

You Are The Son Of God!
In This Rests All Salvation!
(With ACIM)

Index

	Page
You Are The Son Of God! In This Rests All Salvation!	2
What Is The World When Compared To The Radiance Of The Kingdom? . . .	2
It Is Here That Whatever The Son So Asks, The Father Shall Give It Unto Him!	3
Be Transformed Into What Has Been Called Paradise!	4
Give Thanks For All Things That Come To You	5
Will You Be Willing To Listen In The Most Holy Of Silences?	5
There Will Be An Age Of Perfect Peace!	6
The Father Will Not Only Replace Your Abundance But It Would Blossom Sevenfold!	7
"Holy Father, Let There Be Light!"	8
The Light Of A New Dawn Breaks Across The Horizon!	10

You Are The Son Of God!

In This Rests All Salvation!

Is it not with great rejoicing that the awakened Son looks out upon all that He sees and sees it as but his own self? And yet all things cannot contain the Light of the only begotten Son of God. And though that Light permeates all things, they cannot contain what we are. And there are innumerable worlds that would arise and pass away. Yet always the Son remains in perfect union with the Holy Father. For the Son is before time and before space, before all that can be seen, touched, tasted and even thought. Before all these things the Son is, and it is this we all are.

The journey of the Son that has chosen to sleep and in his sleep to dream countless dreams has been complex, has been rich in its diversity. And yet the end of the dream remains simple. But does not the sleeping child simply open its eyes, lift its head from its pillow and behold? Does the child not know that it is home again?

Thus does the Kingdom come as a thief in the night, silently and without warning. And yet the thief is eternally blessed for the thief is nothing but the messenger of the Father, even that Holy Spirit whose Voice, ringing in the temple of the Heart of the sleeping Son, awakens the Son.

Remember always that the Kingdom is as far from the world as the east from the west. If you would but look from where I am, you would know beyond a doubt that the world carries no trace or knowledge of that which the Son is. And yet it is a Mystery of Mysteries that were it not for the presence and the sacred union of the Father and His beloved Son no worlds could arise. Come then to this understanding. Look well, not with your physical eyes, but with the eyes of your soul, enshrouded in veils of distant dreams and ancient memories. Release them and behold the Truth. You are the Son of God. In this rests all salvation. In this rests the end of all longing. In this alone is Life. For the awakened Son looks upon the whole of His journey and knows that it has not yet begun. For the only journey that contains Life is a journey within the Kingdom.

.....

What Is The World When Compared To The Radiance Of The Kingdom?

The path is simple and easy to walk. No obstacle is found upon it. For the awakened Son who has become as the perfect servant of the Will of the Father steps firmly but lightly, not in the direction that he would go but in the direction given him through the Holy Spirit. And already does the Father remove all stones from the path before him. Therefore my sojourn among you, so long ago, was not one of effort or struggle. Always in my days upon your earth I rejoiced in quiet joy. For I knew well then that the world contained nothing that could fulfill me. And when you choose to release all wanting that veils the Light of the Heart, you will look and you will see and you will know whereof I speak.

What could the world have ever done to me that could separate me from my Father? And my life and the apparent death of my physical body was but a demonstration that there is nothing in your experience that can separate you from that grand Love that is your Being.

Hear well these words: the Father is come to abide upon the throne that He has already set within your Heart. And what effort can be spent in doing but the simplest of things? And that simple thing is but to acknowledge the Reality of that throne upon which the Father sits.

For where the Heart is made pure, the Father abides. And yet the Heart has always been pure. It is only for you to look, to see and to acknowledge. Never has there been a trace of sin that has darkened the secret chamber that lies within you. For all sin and the thought of it is but of the world. And what is the world when compared to the radiance of the Kingdom? It is less than even a shadow for it has no being and no power.

Always do you abide as the Holy and only begotten Son of the Father. And always do you abide at the right hand of the Father. To behold His presence you need simply turn the head of your attention and you will see Him and you will feel Him and you will know Him. And you will know Him because you have forever been with Him. Herein is the end of all seeking. Herein is the end of all practice that would turn the Heart of the Son away from the confusion of the world and the noise in the mind toward the silence of that perfect place in which the Father resides.

.....

It Is Here That Whatever The Son So Asks, The Father Shall Give It Unto Him!

And in the end of all searching and in the end of all striving does the awakened Son look and behold the journey never was. No effort has been expended, no mountains climbed, no pain overcome. For the Son abides wholly in the Kingdom or chooses to forget the Kingdom and to imagine that he abides in a complex and fearful and changing world. Let this be as a guide unto each of you when there is felt but a trace of contraction of the Heart: know that you have begun to choose the world over the Kingdom. Yet in that same moment by acknowledging the Truth of your Being you can feel that contraction dissolve. And in its release know that you have chosen the Kingdom over the world. It is here that whatever the Son so asks, the Father shall give it unto him.

Look closely then at your frustrated prayers and know this: the lack is never in the Father nor in the power of the Son, but in your insistence that you are separate from Him. And if you would but look closely, you would become aware of that constriction. It is this and this alone that must be released. You cannot establish yourself in the Kingdom, for this is already given you. But you can choose to release the last trace of constriction that binds the Heart. Therefore, do not strive to grasp the Kingdom, but allow yourself to release the world. And in releasing the world, that which alone is Truth, that which alone is your Reality, is again recognized.

.....

Be Transformed Into What Has Been Called Paradise!

The sleeping Son is like a man who had journeyed to a far land and he would clutch tightly the purse that contains his jewels and his coins and would make haste to begin and sustain his journey. And so intent is he upon what he perceives to be a distant land that he forgets that he clutches the purse in the palm of his hand. And thinking constantly of the land to which he would move, he becomes so distracted that he passes through it and does not recognize it.

But the awakened Son is like a man who would go upon a journey and his preparation resides in this: he opens the palm of his hand and gives thanks for the jewels and the coins that he perceives there. And opening his Heart, and his eyes and his mind and every cell of his body, he beholds that he is already in the land to which he would journey. And his feet move, not in answer to his own desires, but he is impelled to move as the Father would have him move. Thus does he move without effort, without strife and without striving. He has given all things back to the Father and the Father has shown His Light, perfectly and brightly throughout all things that the awakened Son beholds. And the awakened Son simply rejoices in simple and quiet humility.

Yet I say this unto you: though the awakened Son is never apart from the Kingdom, yet does the Kingdom remain forever Mystery. Paradox of all paradoxes. For the Father and the Son are One. And in Truth the Son is the form of the Father made manifest. Not to live in strife, not to struggle in lack, but to rejoice and to allow the fullness of the Light of the Father that cannot be comprehended to shine forth in every thought, in every word, in every action. And yet the Son knows that it is not he that can think a perfect thought nor speak a perfect word nor act from perfect purity. For these things abide in the Father and are given to the Son that through the Son the world might awaken and be transformed into what has been called paradise, what has been called the Kingdom of Heaven. For the Kingdom is indeed already spread across the earth but the sleeping minds of mankind choose not to see it.

Thus is Adam cast from the Garden through nothing more than his own free choice. And yet if he would but turn around and give thanks to the Father, already would his place be established, abiding in the Kingdom where there is naught but harmony and plenty and Love. Would you not choose then now in this moment and forever more to abide in the Garden within your own being and to acknowledge that you walk eternally with the Father, and that you are the only begotten, the beloved Son of God?

And yet the Son is neither male nor female, but the Son is the term that I have used and still use only because it is familiar to each and everyone of you. But no word and no language contains the Truth of which I speak and of which I am. No word and no language contains the Truth of what you are. Release then the chains that bind you. Look upon them and know that it is you who have placed them there for no other reason than to experience the dream of separation. And more quickly than you can think a single thought the chains can be released and dissolved by the Light of your own Being.

.....

Give Thanks For All Things That Come To You

When you have called upon me throughout the many forms of your experiences, know now that you have called but upon yourself.

What I speak is heresy to those who would insist upon separation from the Father. It is for this that I was condemned, that the simple and loving message would be denied to the whole of mankind: "You are the Son and you are home. No one has authority over you, save the Father within you!"

Know this, every choice made by the mind in hearing in the illusion of separation is already used by the Father to gently guide the sleeping Son to awakening. Nothing ever brought forth in the worlds that you have experienced has ever done anything but to serve the awakening of the only begotten Son of God. And well do you know that the condemnation placed upon me by those who feared me has done naught but to serve the spreading of my Gospel. Herein know well the harmony of the Kingdom and give thanks for all things that come to you. Give thanks to the Father for all things that are felt and seen and touched and tasted. For well does He know what you most have need of. For it is only when you have chosen to abide in the illusion that you have been separate from Him that you have longed for things that could not fill you.

And the anger that you have known and the enmity between yourselves and your brothers and sisters is born not of the Father but of your choice to dream of separation that there could be anything outside the presence of the Father that could fill you, that could nourish you, that you must surely need, for the awakened Son has need of nothing. Seeking not, the Son gives all that he has and when he gives all that he has, he looks and, behold, he has more given unto him.

And never is the wealth of the Father spent. Would you not open your Hearts and your minds to receive of the abundance that the Father would give unto you? And as quickly as you would receive it, would you not give it away gladly to your sleeping brothers and sisters? For the more that you give, the more you will receive. This is the Truth of the Kingdom and the fear of the world.

.....

Will You Be Willing To Listen In The Most Holy Of Silences?

Beloved Christ, know well that you do not abide in the body, but that the body abides in you. And if you would but receive it, as you look around you, there is not one thing that you behold that does not exist within you. For in Truth you are of one Heart, one Mind and one Soul eternal.

And the dawning of this age, requires a new teaching. And yet what seems new has been already present from before that ancient beginning of journeys that never in Truth needed to be.

You have heard it said unto you that you have known many lifetimes, but I would say unto you, you are all lifetimes. You have heard it said unto you that you must perfect your weaknesses.

But I would say unto you, you are already perfection. You have heard it said unto you that you must experience the consequences of your sins, but I would say unto you, you have never sinned. What consequences must you then endure?

You can in this moment release all things of the world, even those things to come. Here in this moment you can stop the momentum that has carried you to this point and would carry you into future lives and experiences of separation. You can let the wheel of the world cease in its movement. And in its ceasing is found the peace that forever passes all understanding. And in the ceasing of its movement you will rest in the fields of your Father's Kingdom in perfect and unending abundance.

For the awakened Son need only stand with outstretched arms, palms heavenward, and without even asking simply receive the abundance that is already his. Thus is the Kingdom born without effort. And thus does the awakened Son proclaim, "Behold, brothers and sisters, my burden is eternally Light and my way is very easy."

All that I am and have been, you already are. And all that I did upon this your beloved earth, you can already do, and more than these. Think not then that you must change the water to wine nor that you must raise the dead to life. For the Father will speak unto you of what He will have you do. Will you be willing to listen? For only when the Son abides eternally in silence can he hear the Voice of the Father. For in silence is the noise of the world shut out. And in silence, the world touches the Son not. And in this most Holy of silences, not a pause between thoughts, but that which abides eternally prior to all thought.

And in this most Holy of silences do you already know what your purpose is. When you have chosen to acknowledge it, you will go forth lightly and without effort and there will be joy upon your Heart and a smile upon your face. And the Light you are will shine forth through your eyes and others will behold it and know it. But some would still choose to fear it. Be not concerned for those that would choose fear, but abide always and eternally and with every breath in the Light of the Father's perfect Kingdom. Choose, then, to be the perfect servant. And allow the world to be transformed, not as you would transform it, but as the Father would will it to be transformed.

.....

There Will Be An Age Of Perfect Peace!

The Kingdom of Heaven is indeed eternal. In it do you dwell. From it do you draw your sustenance. And in your acknowledging of the Truth of your being will you become it. And your Light will light all darkness and your presence will be as a healing. And your glory that has never been tainted in the eyes of the Father will shine before the world that through you the Father might bring the whole of creation back again to Himself. You are the Son even as I am. I love you greatly. And do you not see that in loving you, I love naught but myself? And in loving me, you love naught but yourself.

Those of you that have sought me and have prayed to me, know this well: you need only look upon your brother or your sister and behold, I am there. The time of dreams is ended now. This then my message unto you. Never have I been far from you and in these the last days I come forth in many forms and I will be with you until you choose wholly to be with me. Thus will the Kingdom again be established in the minds of those who are yet sleeping. And there will be an age of perfect peace. It will be seen and known upon the earth and then will the very purpose of creation have been fulfilled. And yet beyond this, nothing can be said.

For in each and every moment the Will of the Father is given you. You need only attend to the Voice of the Spirit within you. And if you would know the Will of the Father, open the eyes of your Heart. For never would you be where the Father would not have you be. Gently has He alone guided you. Gently does He alone sustain you. Therefore, know no envy of the path of another. Look not around you and believe that you must have what you see, that another seems to possess. For it is not given unto you to know the purpose of the path of another. But it is given unto you to Love the other to be the Son you are, and allow your own journey to be ended.

Open your hand and see clearly the jewel that you contain there. The message has been given and already is it received. But I would have you practice what in Truth is a non-practice. Acknowledge as you go through the whole of your day, with laughter in the Heart, "I am the Son of God and life is simple." From this will emerge a sudden and clear insight into the purpose for which you have come forth. This then is my message to you: be ever vigilant in the simplicity of your laughter, and the Holy Spirit will bring to you the clarity of which I speak. Lighten the load upon your Heart and when the weight of it is vanished, the Voice of the Spirit will be heard.

You need only stretch forth your arms and turn your palms toward the heavens, which is merely a symbol of turning your attention from that which is below to that which is above. And simply ask of the Father in the name of Son and He will give it unto you. For if you would but look upon every moment of this life that you have lived, you will see that you have received that which you have asked for. So the choice seems so simple: to choose anew or to repeat those choices. But already do you know, they can serve you no longer.

.....

The Father Will Not Only Replace Your Abundance But It Would Blossom Sevenfold!

Beloved and Holy Child of God, would you yet choose to cling to a momentary dream of separation? Would you choose to insist on beating the breast of your own individuality, when you could choose to become again as one mind, one Heart and even of one body? This, then, is the essence of the body of Christ: to join together in that secret chamber of the Heart that knows no location and neither beginning nor end. And to know fully that you are not separate from any time and any place and any mind and any being, but you are already the Life of all beings.

Would you not choose with me to bring forth a world reborn? Not one that merely repeats the limitations of shadows outgrown but one transfigured in that most incomprehensible of Lights that rests easily within your Heart and is closer than your very breath. For if you would sit quietly and allow your attention to rest with what you believe to be the physical movement of God, you could see in an instant that it is but an expression of a Light that you are. And if that Light not be given wholly to you in every moment, you would cease to be.

And yet have you learned from your illusions to believe you must cling so tightly to what you have thought yourself to be. But the power of the Son is given in this to decree that a thing is so and it is so. What then are you choosing to decree? If you would know clearly what you are choosing to create, open your eyes and in every moment that which comes unto you has already been freely chosen by you.

And if you hear my message but a little, though wonder deeply upon what seems to be the fact of your moments of lack and emptiness and hurt and confusion, and wonder why do I choose these things? For you are worthy of the full abundance that the Father would bestow upon you. And yet I would say this unto you: the abundance of the Father is given unto to the Son, not that the Son would possess that abundance but would shower it freely upon his brothers and his sisters. And as quickly as you would do this, the Father will not only replace your abundance but it would blossom sevenfold. For there is not one thing you need in Truth to receive. But there are all things that you in Truth need to give away. For that which is given in Light, speaks in Light. And that which is received of Light, expresses Light and transforms the sleeping Heart of a brother or sister to whom you would extend it.

The end of all striving to know God is found in the recognition that there is only God. There is no special fanfare; there is no great technique that you must master, save to rest in the throne of your own Heart and there to silently acknowledge, "I choose the ending of all dreams and I allow myself to abide in my Self, in the Father, with the Father, by the Father." And then will the Son that has slept so long be reborn as what he was made to be, the simple and perfect servant who would serve the Father. And is not that service but to extend the Love that the Father is, that the Light of the Father might transform all things and bring all things back unto Him?

.....

"Holy Father, Let There Be Light!"

The mind cannot comprehend the Kingdom. It was not designed with this purpose. For the mind was created to be but a servant of the Holy Spirit that would move through you. Seek not then to understand what is spoken to you but throw open the shutters of your Heart that the Spirit that these words convey might make their home within you and that Spirit will transform you. And yet you cannot know what will be born of the transformation of which I speak. But you can give yourselves to it.

This then is the meaning of perfect sacrifice: to lay down all that you are and all that you believe yourself to be and trusting in faith that the Father already knows what He would have you do and what He would have you be. For does a ray of Light speak unto the sun, "Fill me in the way that I would choose.?" It simply delights in expressing the Light of the sun as the sun would so direct.

Simply do this: Be still, and lay aside all thoughts of what you are and what God is; all concepts you have learned about the world; all images you hold about yourself. Empty your mind of everything it thinks is either true or false, or good or bad, of every thought it judges worthy, and all the ideas of which it is ashamed. Hold onto nothing. Do not bring with you one thought the past has taught, nor one belief you ever learned before from anything. Forget this world, forget this course, and come with wholly empty hands unto your God. (WL 189)

Is it not He Who knows the way to you? You need not know the way to Him. Your part is simply to allow all obstacles that you have interposed between the Son and God the Father to be quietly removed forever. God will do His part in joyful and immediate response. Ask and receive. But do not make demands, nor point the road to God by which He should appear to you. The way to reach Him is merely to let Him be. For in that way is your Reality proclaimed as well.

Become then that happy ray, empty of all traces of self that you might be filled with all that the Father is. And thus does the awakened Son proclaim, prior to every breath taken, "I and my Father are One."

Who among your brothers and sisters is not worthy of being bathed in that Light? Why would you choose to conceal it from them? For is not darkness but the absence of Light? And is not the cold but the absence of warmth? Be therefore bearers of Light and warmth, even that most perfect Light that is the presence of the Father within you, even that most perfect warmth that is the unconditional Love given through you from the Father to the world that sleeps in darkness.

Those who would choose to wholly serve the Father, let this be as a meditation for you to be practiced in each moment and know that as you practice it, the power of the Father will increase seven-fold to be radiated through you. And as you practice it, you will come to live evermore deeply in the Heart of the Kingdom within you.

The meditation is simple and it resides in these words, "Holy Father, let there be Light." Let this be as your prayer in every moment and every situation and you will behold the work of your Holy Father. For when you abide in the meaning and the energy of these words, obstacles that you would perceive before you will but dissolve and be as if they never were. And those yet sleeping will be attracted to you, though they know not why. And yet you need to speak nothing, save that which the Spirit would give you to say.

.....

The Light Of A New Dawn Breaks Across The Horizon!

Now is the time upon the earth when the ears of mankind will listen. Now is the time upon your earth when Hearts have longed to be filled with your Light that they might know themselves to be that Light. It is for this that I have called unto you and it is this Truth already carried within your Hearts that has given forth the power unto you to hear my call.

Doubt not what you now feel even in this moment, for you know the words that I speak unto you echo the Truth you already contain within you.

The hour is come. The Light of a new dawn breaks across the horizon. Bring forth its Rays to touch all living things, to bring back all things to the embrace of the Father. And in this even your earth will rejoice. Let thine eye be single. Let your intention be but one, even to proclaim with every breath the one Reality you are. Let your desire be single, desiring only the perfect Will of our Holy Father.

God's Will is your salvation. If He wills you to have it, He must have made it possible and easy to obtain it. Your brothers are everywhere. You do not have to seek far for salvation. Every minute and every second gives you a chance to save yourself. Do not lose these chances, not because they will not return, but because delay of joy is needless. God wills you Perfect Happiness now. Is it possible that this is not also your will? And is it possible that this is not also the will of your brothers? (T 175) [T-9.VII.1.]

God's Will for you is perfect happiness. The part that He has saved for you to take in working out His plan is given you that you might be restored to what He wills. This part is as essential to His plan as to your happiness. Your joy must be complete to let His plan be understood by those to whom He sends you. They will see their function in your shining face, and hear God calling to them in your happy laugh. (WL 100)

You are indeed essential to God's plan. Without your joy, His joy is incomplete. Without your smile, the world cannot be saved. You are indeed essential to God's plan. Just as your Light increases every Light that shines in Heaven, so your joy on earth calls to all minds to let their sorrows go, and take their place beside you in God's plan. God's messengers are joyous, and their joy heals sorrow and despair. They are the proof that God wills perfect happiness for all who will accept their Father's gifts as theirs.

~ Jeshua

To enhance the main topics, this material came from both The Way of Mastery and A Course in Miracles.

Page Ref:

The Way of Mastery:

ARC Archives Files

A Course In Miracles (ACIM)

T - Text (T- #) Latest Version: [T-#]

WL - Workbook Lesson Number

If a paragraph does not have a page number reference, it is part of the previous paragraph's page number.

This material was prepared to help Mastery groups in studying The Way of Mastery. You may copy and redistribute this material so long as you do not alter it in any way, the content remains complete, and you include this link as the source of the material: www.shantichristo.com

If you want to use this material for any purpose other than to help facilitate a study group (such as posting to the internet or a website), please contact Shanti Christo Foundation for written permission to do so at: 505-216-7541 or staff@shantichristo.com.

The Way of Mastery, Copyright © Shanti Christo Foundation. All Rights Reserved.

You Are The Son Of God!
In This Rests All Salvation! - with ACIM
23-09-I45