

What You Are Transcends All Space and All Time, and All Lives!

Index

	Page
What You Are Transcends All Space and All Time, and All Lives! . . . . .	2
How Then to Rediscover That Truth? . . . . .	2
Make the Simple Choice to Be That Peace! . . . . .	3
You Have Chosen to Just Relinquish the Grand Drama! . . . . .	4
Jeshua, While On This Planet How Did You Perceive Yourself? . . . . .	5
Learning the Nature of Your Own Consciousness! . . . . .	6
Listen Well – Nothing Will Be Unacceptable To You!!! . . . . .	7
What Happens When We See A Difference Between Our Self and Another? .	8
Your Only Task! . . . . .	8

What You Are Transcends All Space and All Time, and All Lives!

In Truth, once again I come forth to shower my blessings upon you, and yet, I can do nothing but shower those blessings upon you, which you would choose to receive. Therefore, my giving them to you is your giving to yourself. And I do not say that lightly, though indeed it is given in Light. For in Truth that which I have given unto you is your own giving to yourself. It must mean that everything I have ever represented to the consciousness of mankind is in you now. And that which was once called the incarnation or the Word made flesh, when it is said that God came and dwelt among us, that must have been your gift to yourself. (JT - A)

How can that be? For you believe that you have perhaps been born in this body for a short time and, if you are lucky, have a good time and then the body will degenerate and you will experience something called death. And the one that was known as Jeshua ben Joseph is said to have been here some two thousand and some years ago. “How could that incarnation have been a gift to myself?”

Quite simply, you are not the body. You are not the personality. What you are transcends all space and all time, and all lives that have ever been lived arise within you. And in this drama, this scheme of space and time, even as you have all together as one mind chosen the perception that you are separate from God and therefore separate from one another, so, too, as you have been the creator of your world in error, you have been the creator of the form of salvation. And every master and every teacher that has come and given you grand words or brought healing to you, who inspired the Heart to look beyond its limitations, each and every one of them has but come as a reflection created by the soul you are, to mirror back to the conscious mind the Truth that necessarily lies within you.

And that Truth is not difficult to find. It is not far from you. Indeed, the Kingdom of Heaven can be no further than the distance of a single choice. How then to rediscover that Truth? To touch that place that some believe that I mirrored so perfectly? How could you see that perfection if you did not already know that that perfection is in you?

How Then to Rediscover That Truth?

Not by striving. Not by seeking. Not by mastering a plethora of techniques. But by wanting above all things, to become once again the Thought of perfect Love in form. To be willing to release every perception you have cherished because once upon a time in your long journey you thought it would make you safe or bring you some greater good. To be willing to give each day back to God. To be willing to become innocent. To set aside and imagine what it would be like if in each day you were to set aside every and each perception you held about what reality is, about where you came from, about what your purpose and function is, about what the brother or sister in front of you means.

To abide in an innocence and a faith that trusts what appears to be unseen and be willing to allow that unseen Love to guide you moment to moment, to teach you anew until each and every perception that has been created in error has been released as a veil from before your mind, before your Heart. And then you will not see what you have created. You will see what you have always been. And you will know that there is no such thing as separation, and time and space cannot be a barrier between minds that are joined in Love.

To be the Thought of Love in form is to choose to incarnate Christ. Not to wait for another to do it. Not to hope that it has already been done two thousand plus years ago so you can skip around the corners, but rather to choose to allow your life, what you call "my life," to be transformed – gently perhaps, a moment at a time, and at times not so gently. You call those major breakthroughs.

The only reason it feels so major is the thing that you are releasing is something you have been holding on to for so long that you couldn't comprehend being without it. And yet, it has only been a perception – something so flimsy, so thin that it holds no power and does not distort the Light that comes to your soul. But you have looked upon it as something to be cherished and treasured and have made it part of yourself and have believed that it holds a power to keep you separate from God or that you have needed it to remain safe in an unsafe world. And that is most interesting because the perception that you abide in an unsafe world is just that – a perception – and it, too, must be released.

.....

Make the Simple Choice to Be That Peace!

Therefore, precious and Holy friends – and I do say friends, you who were created with me before time is – you are eternal and unbounded, and within you and before you and all around you lies that wisdom that is available to you in every moment and with every decision you believe you must make. But what seems to be so difficult is the habit of the mind that has believed itself to have been separate from God and must make its own way. It must be the grand maker and doer. It must cling to certain perceptions about what life is and how it ought to be lived. That little habit cannot believe that it could be so simple, and yet, it is.

And all that is ever asked of you is that you make the simple choice to be that peace. To relinquish, to let go of your striving, your grasping, your anxieties, your fears, your doubts. And therefore to begin – and I mean begin every day, until it becomes the beginning of every moment – to begin in the recognition that in Reality "I and my Father are one, now." Not in the future. Not in a distant past that I somehow managed to throw away by accident with the garbage. But now, right here and right now!

There is nowhere to go and nothing to achieve save to use the power given unto you to acknowledge that "I and my Father are One." And I walk in a safe world. And as I walk, that One walks with me, and I walk only in Love and each step I take takes me into the extension of Love, and I choose to think only loving thoughts.

And when my mind is given to memories, I choose only loving memories and I release the rest because everything that has not been loving has been born of illusions of fear.”

Can you imagine what it would be like to live one day in which each step you take, you feel it? And each thought you think, you witness it and you are with it? No more idle thoughts just running about in the mind – you direct them wholly from that place in you that is Love. What would it be like to begin from this moment and to allow yourself to recognize that no matter what the circumstances seem to be around you, you hold the power to be the presence of the peace of God? What would it be like to live one day, just one day, in which everyone you thought of, everyone you looked upon, you embrace totally with the Love of Christ and did not let a single perception of your own making boomerang on you to create in you the illusion of the belief that another could hold the power to change your countenance? What would that be like?

And if you can accomplish one day in that manner, rest assured that when you rest your head on the pillow that night, it will be Christ that is going to sleep. One day without a negative or fearful thought. And then indeed you touch that which is eternal, that which has been within you since before time is, has never been tainted, cannot be taken from you. You touch Reality.

.....

You Have Chosen to Just Relinquish the Grand Drama!

Awakening is a simple affair. Being awake is a simple affair. First understand that you are awake now. You are awake now and there is no one but Christ. Yes, there seems to be the appearance of many bodies, but underneath them and just behind them there lies a Love, a Love that is available to you whenever you choose, a Love that throws open the shutters of the heart so wide that you feel your arms could embrace the whole of creation, and you smile no matter who you think about or look upon. You cannot help but smile because you have chosen to be awakened from the dream of the dreamer himself.

You have chosen to just relinquish the grand drama that would lead you to feel that if you hold on to anxiety that gives life some purpose. Even you will give up the grandiose notion that you must do great things in this world in order to be happy and you will become happiness itself, and when you become happiness itself, rest assured that grand things will be done through you.

Because you are like a Light that just dances in this plane and wherever you are – and I mean this as deeply and profoundly as I can – wherever you are, miracles are taking place in the minds and hearts of those who encounter you. You may not see them visibly but rest assured they are occurring. Because when you choose to be that Happiness with a capital “H” – not an egoistic happiness but just Happiness, the love from which creation has come forth – right where you are, every mind that encounters you witnesses that Light. How it chooses to react to it is its own choice, but the Light is seen, and when Light has been seen it seeps in and begins to work its miracles. And it may be next week, it might be next year, it could be next lifetime, but that mind will begin to be attracted to the Light it experienced through you.

And that is why I have often said to you, please, please take it deep within your Heart: there is no such thing as separation and the thoughts you choose to hold within yourself affect the whole of creation. Are you then your brother's keeper? Yes. Not out of moral sanction, moral duty. You are your brother's keeper for the simple Truth that you are your brother. And the thought you choose to hold will allow your brother redemption or damnation – to use those kinds of terms – to experience a movement toward freedom or to feel held back.

That is the responsibility you have. It's not a burden. It can be done very lightly since you are the presence of Light itself. Does all of that begin to make sense to you? Are you ready? Good, then right now just be and bring a lot of Light to this world and choose to acknowledge only Christ.

.....

Jeshua, While On This Planet How Did You Perceive Yourself?

Indeed beloved friends, I come forth to meet you wherever you are because I have chosen to use the infinite power of consciousness given me of the Father – as equally as it is given unto you – to discover how deep delight can be when the mind is focused only on seeing from, and seeing only, the Mind of Christ. I have, therefore, called to myself all multitude of experiences – even when I walked upon your beloved Earth as a man – to challenge myself, to test myself, to condition myself to rise above, to transcend all possible experiences that could distract me from the remembrance of who I am.<sup>1</sup>

You could say, by the way, that my crucifixion was simply the climax of my own direct choice to be challenged by the events of space and time, so that I could cultivate, within myself, the ability to see from, and to see only, the Perfect Purity of the Mind of Christ.

As I began to sense that I was calling these things into my experience, I began to discern what brought me true joy – not just a moment of pleasure, or satisfaction, or sense of security, but that which elicited true joy. And I discovered that what always brought joy was when I was willing to surrender into the awe of mystery, to penetrate the thoughts, and perceptions, and attitudes, and definitions that the world had taught me.<sup>2</sup>

To look at a plate, and not just see a plate, but to see mystery unfolding before me. To sit and look at a star. To sit and look at a sacred text. To sit and look at one diseased, who sits at the side of the road covered with dust, and to see no difference – to see them pervaded by the same Mystery – the presence of my Father's Love.

I began to sense that that Love pervaded me, that the very body-mind that I thought had been me, Jeshua ben Joseph, was arising out of Mystery – out of Mystery – out of Mystery – that I did not create my Self! And I finally came to realize that even I, Jeshua ben Joseph, was a Mystery with which I was in relationship.

And I decided to be in relationship with my own self, what we refer to as the body-mind, that peculiar sense of awareness in which you say, “I am.” I decided to be in relationship with the totality of my Self – mind, spirit, soul, emotion, body – with the same sense of awe and mystery that I felt when I looked upon the farthest of stars deep into the night on a quiet hillside. And that changed everything. I gave up my self definitions. I did not see myself as a carpenter’s son. I did not see myself as a Jew. I no longer saw myself as a student of the Essenes.

I came to see my Self as the mysterious extension of something beyond my comprehension. I saw my Self as a sunbeam to the sun. I saw my Self as the very Mystery of God’s presence being unfolded in the realm of manifestation. I saw that all that I thought, even down to the body, was temporary; that it was an ongoing foreverness; that whatever it was that was birthing me was eternal, and that if I could just rest in that, if I could abide with that, if I could return to that – even prior to every breath – that I could tap into the very Power of Creation Itself! And get out of the way, and get out of the way, and get out of the way! And keep diving deeper into Mystery upon Mystery upon Mystery!

I never let my mind rest from that day. I never once decided I was done. I never defended a single perception that I held about anyone or anything. And I cultivated over time, by using time wisely – I cultivated the willingness and the ability to seek first the Kingdom, even to the point where I was doing it prior to every word spoken, every gesture made with the body:

Father, I rest in You!
What would You live through me in this moment?
Let me witness it! Let me feel it! Let me taste it!
Take me ever deeper into Your Mystery!
I want all of You!

.....

Learning the Nature of Your Own Consciousness!

Listen carefully. No one has the power to create your experience! No one has the power to limit your experience! And nowhere in the Laws of God has it ever been written that you must conform your experience to the choices of another! You remain free, to freely choose to be the embodiment of Christ! You are the one who can bless Creation. And it begins when you are willing to assume responsibility for what you want to use time for.<sup>3</sup>

In truth, you’re doing it anyway. You are always using time for exactly what you are choosing. You’re not surviving. You’re not trying to get things done that the world is requiring. Never is anything occurring except that you are having awareness of the effects of how you are choosing to use consciousness, and that’s all.

Here is where The Way of Transformation begins. Ultimately, it is also where it ends. But the difference will be that you will no longer even want to choose anything that speaks of limitation.

And as you, as the soul – the individual divine spark – begins to choose to withdraw the attention, to withdraw the value you have placed upon all things, and as you learn to simplify the nature of your own consciousness, as you begin to realize that you can surrender into something that seems beyond you, that you can entertain the insane thought of trusting the invisible, you come more and more to be less and less.<sup>4</sup>

And as you become less and less of what you thought you were, conversely, you become more and more of what your Father created you to be – the thought of Perfect Love in form, a channel, a simple vehicle through which that Love of Spirit can shine forth. Your only task becomes the cleaning of your windows, the polishing of your floors, the weeding of your garden, so that that Light can pour forth unimpeded.

No longer will you find the need to defend perceptions you had identified with in error. You will, indeed, know when you have come to that state of awakening, for you will be able to look upon all created things that you have ever experienced, all reactions you have ever held within the mind, all perceptions, all judgments, all desires that you have ever held for anyone or anything, and as they arise in your mind, they will not disturb your peace.<sup>5</sup>

And you will smile. And you will see that within your consciousness has arisen all saintliness and all devilishness. You have been both saint and sinner, and your happiness and your unhappiness has been merely an effect of where you would choose to place your attention.

.....

Listen Well – Nothing Will Be Unacceptable To You!!!

As long as there is a trace of energy within you in which you are striving to get from any perceived thing or object around you what you are sure you lack inside yourself, you cannot know the love of Self. And you cannot experience freedom. Happiness is an inside job.<sup>6</sup>

Then, what happens? You finally get it right and you decide, "All right, what's that little shadow been doing? Well, let's take care of that one, and that one, and that one, and that one. How many blades of grass and how many shadows are there within this being that seem to be overlaid upon the Self?" Does it matter? You are busy birthing Christ!

What happens when that really occurs? First – and listen well – nothing will be unacceptable to you.

Well – but – well – but, does that mean if somebody is not a vegetarian that they're still loved? Hmm! Does that mean if somebody votes for someone I am sure is the wrong person that they're not insane, that I can love them? Does that mean that someone who seeks power and, therefore, creates a war and kills five thousand women and children, that I can still look upon them and not have my Love be disturbed? Does it mean that whatever arises within this temporary world is really, truly, literally, not a problem for me any longer – that nothing is unacceptable?

Yes. It doesn't mean you condone it. It means it's no longer unacceptable. For what you cannot accept, you will judge. And every judgment is the attempt to murder what you have decided has no right to be.

Judgment is the opposite of forgiveness. It lives on the side of the fence with fear. Forgiveness lives on the side of the fence with Love, and only Love can heal this world. Imagine, then, living in a state of beingness in which, literally, nothing was unacceptable to you, because you knew that the source of your True beingness was far beyond the limitations of anything created in space and time. That even death, which has been created out of the contraction known as fear, that not even death is unacceptable.

I say unto you: If you will choose to trust me, I will show you the way to peace. I will wait for your reply as I can do nothing to take from you the freedom required to become wholly committed to allowing Christ to be birthed where once a useless illusion reigned. I will show you how to become the being out of which all of creation is arising so that you will know the Truth that sets you free.

.....

What Happens When We See A Difference Between Our Self and Another?

Now, it looks, in the realm of form, as though there's a big difference between one blessed with infinite wealth hanging out in a penthouse in Paris, and one sitting on a lonely, cold curb in some deep, dark inner city, with an old man who hates himself. But I say unto you, there is no difference.

There is no difference because Creation holds only one purpose, one goal, one value: healing – the healing that allows God's Holy Child, Christ, to arise from a useless dream, and be restored to her rightful place at the right hand of God. That is not a spatial term. It simply means to think rightly, to be restored to sanity, so that Creation can flow forth ever more perfectly, ever more joyously, adding to the Kingdom by extending the increasingly good, the increasingly holy, the increasingly beautiful.

Give yourself permission to rest into the Heart of all Creation – the still and silent place of Perfect Peace. What is it that we share, if not awareness itself? For here, if anyone were to look, they would see there is no difference between you and myself. You are a shimmering field of awareness. And that same shimmering field comprises the essence of all that I am.<sup>8</sup>

You are in the holiest of temples – your Self. You abide in the perfect moment for your transformation. Nothing limits you at all, or at any time. The power of the freedom of choice is the essence of Christ. And the very power that you have been using to try to convince yourself of your limitations is exactly the same power that I used to overcome death. There is no difference, except a wink of an eye, an intention, a commitment, a recognition – that is all. In Reality, nothing is impossible to you and nothing unavailable to you.<sup>9</sup>

• • • • •

Your Only Task!

As you come to truly understand how simple your task is, your burden will become lighter, for you will discover that you cannot help but be in the right place at the right time. And those committed to awakening to God recognize the great gift of each moment:

Here is my Father's Will, right before me!
This is the moment that is crying for Love!<sup>10</sup>

For Love does not resist anything. Love embraces all things. Love desires all things. Love awakens to the Truth that only God is, and God would embrace the totality of His Creation through you, as you, in you, for you and for Himself. For there is no difference between God and you. You are That One!<sup>11</sup>

Therefore, when we come forth to join with you, the only purpose that we have is to enlighten you, to turn your awareness, your attention to what you already know. The only difference between knowledge and belief, which is the same as the difference between Love and fear, is that in a state of knowledge or enlightenment, the resistance to the Truth vanishes. Initially perhaps for just a moment, but eventually there is no longer any resistance to the simplicity of the Truth.<sup>12</sup>

Creation, then, waits upon your welcome by merely holding the thought: “Okay, it’s all arising within me anyway. I’ve tried in a million ways to avoid it and get away from it, and yet it seems to follow me wherever I go. I might as well sit down on the park bench, have a nice cold glass of water, listen to the birds sing, and simply bless creation.”<sup>13</sup>

Beloved and holy friends, as always, I come forth to abide with you because you have asked. As always, I come forth to abide with you because in Truth, there is nowhere else that I could be. For where you are, I am. And where I am, you are. We abide, then, as the one Mind, birthed from the very Heart of Abba, or God. There is nothing outside of us. And from within, there is nothing hidden. Though the dimensions of creation are infinite, they abide within the Mind, or the field of consciousness, that we share as one.<sup>14</sup>

Because this is true, and I assure you that it is, there is only one task that must be accomplished, one realization that must be realized, one Reality to be expressed and lived. That simple Truth is that there is only One, that there is only Heaven, that there is only Love, and that there is only the Perfect Peace that passes all understanding that keeps your Hearts in Mind.

Your only task, then, is to decide each day to surrender anew, Desire the Atonement, Intend the Atonement, Allow transfiguration to occur and Surrender into the Truth:

Abba, you are the only thing that exists. <sup>15</sup>

Therefore, it makes no sense even to say,
“Not my will, but Thine,” for yours, alone, is.

How shall we spend this one day?

Amen.

~Jeshua

Page Ref:

The Way of Mastery:

JT - A Jeshua Transcripts: Awakening

Enhanced Edition {WMe ###} Original (WM ###)

- 1 {WMe 4} (WM 4)
- 2 {WMe 187} (WM 175-176)
- 3 {WMe 172} (WM 161)
- 4 {WMe 3} (WM3)
- 5 {WMe 4} (WM 3)
- 6 {WMe 95} (WM 89)
- 7 {WMe 242} (WM 226)
- 8 {WMe 143} (WM 136)
- 9 {WMe 169} (WM 159)
- 10 {WMe 236} (WM 221)
- 11 {WMe 319} (WM 301)
- 12 {WMe 279} (WM 261)
- 13 {WMe 236} (WM 221)
- 14 {WMe 400} (WM 378)
- 15 {WMe 419} (WM 397)

If a paragraph does not have a page number reference, it is part of the previous paragraph's page number.

This material was prepared to help Mastery groups in studying The Way of Mastery. You may copy and redistribute this material so long as you do not alter it in any way, the content remains complete, and you include this link as the source of the material: www.shantichristo.com

If you want to use this material for any purpose other than to help facilitate a study group (such as posting to the internet or a website), please contact Shanti Christo Foundation for written permission to do so at: 505-216-7541 or staff@shantichristo.com.

What You Are Transcends All Space and All Time, and All Lives!.pdf
24-10-I58

The Way of Mastery, Copyright © Shanti Christo Foundation. All Rights Reserved.