. Think not that any brother has what you call a red phone on the desk. There is no one special, and that Love and that peace, that opportunity descends on each equally. What creates the appearance of differences is the willingness to receive it and to enact it. That's all. That's the only difference.

Even If They Are Giving You What You Call A Ticket

I want very much for each and every one of you to truly, to truly embrace this simple fact – and I speak to you now, each individually, if you will. I give thanks to my Father for your presence. I bow down before your Light and your Love and your beauty. I cannot possibly find words in any language that can possibly express to you the gratitude and the Love that I feel, the joy I feel when I look upon you.

It isn't what you do. It isn't what you say. It is who you are. And throughout all of eternity I have and will remain in awe at the stupendous Light that you are. Thank you from the depth of my being. Thank you for the Light that you bring to creation. It's a rather joyous state, you see, to be in a place where constantly with everyone that comes into your experience the feeling that I just expressed to you is there. It is there always. And yet, it is not a feeling that is peculiar to just me. It simply comes of itself unto any mind or to any Heart that is truly willing to relinquish the perceptions that have served to do nothing but veil the presence of the peace of God within you.

And what I have just shared with you in words you could just as well share with anybody you saw on your street. Not just as an exercise, but as a Truth, a Reality. What is called existence, which is really the practice of awareness, is rather incredible when every moment is lit by the fire of gratitude for the radiance of the being who is before you – even if they are giving you what you call a ticket for moving your automobile too quickly. Indeed.

And as you give, you receive. So if you feel at anytime there is maybe a little bit of a drying up of the river of Love, find someone to give your Love to. Find a way. The situation may not call for the words that I just used as I spoke to each of you individually, but find a way to give the fullness of your Love to them. And that fast, you will see how quickly you can change your own countenance, because as you teach, you learn. And as you give, you receive.

Therein lies the whole of the laws of creation. That is why, you see, our Father receives so much – because He gives so totally of Himself unto the infinite reaches of all that creation is. And therefore, God being but Love, never experiences anything but the unlimited radiance of Love. For He that gives all, receives all. It does seem rather simple, doesn't it? Indeed. Well, enough of all of that. I just wanted to express my Love to you.

Have You Not Noticed That in Many Ways the Form of Language Has Changed?

[We love you, too, Jeshua.] And it is received without a trace of resistance. Look well then, for if you perceive a difference between yourself and me, could it be that perhaps there is something in you that feels it should resist, at least a little bit, the overwhelming Love that is the presence of God? Resistance is what makes this world. That's a rather good line. Indeed.

So, some of you that have been around for the past years, have you not noticed that in many ways the form of language has changed?

And there are reasons for that. What needed to be said in terms of correcting certain Biblical perceptions has been established, and even though what seem to be different bodies and minds are here to some degree than when we started, the message is being received by all. So that as we moved along, certain walls have been melted, even in those that have come but for the first time.

Now, if that is true – and I assure you that it is – it means that every time you in the course of your own life, your own experience, every time you choose to be the presence of Love and to teach only Love, rest assured you are extending it unto the whole of creation and uplifting it.

You could say that you are like one who stands before what seems to be a very long and very high and very thick wall, and your Father has come to you and said, “Take down the barrier between creation and Myself. Here is your chisel and here is your hammer.” And you have put it up against that wall and one thought has been, “Oh, my goodness gracious. How will I ever tear this wall down? It's a hundred miles thick. Four thousand miles high. And who knows how long?” And yet when you place the chisel on the wall and tap it lightly with one loving thought, the vibration is felt throughout the whole of that wall. And as you choose to be the presence of Love, you are chipping away at the wall that surrounds the Heart of someone on the other side of this planet.

How Valuable Are Our Loving Thoughts?

How valuable are your loving thoughts? It is that which cannot have a price tag on it. How powerful are your negative thoughts? Hmm. Those of you that would envision a world transformed, a planet radiant with Light in which all of mankind lives as a brotherhood – or perhaps it's time you start saying, as a sisterhood. But if you understand who you are, masculine and feminine terms really don't matter much. They are just forms of language. For those of you that would envision such a world – and there are many in this room that don't just think about it.

The Vision is pressing upon your Heart. Almost so that there is a quickening. Do you know that feeling? As if Light is descending down into the core of your Heart so that at times it feels as if it is going to burst? Do you know the feeling?

Be you therefore the one willing to tap the chisel with every single loving thought that you would hold, and choose only loving thoughts. Step back just a little bit and abide in what you would call, some would call, cosmic consciousness. That's an interesting term. It only means that you are aware that separation does not exist. No where. And each loving thought affects the whole, and you can learn, you can literally learn how to do whatever you do in your life and at the very same moment – which is truly outside of time – to hold the whole of creation in your awareness.

And whether you are laying your hands on another's body, whether you momentarily seem to be blending with the mind of one individual amongst many to speak to a small room of people, you can know that in that moment you are addressing or laying your hands on or giving a smile to the whole of creation and you can literally feel the Truth of that and know it. Not just as a hope, not just as a dream, but as a living Reality. And as you practice that, something very miraculous happens. For when you are in relationship – and whether it be with your lover, your mate or the gas station attendant, doesn't really matter – when you are in relationship and you look into their eyes, you literally see the whole of creation before you and you embrace them with the Love that you are.

That is how vast you are. And that experience, that Reality is really open to you in every moment. It requires only your choice to allow what you have thought to be the mundane and ordinary moments to be translated by the Holy Spirit into the means through which Christ enlightens creation.

That is the power given unto each and every one of us before time began. That's how powerful you are. And all it requires is seventy-two lifetimes in the monastery. You have already done that. And that didn't work. All that is required is that you, in the quiet and the peace of your own Heart and mind, make a simple decision: “I will be the presence of Love. I am the one sent of my Father to share the joy of unconditional Love in each moment and with every breath.” That choice not only can transform your entire being, it will transform this illusory world into that which shall reflect the Kingdom of Heaven on Earth. That choice is the Second Coming of Christ. That is why I said earlier that Heaven waits on you.

The Time Is At Hand!

The time is at hand. I have never ceased weaving myself in and out of your dreams and dramas to whisper in your ear, “Precious one remember. Remember.” “Come home” means nothing else than to open the eyes of your heart and realize the Truth of who you are.

Has the drama seemed long and vast? Oh, yes. But the more you choose to identify with your unlimitedness, the more the weight of the dream is forgotten – just as when you open your eyes in the morning and for a moment you shake your head and say, “Oh, my goodness,” and your heart is still palpitating. You know that feeling? And then you realize, “Wait a minute. I'm just sitting in my bed. Ah.” And by the time you get up and take a shower and have a bite to eat, you have forgotten what you even dreamed. Is that not true?

That's what awakening is like. When it first hits you, you go, “My goodness, how amazing. I can't even put it into words.” But by and by you forget all the weight of the dreams, and you actually become better and better at finding ways to communicate, to teach in an artful way that prods the minds of your brothers and sisters, which are really but aspects of your own Mind, into the recognition of who they are. But even that is part of the dream. Miracles are valuable only within a dream, and the choice is simple. And I've used this analogy before, and when I have, some have smiled and some have chuckled. It's very... actually quite literal. It is as though every moment you are walking up to one of what you would call one of your movie theaters which has many movies going on at the same time, different screens, and you select which ticket to buy. That's really how simple it is.

Do you have a role to play? Well, of course. What is it? To be the presence of Love right where you are in this moment, because when you do that, your guidance will unfailingly take you to the next. Let the Weaver weave the tapestry through you while you celebrate the rebirth of what you've always known in the depth of your heart. Many of you are nodding within, "Yes, that's right. I know. I always knew that," The time is at hand. The time is at hand. There. The telegram is delivered, and you know if you have received it. (JT - HHH)

Such Light Shall Come That Cannot Be Described

The time is at hand and the quickening occurs. The great awakening has already begun. Why on Earth do you think you are here? (ARC)

You see, once they thought they could get rid of me. All they did was give me infinite freedom.

And yet, there is only one possibility that holds any value: Wrap the arms of the Love of Christ around every Golden Ray of Light that shines forth from the Mind of God and bring those Rays of Light home again to complete the Atonement on Earth even as it is already completed in Heaven, that this Earth and this world and this time might be a reflection of the Kingdom of Heaven so that time shall have been completed and its purpose fulfilled, and an unhappy and insane dream has been translated and completed as the happy dream of the return of Love.

And in that moment when all the Sons of God remember themselves as the Truth of who they are, when only Joy is allowed to be the vibration upon this plane, such Light shall come that cannot be described.

Ascension indeed. Not as one here and one there, but the whole of creation. The joy that courses through it shall translate density into Light itself, and then even the purpose of this world shall be no more. That is the one purpose that I serve: Your homecoming. Yeah. Feels good. Indeed.

And always the question to be pondered and that must be answered is this: it is given unto you in every moment to remember that the Kingdom is not far. It is here. And the question to be pondered is but this: "Will I choose now to be part of the solution or to be identified as part of the problem? Will I choose Light or density? Love or fear? Will I indeed choose to be identified as Spirit, as a great ray of Light that outshines all bodies and all worlds?" You see, it's a rather enjoyable thing to do, to plop the body in a chair and everybody thinks that you are just sitting there as you, but you are enveloping the whole of the room with your Light and your Love, enjoying being incognito. Just one person among many. But in Truth, the awakened Christ.

For if the Second Coming means anything, it means not that I will come but that Christ will come in you. Christ already came in me once. That's already been done. Why repeat it? But to come in you, to come in every brother and sister upon whom you shine the Light of your Love, indeed, that is a great thing to be looked forward to. It is a great thing to bring. How, then, can Christ come and complete the cycles of time? The Second Coming of Christ depends on your choice: To participate in the Atonement of creation by being the Mind that brings and extends only the Love of Christ. And those of us that seem to be on "the other side" can only serve as your cheerleaders. We can tell you that the water is fine. That the penthouses are comfortable. We can come and we can touch your hearts, and we can bring a little bit of joy back to you. We can open the shutters and allow you to see the Light that is around you always. But in the end because the choice was made alone to separate yourself from God, only you can correct it. And that indeed is the only thing time is for. The only thing time is for is for you to use it to correct that one decision.

For well do I see the Light within you that outshines all worlds. I bow down before each and every one of you because you are what my Father has created you to be. And though the world may see it not, rest assured that your Light shines before me unimpeded, and I Love you for the Light you are. And I give thanks unto you for allowing Me to bask in it. To play and to dance with you, not only in this hour but in all hours, for there cannot be separation between minds that join in Love.

And I am joined with yours always because we are but Love. Be, therefore, at peace in all things, for already you outshine this world. Peace be unto the holy and only begotten Son of God, Who comes forth to wed the things of Heaven with the things of Earth, that the Light of God might shine as far as from the East to the West. Herein is the meaning of the cross. Therefore, take up your cross and please follow me to the dance. I Love you, always. Amen.
