The Translation Of The Unhappy Dream Into A Happy Dream Has Been Set In Motion!

"My only function is the one God gave me." This idea reaffirms your commitment to salvation. It also reminds you that you have no function other than that. Both these thoughts are obviously necessary for a total commitment. Salvation cannot be the only purpose you hold while you still cherish others. The full acceptance of salvation as your only function necessarily entails two phases; the recognition of salvation as your function, and the relinquishment of all the other goals you have invented for yourself. This is the only way in which you can take your rightful place among the saviors of the world. This is the only way in which you can say and mean, "My only function is the one God gave me." This is the only way in which you can find peace of mind.

You are asked only to set aside every perception you have ever held about yourself, anyone else or this world for a space that need not be more than five minutes in each of your mornings, in which you choose to open to the grand frequency of Joy that is unlimited, that is the Power and the Light of the Mind of Christ Itself that descends upon you, yet lives within you and therefore will touch that place in you and quicken your remembrance. (ARC)

And if things seem to get just a bit heavy, it's only because you are not choosing to open. You are holding on to a place of resistance, and that place will begin to distort the movement of energy and you will see it as calamity, irritability. Take it as you want; it will be there. Or you could begin to open to levels of Joy that may leave you a bit giddy because you will feel that you have never touched such a place before. You have, but you forgot.

Therefore, it is the place of great safety. Perfect safety. Unlimited safety. For you cannot find your safety in the contractions of the perceptions of your fearful world. Just as in the end you cannot find your safety in the body. But you will find your safety in your choice and your willingness to be completely vulnerable – to throw open yourself like the petals of a beautiful flower – knowing with great faith that your Father waits to pour out the whole of His countenance upon you, His precious Child.

The translation of the unhappy dream to one that is far more happy has been set in motion for some time, but there are these little windows that are what your scientists might call quantum leaps, and this window is a quantum leap. Don't leave your shade pulled.

I say this to you once again: the Truth of what is Real cannot be seen through the physical eyes, but the Light that bursts forth from our joining touched very distant worlds, and you have sent a ray and a glimmer of hope and joy through brothers that you probably won't ever see – brothers and sisters – and indeed that Light has been recognized and felt on every plane that exists.

Your scientists would tell you that light travels rather quickly. The Light of consciousness cannot be measured. It travels according to your intention, and if your intention is unlimitedness, when you acknowledge that you are coming from unlimitedness, nothing can block the movement of the Light of your being.

What Then Is Your Intention?

What is your intention in every moment that you breathe upon this plane? Look well. No matter what transpires around you, what is your intention for this moment? And if it is to know Joy and if it is to know Peace, clearly acknowledge that is your intention and you will settle for nothing else and that is the Light that lights this world. That is the Light that begins to shake up the molecules of the picture you have painted for yourself so that you can repaint it. And that is the Light you are being called to live from, in and with.

I stated that the time would come when those minds or hearts that were not willing to open to those dimensions simply wouldn't be allowed, in their own sense, by their own choosing, to not be able to maintain the body upon this plane because the Earth itself is shifting its frequency, if you will.

Now, that doesn't mean it is a big calamity if the soul says, "No, I'm not ready for that much Joy yet. I've gotten rather used to my doldrums, so I'll seek out another world in which I can hold on to them." Perfectly okay. You've done that a thousand times, too.

Indeed, I know it all seems incredible. But it only seems incredible when you shift back into the mind-set that the world wants you to believe in:

That the problems are too complex, that we've got to figure them out for yourself because nobody has been able to prove that God exists. Nobody has been able to prove to me that anything but God could exist.

But everyone knows that a different call has gone out from within their own Heart, and you must and will awaken to only your own call. Not mine, but yours. I am only as a brother and a friend who delivers your own telegram to you.

Is the Earth going to rock and roll?

Let your Heart shift. Hold nothing back that you would save for yourself. Does this mean that there will be calamity upon this plane? Probably. Because many minds still rather believe in the drama of calamity and are so sure that disaster lurks behind the next corner. And what the Son of God decrees, the Son of God is given to experience. Is the Earth going to rock and roll? Yes. Part of that process is very much dependent on the consciousness of mankind. And I really don't think that needs much explanation.

You've all experienced that in your own life. You want to grow; you want to move. And if you are supported, it all goes very easily, but if there is resistance placed up against you, you become like a very strong wave that won't be denied and you push through the wall of the dam – and you know what that feels like. It might be – just be – making a change so you can get on with your path and you refuse to let any walls of resistance block you. Know you that feeling?

Magnify it a million-fold and you will begin to touch the depth of intention that this your precious Earth has to shift gears. The resistance can only come from the blanket of what some of your minds would call the collective unconscious of mankind:

The perceptions held so strongly unto and believed in so deeply that life is struggle; that life begins at birth and if you are lucky, you get through it fairly well and then you die; you'd better keep your doors and windows locked, especially at night because evil lurks around every bush and every corner.

That kind of negative thinking will no longer be tolerated on this plane. That dream will have to be dreamt somewhere else. But conversely, dreams of happiness, dreams of peace, dreams of contribution and of sharing, dreams of a world in which there is no lack, no destitution, no hunger, dreams of a world in which the very word "lock" has been removed from your dictionary, all such dreams and visions that are held lovingly and allowed to be expressed through you, those dreams will be lived upon this plane.

Begin With The Acknowledgement That You Are Already That Light!

And that is why we sought to gain your attention quickly: because you are the ones that are choosing to answer your own call.

Now, please do not arise tomorrow morning and grit the teeth and make fists and try to force yourself into that space. That is the old way of doing it. Begin with the acknowledgement that you are already that Light and you are the one choosing to dream a new dream, and then proceed from that Truth.

Join with us and with what you might perceive as beings in many other dimensions that are doing the same thing in their own ways. If you would join with us, you will begin to feel within yourself the simple Truth that miracles shorten the need for time.

For you will be participating in the expression of a miracle, a miracle that hastens the vibration of this domain, this dimension. And you will touch that seat of collective unconsciousness that so many in your world still grovel within and you will be like a Light that shines Itself into every dark corner of fear that has plagued the mind of mankind for millennia.

And you will bring that Light that begins to activate a deep healing of that collective mind that you dance in, that vortex, and all because you – yes, little ole you, and I do not perceive you as little at all – have chosen to be the one who brings Light to this world, because you are the one who, through one simple process, has chosen to open to the profundity and the unlimitedness and the depth of the Light of the Mind of Christ and said, "I will no longer tolerate limitation within myself. And I am and will be forevermore that Light and that Light alone."

Because you are the one that has chosen to walk in this world and yet not be of this world and to never play the game again of joining with other minds and taking on their cloaks so that you can appear to be like them.

Because you will have been the one who has chosen to acknowledge there has never been such a thing as an idle thought, and therefore the only thoughts worth thinking are the thoughts of Christ, in alignment with the Mind of God.

Because you will have chosen to be the one who lives only according to the Vision of the highest and the best that can be manifested. And when others think that your Visions are so incredible, you will look them in the eye and, without saying a word, they are going to know that you are serious. And not only that, you are quite relaxed about it, because you will have given up doubt for certainty, perception for knowledge.

This Same Message Is Being Given Around The World!

That is how powerful this window is. And yet, all we can do is commit to wrapping each of you in that blanket of Light, but we cannot open the shade for you because that would take away from you your perfectly free will.

Now, this message; which is the same around the world – this same message is being given. Yes, in different forms, but the essence of it is being transmitted. The transmission began a little while ago, actually it is most acutely being given out.

Thank God that some of us don't have bodies because that would take us all year, otherwise, to get the invitation out. Thank God that there is no competition where we are. No red tape. Just service in Love, and when every mind that chooses to remain in this domain or dimension has released every final shadow and becomes that Mind that is but service through Love, then in the twinkling of an eye the complex problems you think are out there are going to simply fall away because they will no longer be tolerated in the collective mind of mankind and, therefore, they will not be seen because they will not be dreamt of. So, I do hope you will come to the party. Hmm, it is a good way to be.

That Love which is God, what can be said of it? What words could possibly be uttered? As beautiful as your Holy Mother, this precious Earth, is, it can at best reflect a pale picture of that Love.

And yet, even its beauty overwhelms you at times, does it not? Does not the laughter of a baby send a vibration through your very soul? Does not the sight of a bird alighting on a branch uplift you? Does not the subtle way in which the clouds change their shape as they dance through your sky, does it not open the mind to its own unlimitedness? Does not the sparkle seen in the eyes of a friend when they turn their head and see that you have come to visit, does that not speak to you of the Love of God? And yet, these are but whispers.

And that Love and that Light fills every corner of creation, and if it does so, it surely must fill you even now. Now. Every cell of your being. Your soul is infinite and unlimited. You cannot find where it begins and ends, and yet, there is no corner of your soul that is not already filled with the Love that my Father is in Its fullness. How can the mind ever comprehend such a thing? It cannot.

That is why I have said that it is not with the mind that you can grasp the Kingdom, but it is only through the Heart that you can allow it. And it can feel like death. But It is a life that transcends anything you have ever known in the mind. But it is a Beauty and a Truth and a Joy that waits to burst forth through the Heart of the soul of Christ within you, that will illuminate the mind in ways that your scientists and your philosophers and your psychologists can't even begin to comprehend. For there shall be born in this plane a commonplace practice of when you want to know what a distant star is made of, you will hold it in your meditation and you will know it by being it. Indeed.

A Whisper Of A Magnificence That Will Be Seen!

Know you that which your world would call your UFO's? Some have called them lightships, space ships, called them by a million names, and there are beings, even within your physical dimensions of creation, but far more in your nonphysical dimensions, that can slide through what you might call your black holes and create the appearance of a physical object, and they move those objects by the Light of their consciousness because their intent knows no obstacles to what is possible.

And even that is but a whisper of a magnificence that will be seen even on this Earth, and you will learn that to heal the waters of this planet does not require four thousand years of dredging operations. It will require only the complete attunement in the mind of mankind, holding the intention of translating an unhappy dream into a happy one, that will actually change the molecular vibration of the waters of this planet. And like a trillion crystals there will be a radiance of Light that will shine through the waters, increasing their frequency or vibration until every last pollutant has been dissolved in Light Itself. And the waters will be a pristine as they were when this planet was created.

Imagine a world with ten million awakened Children of God – fully awake – not just as a belief or an idea, but who have mastered fear, who no longer live in doubt, whatsoever, and are busy creating universes that mirror perfectly the Kingdom of Heaven. Imagine it – if you dare! {WMe 127} (WM 120)

And why not? Who ever thought the first thought that the potential in the Mind of Christ must be limited? In that Mind you have already brought forth all worlds. It doesn't take much to take out the broom and sweep the dust out.

And you can do that in your own life, so that you can begin to see that Power is in you to sweep out the dust of the corners of your own rooms. Then indeed if two or three or a million gather in the name of Christ, can there be any rooms left that will need to yet be dusted?

The Works That I Have Done, You, Too, Shall Do, and Greater Things Than These Will You Do!

I want to share with you one simple Truth: many in your world have looked at a little demonstration that I did, with help, by the way. It is known as the Ascension. And it has seemed so incredible to many, so incredible that to many, they are quite convinced it must be impossible – couldn't have ever happened. They can't even fathom how they were born, yet they will say that my ascension was impossible.

But I say this unto you: The works that I have done, you too shall do and greater things than these will you do. And that called the Ascension is like first grade stuff compared to the way the consciousness of your collective mankind abiding in attunement as the Mind of Christ will do on this plane: The healing of your waters, the healing of your airs.

You are not going to need medical science when that day comes because there won't be anything that needs to be fixed. And that is where this drama and dream is going, and when you choose to look around you and see complexity and limitation and strife, please understand that you are choosing to waste the energy of your consciousness on things that will only dissipate it. You are choosing to look back inside the spinning vortex of an insane dream.

The Completed and Happy Dream!

Now, I do not say unto you that if you walk down the street and there is one who is hungry that you say to yourself, "That one does not exist." But rather feed them, and if they are thirsty, give them drink. But the whole time you are doing it, see the completed and Happy Dream that will be manifest within them as well.

Because you have brought time into being, it is through time that the dream is translated. Do not sit and wait for the snap of a finger in which suddenly it will all be over. But rather understand that time is not something objective nor real, that you choose its speed, its duration. It bends, you see, with every thought you think. And you are the ones who can accelerate time, thereby diminishing its need or the need for it.

Now, when I say you are the ones, does that mean I am singling you out and saying you are special? No. The call has gone out and touches every mind. You are the ones, if you choose to open the envelop and read the telegram and then put on your dancing shoes and come to the party.

Does that make sense to you? It's very, very, unimportant. If I said it was important, you would start to take it seriously. I want you to take it with lightness and laughter and joy.

Get A Little Crazy and Walk In A New Direction!

Are you feeling the Heart that seems to be not so much necessarily of the body but from the very core of your being? It comes because you chose to throw open the shutters of the Heart and to breathe that Light that is around you into the core of your being. And that Light is available to you every moment when you make the choice to remember that you are not outside of our Father's Kingdom. And it would be well and good that you learn to breathe Light with every breath.

Or you might find, possibly, that you feel like a fish out of water someday. I say that not to come from a place of fear because there is no such thing as fear in the Kingdom. There is just a grand dance in which you are allowed complete freedom to attach significance to whatever thoughts and perceptions you want to, and from those you create your experience.

It has been said that your Father has already forgiven you before you have done or thought a single thing, and forgiveness ultimately is just the willingness to extend absolute freedom to every soul, and that is the freedom given unto you. And if that freedom is extended unto you – and I assure you that it is – it means that freedom is your Power now to release anything that has ever limited you in the past, to get a little crazy and walk in a new direction. Indeed.

Meditation: There Is Nothing Outside Of Me.

So I want you to join with me to do a very, very simple thing. It will only take a few moments. If you want to send me a bill for your time, that's okay. Call it consulting fees.

What I want you to do is to allow the eyes to close. Now, you know that Light is all around you. Feel it. And again begin to breathe that Light. You are the unlimited Son of God. Nothing can block the reception to you of the Power of that Light. And breathe it into the very core of your being until you feel it from the crown of the head to the tips of your toes.

And with each breath feel the radiance of that Light growing brighter and brighter and stronger and stronger.

Now, abiding in that radiance, just throwing open the shutters of the Mind and your Heart, rest in the innocence of a child that knows there are no limitations. Allow immediately an image to come to you of the waters of this planet, and allow yourself as though you could see every whale and every dolphin that swims in those waters. Indeed.

Feel their presence. Feel their love. Feel their vibration, their frequency. It's rather high. And let that Light that you are blend with them as if you were transmitting it, perhaps until it envelops them. Notice their reactions. And you will begin to feel how the whole thing begins to be uplifted within you and within them.

And see how that Light radiates out, that frequency, that vibration, throughout the waters of this planet, so that your minds are joined with theirs and yet, there is but an attunement, a frequency of light and joy, union. Feel that vibration and let it increase as though you were sending waves out with them throughout the waters and even beginning to touch the land of this planet, radiating that unlimited frequency of union until you are enveloping the whole of this planet, its atmosphere.

Feel that attunement, allow it. You are a Child of God. Feel their love. Feel their playfulness. Open yourself to receive that essence of their being. And all minds that join in Love know there can be no distance between them. Feel that Joy. Allow a little smile to come to your lips. Stop trying so hard. Allow it.

And feel the whole planet becoming lighter and lighter. And within yourself, now, join in that vibration with them. Simply say in any way you want the essence of the words, "So be it. It is finished." And then say, "Thank you" to them.

And know that you can join with them at any time you want and that they would welcome that, and then just gently allow your attention to return to this moment and yet know that joining is not really severed. You have just chosen to open to what is available to you always. And it wasn't even difficult. Did you notice that you somehow feel a little different – like the cells have gotten a bit of an extra charge. Make sure the breath is moving through it, and then as you are ready, just let the eyes open again.

You Can Easily Teach Yourself To See Yourself In Union With All Of Creation!

How did that go? Anyone having the thought, "I believe Jeshua has finally gone off the deep end?" Anyone having the thought that you have gone off the deep end? You did a long time ago. You are just coming back, now. You dove off into the pool of separation and began a long cycle of journeys that have been but dreams. And the whole of creation awaits your return to your union with it.

You see, that's just a taste of what it's about and what is coming. That sense of consciousness that is unlimited and knows it can join with any mind, any form of life, simply by having the clear intention of doing so.

That is why I have often said to you that in this age you are going to be giving up all of your rituals, all of your perceptions that the road is long and difficult and there are many levels of meditation you must master. That's what you've been doing for ten thousand lifetimes. Some of you have been in school so long that now that your diploma is being handed to you, you can't believe it. Indeed.

For some this will be meaningful. For others, perhaps not, but that's okay. I have stated elsewhere in a rather meticulous text that the only lesson you must learn is that there is nothing outside of you. And to the degree that you were willing in that little meditation to acknowledge that, to that depth you felt that frequency and that vibration.

Those that experienced some difficulty or had some distracting thoughts, it is simply because you haven't let the thought sink in completely yet that there is nothing outside of you. It still seems a little too incredible to believe – just because you've practiced for a long time believing the opposite.

But if you have learned to see yourself as separate from creation, you can just as easily teach yourself to see yourself in union with all of creation. And just as you practiced the former, you can practice what is extended now. And it need take only five minutes of your time in each day. And yet, those five minutes are priceless. You could say that each of those five minutes, practiced is the equivalent of plodding yourself along slowly for ten thousand lifetimes.

Does that make five minutes of your time valuable to you? To set aside the perceptions of this little world and rejoin with the Truth of your Divine Heritage? Just five minutes a day. Keeps the doctor away. Indeed.

All You Have To Do Is Touch That Place Within Your Heart and Ask The Holy Spirit!

There are many substances that are being brought to your awareness, many new technologies that are beginning to come into your consciousness, and there are many things that are going to be coming to help hasten and quicken this healing because again, as I have said to you, there are some minds that can only receive it when it is given in a certain form of language. And that's perfectly okay. It's good to be able to speak many languages as you communicate the Love of Christ to your brother and sister.

In every moment, in every situation, the magic wand you need to give up separation and to join in Love with the mind of your brother and sister is given unto you, the magic wand that releases limited vision and restores your unity as the Mind of Christ. That wand is available to you, and you will perceive it and know how to use it according to the clarity of your intention.

Love the wholeness of who you are, as a timeless and eternal being who has donned the cloak of a body but for such a short time for no other reason than to make the Love of God manifest to eyes and to minds that perhaps, for a time, have forgotten where to look for it. Indeed.

Make A Shift So That The Mind Becomes The Tool Of The Heart!

The establishment of peace is essential, but peace is the foundation, and you could say it's the end of the journey. But remember that there is still a process going on in time, in which an unhappy dream is to be translated into a Happy Dream, and peace is the foundation which allows you access to those frequencies so that the Holy Spirit can move through you so that the Happy Dream can be enacted.

And if it is true that there is nothing outside of you, think not that you can walk around going, "Well, I'm at peace. I guess that's enough." Because the next step is to allow your actions, your thoughts, your words, your deeds to envelop the whole of creation, so that what you are doing with your time is not just a matter of survival, not a matter of gaining according to the ego's needs, but what you do is in alignment with the healing that is occurring on a cosmic scale and that what you do serves that process. There are many ways that it can be done.

And if you think that there's nothing going on in your life that is in alignment with that larger Vision, look again and be willing to ask, be willing to throw open the shutters of the Heart and dive into a stream that you may not know and just go for it, and let the current do the swimming through you.

Again, I talk about the need to make a shift so that the mind becomes the tool of the Heart, so that you are translated into being part of the solution rather than conforming to the consciousness that is the problem: separation, doubt, fear, survival and all the rest. And I said even then that things were going to be quickening. And to those of you that remember those words, don't be surprised about what has taken place. The page in the book has been turned.

The goal that we seek has never changed. It is, in Truth, a journey without distance. It is merely the return to where you are always, that you might begin anew to create deliberately, clearly, and with the Perfect Knowledge that if you are experiencing something, it is because you are the source of it – no other reason. {WMe 15} (WM 14)

The journey to God is merely the reawakening of the Knowledge of where you are always, and what you are forever. It is a journey without distance to a goal that has never changed. Truth can only be experienced. It cannot be described and It cannot be explained. I can make you aware of the conditions of Truth, but the experience is of God. Together we can meet Its conditions, but Truth will dawn upon you of Itself. (T 150) [T-8.VI.9.]

Your Light Is So Incredibly Radiant!!!

I said before that the first change, before dreams disappear, is that your dreams of fear are changed to Happy Dreams. . . Prepare you now for the undoing of what never was. If you already understood the difference between Truth and illusion, the Atonement would have no meaning. The Holy Instant, the Holy Relationship, the Holy Spirit's teaching, and all the means by which salvation is accomplished, would have no purpose. For they are all but aspects of the plan to change your dreams of fear to Happy Dreams, from which you waken easily to Knowledge. (T 382) [T-18.V.1.]

The Way of the Heart is that pathway in which you learn to transcend and to dissolve from your consciousness every perception, every thought, that is out of alignment with what is True. The thought of death is out of alignment. The thought of fear is out of alignment. The thought of guilt is out of alignment. {WMe 15} (WM 14)

The thought of eternal Life is in alignment. The thought of perfect fearlessness is in alignment. The thought of peace is in alignment. The realization of innocence is in alignment. The thought of joy and of forgiveness, these things are in alignment and reflect the Truth that is true always.

Meditate well by allowing. Not by striving. Let your steps be light tomorrow, no matter what takes place. Just let it be there, and let your steps be light upon this Earth. No matter what unfolds, just let it be there, but remain in peace. Give yourself that one day of being nothing but the presence of peace. Indeed. (ARC)

My Love I extend unto you always and our blessings we would shower upon you – which is just a fancy way of saying:

It's there for the asking. You are so beautiful. Your Light is so incredibly radiant. You are amazing creations, and you are so amazing that I know there is only one Mind that would have possibly brought you forth.

And I embrace you and I embrace you always. It is very true that I no longer have a physical body – which simply means that I can embrace you much more intimately than I ever could before. And if your world says it's a little silly to think that you can have a chat with Jeshua ben Joseph any time you want, well the world is silly anyway.

You are eternal Mind, and there is no separation between us. Be at peace, therefore, and Love yourself with the Love that God has used to bring you into being. Why not?

~ Jeshua
