You Were Created In Love From Before Time Is!

Part 1

Now we begin. Indeed, greetings unto you, beloved and Holy Children of Light Divine. My Love and my blessings I extend unto you. Know always that it is with Joy that I come to abide with you, even as you have chosen from the depth of your being to come forth and abide with me. Count it, then, always a joy, every moment given unto us. For in Truth, I say this unto you: every moment of your experience is already that perfect pathway that must bring you Home to the arms of our Father. For in Truth, when you choose to ask from the Heart for the end of pain and the end of separation and the end of fear and doubt, when in Truth you are ready to lay down the worlds that you have built, the ideas of yourself that you have formulated, and in Truth your judgments of all things, then does the Father come and begin to work in your life. And everything that unfolds before you is as a perfect stepping stone that brings you back to the fullness of the Kingdom. (ARC)

And in Truth, is it not that for which you have prayed and for which you seek? What in the world could ever bring you that fulfillment? What relationship? What amount of your golden coins? What amount of power could ever suffice to fill the emptiness of the soul? And yet, the soul is like a cup longing to be filled. And if you would ask the Father to fill it with that unconditional Light and Love that brings Peace in all things, first know that the cup of the soul must be emptied of every idea and every judgment and ever fear that you have ever held. And to look indeed upon the whole of your life and to say, "Holy Father, I mistakenly thought my life was mine and it is not. Take it. Do with it what you will. I give back myself to You."

Now, that requires something called faith. Faith is not a belief. It is not a set of concepts and ideas that you think will make you safe. Faith is an openness that requires trust and gentleness and patience. And it requires vigilance, that never again do you allow even a day to go by in which you fail to turn first to the Kingdom of Heaven within your Heart and to lay down your life at the throne of our Holy Father, Who alone will know how to bring His sleeping Child back to wakefulness, to put an end to the dreams that you have created and lived from, that have caused strife for you and for others, to heal the pain that has been buried in the Heart for so long. And to bring you back to the Power of being that which you were created to be.

For this I say unto you: you are already all that I am. You were created in Love from before time is. And never does your Father look upon you with judgment. For He sees only what He has created: Light incomprehensible, Wisdom and Power and Righteousness and the ability to extend Love into a world that so desperately needs it. Therefore, I say unto you: think not that you must pray for salvation, for that has already been assured. Ask only that you awaken from every last trace of the belief that you have ever been separate from God. Release that, for the Love of your Father awaits you. It is closer to you than your own breath, and you need only throw open the shutters of your Heart and indeed that Bridge given unto you from before time is, that Bridge created of the Father and given to His Children, that Bridge called the Holy Spirit will come and touch your Heart and will create that walkway that will lead you to the fullness and the Peace you seek.

Become The Vessel Through Which The Love Of The Father Is Given To The World!

The Kingdom is not far from you. Indeed, have I not taught you before, "The Kingdom of Heaven is within you"? Turn, therefore, from the roar and din of your world. Turn from your fears and your doubts and your persecutions and your judgments. And lay it all at His feet. Turn, then, to the Kingdom within and all will be healed and set right. And then you will come and go as even I went in that life that I lived, what you would perceive as two thousand and some years ago. You will go as the wind, caring not for what you shall eat or drink for you will know that all things are provided by the Grace of the Father That has created you not to suffer, not to be in pain, but to become the vessel through which the Love of the Father is given to the world.

So, you see, that's the nub of it all. That is why you were created. Not to suffer and not to doubt, but to extend Love. What is it that can heal your planet? What is it that can heal your world? What is it that can heal your life, no matter what circumstances you find yourself in? What can bring that healing, save the unconditional Love of God? And I do mean unconditional. For Love cannot be extended if there is first held in the mind, "Well, I will love you if you promise to behave in a certain way and fill me with what I think I need."

Love must be unconditional. There is no one who must share your faith. There is no one who must accept the concepts you would use. But there is everyone who longs to be embraced with the Light of unconditional Love. And if you would receive it, that is the only purpose ever given unto you: to be the presence in this world of what it means to embrace and Love unconditionally. And in Truth, when you have been willing to embrace the world not to judge it but to Love it, then, in Truth, you will come to where I am and you will know that Peace that must forever pass all understanding.

That is your heritage. That is what is given you. It is the reason you were created. And this I say unto you: never has your Father taught you that you must fear Him. For how can Love be feared? And in Truth God is but Love. Therefore, if you would know Love, then teach only Love. And if you would know Peace, then extend only Peace. For what you teach will teach you. (ARC)

"Teach only Love, for that is what you are."<sup>1</sup>

What, then, are you teaching in every moment of your day? Are you teaching judgment? Remember always, with that which you mete out in judgment, it shall be meted back unto you. It is simply the law, the way this universe works. And as you give out Love, Love will pour down upon you. Miracles will come to touch your lives in ways that you could never possibly comprehend. Miracles, in Truth, occur naturally to Hearts that Love and that choose only Love no matter what the world around them might insist they do. It is very important. For in Truth, never is there a circumstance that can dictate to you that you must give up your Peace and cease in extending Love. (ARC)

Nothing in your world holds power over you, save that which you give your Power to. Give it not away, but hold it as a precious jewel. And note that that Power is not a power to dominate or control anyone. It is a Power to be as their servant.

For is it not written that "the last shall be first"? And did I not come to demonstrate what it means to be the servant of the Children of God, to serve only their desire to awaken and to remember and to release the dream of pain and suffering and doubt, the belief that you must conform yourselves to the conceptions of others? And to remember that you are the Begotten of God? And what God creates cannot fail, cannot be hated or detested or judged. For in Truth, your Father sees you only with Love.

Come To Live In Perfect Faith and Let Changes Come!

Can you then heal yourself and make yourself perfect enough to be returned to the Father? I say that it cannot be done. For in Truth, it is Grace and Grace alone that heals the Heart. And your only choice, your only decision, is to throw open the shutters of the Heart and say, "Father, do the work. For it is beyond me. You are the Worker. You the Weaver. You the Maker of all things, and unto You and into Your hands do I commend my Spirit."

Come, then. Come to learn what it means to live a life in which with every breath you give yourself to God. It means many changes in the ways which you think of yourselves and of the world. Let those changes come. Indeed, come to live in perfect faith. For in Truth, it is the Pure in Heart that see God. And that Purity comes when you are willing to let go of all of your judgments, and your angers and your fears, and to release the belief that you know how to make your life.

Has it ever worked? Hardly. But there is One Who will pick you up and carry you and put you where you need to be. And you will have rejoiced, and you will know that if you would know your Father's Will for you, you need only open your eyes. The entirety of your world longs for Love. And right where you are, in what seems to be a unique circumstance, hardly, for in Truth, there are many in greater prisons than this. Do you exist in a prison or in the Kingdom of Heaven? The choice is always yours and no external circumstance has the power to take that choice from your Heart. Be, then, at peace in all things. Know always that I Love you and know always this:

“I have never ceased in working, never ceased in being the servant of my Father. I have never ceased in working in this world, and I will come to any Heart that will but open the door for me. I will come in any manner that is necessary as a blinding Light, as a soft and gentle Voice, as a simple feeling of certainty, as a feeling of gratitude. I will come into your dreams and I will come in your wakefulness. I will come to the degree that you are willing to open and to let me come and take up my abode within your Heart. Not to be your savior, but to be your brother and your friend, that you might come to where I am and to see that, in Truth, we are equal in the eyes of our Father.”

All Things Shall Be Made New By The Power Of God That Flows Through The Awakened Mind and Heart!

Keep me not apart from you. For I long for only this:

To come and take up my abode with you. To join with you so completely that you will never again believe you can find a place where you end and I begin. That you might be in me, even as I am in the Father. That the Father might again be within us and among us, the only Begotten Son of God, Christ eternal.

Let your Light so shine before men that they cannot hope to turn away again. Not in arrogance and certainly not with egoism. But with the simplicity and humility of knowing that if it were not for the Breath of God pouring through you, you would not even exist. And if that is true, and I assure you that it is, it must mean that you are the Breath of God. What else could you possibly be? You've tried for a long time to find another answer to the question. Has it ever worked?

It cannot. Release, then, the world that you have dreamed into being and allow yourself to release even the dream of the dreamer itself. Let it be laid down eternally, crucified, dead and buried that that resurrection symbolized so long ago might come to be felt as your own. That's what it was all about. This is but a symbol of what you are. Allow that death and that rebirth to be yours, and all things shall be made new by the Power of God that flows through the Awakened Mind and Heart of His only Begotten Son, Christ eternal. And before you sits not a room full of bodies but mere tools and vehicles through which you, Christ eternal, shall express that Light that will bring the whole of creation back to the arms of the Father. Everything else is but a waste of time.

In Truth, there is not a circumstance that can arise that can steal from you your heritage as Christ. For all that arises in time must pass away in time. And yet, you remain eternally so. Would you know your Father's Will for you? Open your eyes. Will the world change around you? Of course, as it must. Indeed, many of you feel a bit of an acceleration in these days. Anyone felt that lately?

For in Truth, for creation to be returned to the bosom of our Father, a little polishing must be done, a little rearranging, a little cleaning of the house. Fear it not. Fear it not within yourselves and fear it not in what you see around you. But embrace the Love and the Grace of your Father and abide there in that perfect place of Peace that has never been touched by the comings and goings of a multitude of worlds.

What, in Truth, can touch the Heart of Christ? There is only one thing:

The Grace of your Father. It is the only thing allowed in. You are beauty in form. You are wisdom and you are power. You are Grace and you are gentleness. You are the dove that has come and descended onto the shoulders of this world.

Allow The Father To Work Through You To Bring Light To This World!

Indeed, many of you have felt me come and knock upon your Heart even before your sun rises in your mornings. And you have said, "Oh, it must be my imagination." Some of you have even said, "Not now." So I went back and checked with my secretary, and she said, "They sent a letter to you...." I thought I was supposed to be at your Heart in that moment. The time is at hand: the time to recognize that the Vision longs to be birthed through you. Do you have time for smallness and for pettiness? Do you have time yet for fear? And for lack? Do you have time that yet can be wasted? For in Truth, time cannot end until you have learned to use it constructively. And there is no greater constructive use of time than to embrace your Divine remembrance and allow the Father to work through you to bring Light to this world!

Anger is never justified. It doesn't mean you won't experience it, but stop fooling yourself into believing that there is some validity to it. What if one who broke into your home and takes your stereo equipment, or what-have-you {some other idol that you love}, what if you understood that you had the power in that moment to remember that all events are neutral? They merely provide you with a chance to choose Love. {WMe 32} (WM 30)

What if you literally chose the "insane" way, according to the world, of looking upon that one who has just done that act as a brother or sister who is crying out for help and healing – who does not know how to live in this world without being of the world, who does not know the way to self-forgiveness, that does not know the Truth of the Light that lives within them, that does not recognize their Great Power to create whatever they want in a way that is not hurtful to anyone – to look upon them with compassion rather than reactivity?

It begins in simple ways. And to set the stage, I want you to very much remember that time has been given to you that you might use it constructively. That means when you awaken in the morning, realize that you are in school. You don't have to drive anywhere, you're already there! And that the universe is literally helping to assist you into having experiences that will bring things up for you, so that you can choose to look at them differently, and thereby, discovering the Great Power within you – the freedom within you to choose what you want to perceive, to elicit only what you want to feel. So again, that even if nails are being driven through the hands, you finally are liberated in the Power to choose Love, and, therefore, to overcome this world.

Each Of Your Days Is A Blessing and A Gift, If You Use It From The Full Commitment To Awakening!

Each day should be devoted to miracles. The purpose of time is to enable you to learn how to use time constructively. It is thus a teaching device and a means to an end. Time will cease when it is no longer useful in facilitating learning. Miracles are teaching devices for demonstrating it is as blessed to give as to receive. They simultaneously increase the strength of the giver and supply strength to the receiver.<sup>2</sup>

Having said this, understand then, that each of your days is a blessing and a gift, if you use it from the full commitment to Awakening. Your day is chock full of a million opportunities to discover a deeper Truth! Therefore, never feel that the purpose of your life must be something other than what you're involved in. {WMe 32} (WM 30)

You are literally creating everything you choose and nothing is forced upon you. And now we're going to take that thought just a little deeper for a moment, because it literally means that if you have decided you want to awaken, it means you have already called to yourself every experience that can truly best serve your Awakening. And the friends and the family – the people you have relationships with – are those who likewise can best gain from the experiences elicited through your relationships. It means that right here, and right now, you're already demonstrating the Power that you're seeking – the Power to truly choose to awaken, and to command the whole of Creation to serve you in that Awakening. {WMe 32-33} (WM 30)

And when you have touched every sleeping heart upon this plane, time will be no more. And yet, you need not wait for the end of time to experience what is eternal. For with each breath, if you would but give yourself to that Vision and that Light and that Grace, you will come evermore deeply to abide, not so much in time, but in eternity. (ARC)

Give Up Dress Rehearsal and Get On With The Real Show!

Those around you that might see your bodies and think that the same personality is still there, in Truth, they see not. For you will have entered the Holy of Holies, and through what you created – the body and the personality – in separation from God, through you restored as Christ there will be expressed that which will heal this world. If you would but contemplate it, the whole of my life among you was nothing more than the demonstration of what you, too, have been called to do:

Indeed, to give up the ghost of your illusions and to claim your heritage as the only Begotten Son of God. It's much like giving up dress rehearsal and getting on with the real show.

I Love you. How can I not Love you? You were made in Love. You are the presence of Love. And when I look upon you, I see nothing but Love. What other choice do I have? And because I have chosen to abide in and as that Love, how can I ever look upon you with anything less than the eyes of Love? And yet, I see only myself.

You are my mirror. Some of you have yet continued to think there is still a little dust on it. And I am merely waiting for you to look again and see, "Oh, that dust was removed." And then to recognize that it was removed even as you first created the thought of separation. There is nothing there to obstruct the Light you are. Choose, then, with me now to let this time be your rebirth. You can come to see that with each and every breath you are having your birth-day.

There Is A Vision To Be Served Because The Bell Has Rung!

Great is my Love for you that have suffered and yet, greater has been my patience. Now, well understand that patience is not tolerating and waiting. Patience is actually a rather active action. And there was an old friend who was also a teacher of mine in the time that I walked upon this earth. He was known as the Teacher of Righteousness. He was a soul that has never tasted birth through your normal means but, indeed, manifested a form and taught within that community of Essences in which even I was raised. And there was a time when he looked upon me, before I made a little journey to a place in the East, and he said, "Always remember that patience is the Power given unto you to make Power slowly."

So, you see, that's all I've been trying to do for the last two thousand and some years. And though many of you see it not, your journeys have been like the most complex tapestry ever woven. You have come together and touched one another, and I say this unto you: there is no one who sees a stranger around them.

What is necessary is that you embrace the Reality that the time is at hand. That you are each other and that there is a Vision to be served because the bell has rung. You said you were hungry, and the banquet is set before you. Is it not time to sit and eat? "But I've gotten used to being so hungry. I think I'll just stay outside and play in my dreams and dramas a bit longer." We'll keep the soup warm. And yet, I say unto you that the time comes upon this earth for a quantum leap. I like that term. I wish it had been around in my time.

Align yourself, then, with the Angels of your Holy Mother. Stop making – and I hope you'll pardon the pun – light of it all. And yet, by aligning yourself with the Angels of your Holy Mother and the Angels of your Heavenly Father, you will give birth to that Perfect Marriage in the Heart that is your own:

The birthing of Christ, that indeed your Light might be known in earth as it is in heaven and spread as far as the east unto the west, and you will abide in the very heart of that cross. It's what it all means.

The Beginning Of A Rebirth That Cannot Be Denied!!!

Speak to that place within your Hearts in which a simple choice has been made:

"Father, awaken me. Bring me from the realm of dreams to Your only Reality. Return me to the Truth of that which I am and eternally must be. Awaken me to the Truth: that the Son is One, and that, indeed, I abide in You and You in me, unbounded, eternal, without obstacle or obstruction. Heal my body. Heal my mind and heal my emotions, for, indeed, all that I do is as nothing compared to Your Love and Your Grace. And in the end, all that I can do, Father, is to bring myself to the threshold of Your Kingdom and ask that You carry me across."

And indeed, well do you know that you have chosen this time frame, this lifetime, in which not to strive but to allow yourself to be carried over that threshold by the Light of Grace.

Has, then, the journey seemed so long and so difficult? And yet does it not disappear in the twinkling of an eye when you choose to throw open the shutters of your Heart and trust that Wisdom and that Guidance and that Love that indeed is the Source of all creation and indeed knows the purpose of all things, that would embrace you and enshroud you in a Light supernal, incomprehensible to the minds of mankind so habituated to the shadows of the world?

Give yourself to that Light and let it bear you across that threshold that indeed so many of you have touched countless times only to turn away. Out of fear? Perhaps, a fear of death? For, indeed, what death could there ever be, save the death of a momentary illusion in which you believed yourself to be something other than who you are? Does death, then, come to the body? Only from a limited perspective does it seem so. In Truth, there is but one death. And it is the death of that solitary choice made from before time is, to believe that you are separate from God.

Indeed, I have said unto you that you are Loved wholly and you have never sinned. And though many in your world would cry out, "That cannot be true," and indeed, everyone has cried out, "That's not true. I am guilty. I have sinned and I am unworthy of that Love which alone can heal all wounds and carry me to the midst of the Kingdom. And I will prove it well to you, Holy Father, for I will journey far from you and I will become as lost as I can possibly be so that, finally, maybe You'll believe me."

Therefore, I say unto you: you are Loved wholly and you have never sinned. And the reception of that Truth in the depth of your Heart signals the beginning of a rebirth that cannot be denied, and, indeed, it will be birthed so that you shall become all that I am. For again I say unto you:

I am not above you nor are you below me. For I have not come as the savior of the world. I have come as your friend and your brother to say that you are the saviors of the world, right where you are with every breath. You are the Word made flesh.

And in the embracing of that simple Truth that, indeed, you have always been Loved wholly, and there comes a rebirth of a Light incomprehensible.

"Father, fill me with Your Grace and Your Love and Your Light!

You Were Created In Love From Before Time Is!

Part 2

I Am Closer To You Than Your Own Breath, Never Further Away Than Your Choice To Turn To The Quiet Of Your Heart!

I Love you. I Love what you are and what you were created to be. And I simply wait just outside of the boundary of your consciousness, waiting to be allowed in, to be as a friend, as one who would teach you the secrets of the Kingdom of Heaven. For is it not written, "But you will not find the Kingdom of Heaven in the dead letter of the law"? For words are only words. Would you look behind them? Would you touch the quiet place within your heart? For there I dwell always. (ARC)

Know, then, please know that I am closer to you than your own breath, never further away than your choice to turn from your world to the quiet of your heart. There you will hear me. There you will feel me. There I shall embrace you with the Love given unto me of my Father. For in Truth, of myself I do nothing but the Father through me does all things. Therefore, I am His servant. And because I serve my Father, I serve you, the only offspring of our heavenly Father. I Love you and I embrace you. And I simply wait patiently for you to choose not the world with its fear and its doubt and its pain, but to choose the Peace of the Kingdom of Heaven.

For indeed, it has well been written that the Kingdom of Heaven is already spread across the face of this earth but mankind sees it not because he looks through the perceptions given him of the world and he forgets to look with the clarity and peace of the quiet heart. Learn to abide there always, and indeed you shall come quickly to the abode of your Father. And in Truth, when you cross that threshold, never again shall you forget. Never again shall you cast yourself from the Garden, for you will remember that greater than all things is the Peace of God. And you shall become as the teacher is. And what you see in me, you, too, shall be. For is it not written,

"All that I do, you also shall do, and greater things than these shall you do"?

Unto you it is given to know the secrets of the Kingdom of Heaven. They are not hidden. They are not far. They do not need to be earned. They need only to be allowed by your simple choice of giving up the effort and the strain and the struggle to be conformed to the world.

Don not the cloak of perceptions born of a world that is wholly insane, but don the cloak of Peace and choose the cloak of the Kingdom. It requires no words. It requires no great religious belief systems. It requires only the certainty of a quiet heart in which you know that your Father dwells with you and that there is no distance between you.

And whatsoever you would ask in my name, the Father will give unto you. But to ask in my name doesn't mean that you simply repeat the name of Jeshua. It means that you abide in that energy of Peace. For in ancient of days a name was understood to mean a quality of energy, a quality of being, a place. Does that make sense to you?

Therefore, when you ask in my name, it means that you first chose to abide in the quiet of the Heart. Then what you ask will be granted. And yet, you will see that what you ask will not be for riches and fame. It will be for Peace and for the Power to extend Love to the world. In other words, when you abide in that place and ask in my name, the only thing you can ask for is the fulfillment of the purpose for which you are created.

Use Your Time Well. See It As An Opportunity To Look Within!

I have given unto you the fullness of my Gospel:

That you are already Loved and you have already been saved and your Father simply waits for you to embrace it, to see that the past has been dissolved and can hold no power over you unless you bring it with you.

And indeed, when you leave the doors of what would be called a prison, turn around and see it as your own monastery, given unto you as an opportunity to be released from the insanity of the world. Use your time well. See it as an opportunity to look within and release the pain that has brought you here. And indeed, to know that when you leave the doors of this place, you are being sent forth to bring Love to the world, to demonstrate that there is no heart and mind that cannot be healed.

What greater gift could you give to the world, save to be the sheep that was lost and is now found? To be the demonstration that Grace has come and healed your Heart, and because it has healed yours, it can heal the world. Indeed, become a demonstration to this world of the Peace and the Power of our Father's Love.

So, there you have it: the whole of the Gospel in a nutshell. Is it so difficult? No. And yet the Kingdom is in your Heart and no one can separate it from you. Nor do you need anyone as your intermediary. You need only open your Heart and say, "Father, I am here. Teach me." And that teaching will come.

Think it not by accident that you have come to this life. For in Truth, I say unto you: there is no such thing as an accident. Just beneath and behind what you see with the eyes there is a Wisdom and a Light and a Power that takes all things mankind creates and weaves it into a tapestry that brings the sleeping Child back to wakefulness. And you all well know that your own pain has caused you to turn and to search anew. Therefore, give thanks for it. Bless it. Bless the whole of your journey. Lament not a moment of it. Bless it and embrace it. And that which has been true and right within it will be re-established. And that which needs to be dissolved will fall away from you when first you choose with every day and with every breath to seek first the Kingdom of God. And you become and find with every breath that you are a Light in this world.

You Are In Truth Your Brother's Keeper Because Of The Simple Fact That You Are Your Brother!

When the dream of the dreamer itself has been finally laid down, there then arises in the consciousness of man the rebirth of Christ, that Perfect Servant that was created before time is. For, indeed, the only purpose of the Mind of Christ is to extend the Light and the Love and the Joy of the Father, to extend it into time that seems to have denied eternity. What greater service could be given, then, save to turn within and there to find and discover that you are the Mind of Christ? What could you extend unto another that could be greater than this? And yet many in your world would seek to run around trying to fix others and indeed to fix the world. But how can the unhealed healer heal another?

Indeed, you are in Truth your brother's keeper because of the simple fact that you are your brother. There is not one trace of separation between you, and yet, do not make the mistake of thinking that it is given unto you to run about bodily trying to embrace everyone. For already there is a Guide given unto you and already does your Father, Who has sent you that Guide and that Bridge, already does He know how best you can serve in the Atonement in the Mind of Christ. And it is a simple thing to do.

For, in Truth, he that would embrace the Reality of the servant only opens his eyes and ask of the Father, "What would you have me do?" And there before you will be the one assigned unto you to whom you can extend that opportunity to choose anew. That is all you need do. And look into their eyes and see naught but the face of Christ. Leave the rest of the world up to your Father, for He will send a savior unto everyone who needs it.

Therefore service is the highest calling that can be answered in this world. There is none higher. And indeed, all are called to become as the servants of the Mind of Christ, bringing the fullness of Awakening and extending it unto those who believe yet in pain and lack and separation. And yet you cannot receive it for them; you can only give it away. Service is the end of the journey of the illusion of separation. For he that has drunk from my mouth and indeed has tasted the living waters that would pour forth from the Heart of Christ, that one becomes as I am and sees that there is nothing in the world to be gained or lost, and gives up his time, his body, his emotions and his mind to be shaped into that perfect vehicle that will be the servant of Christ.

And he goes as the wind goes, caring not where he has come from and caring not for where he might go, for his joy resides in being present in Love in every moment, knowing that when he walks around the corner, the one he sees is sent unto him of his Father, and his only purpose and function is to extend the Love of Christ unto that one.

A miracle is a service. It is the maximal service you can render to another. It is a way of loving your neighbor as yourself. You recognize your own and your neighbor's worth simultaneously.

You are sent forth to be the fisher of men. And yet it is not up to you to decide how to do that. It is up to you to allow it to be done through you, gently and without effort. For what effort could be expended by that Mind and Heart that is joined again in the remembrance of the Truth that we are One with the Father. (ARC)

Be, therefore, a servant unto mankind. Be, therefore, a servant unto the only Reality that exists – the Awakened Heart of Christ – and you are the savior of the world. Service is the only thing worth spending your time on. And when you extend service, indeed you will find that you are provided for in all things. Not one obstacle will arise that is not already dissolved before you reach it. That requires great trust. But trust comes easily to the Awakened Mind of Christ.

You Can Trust The Movement Of Spirit Through You!

The Mind of Christ is crystal clarity. It reaches out for nothing. It clings to nothing. It is much like the vast sky which does not hold even one small cloud. It is rather passive in a sense, rather allowing of all things. It trusts that guidance will be given unto It when it is required. Your mind, the mind taught unto you by your world, believes it must cram itself full and then cling unto every little detail so that you will know where all the little things are that you need to get through your day. Do you know that feeling?

It creates what is commonly called "a pain in the neck". Now, the Mind of Christ releases that quality of being because it has learned to trust completely. It knows that it need not cling to anything. For what would you cling to and seek to control save that which you distrust? And when you come to understand that you can trust the movement of Spirit through you, you will see there is nothing left to cling to, nothing that you can use to create your safety because you are safety itself. When you begin to try to use the mind to solve what you perceive as problems, stop. The mind in that sense is utterly helpless. It has never solved a single problem.

Miracles do not come forth from that quality of mind, but they come forth naturally and effortlessly when you choose to abide in the quiet and the clarity of the Mind of Christ.

Miracles make minds One in God. They depend on cooperation because the Sonship is the sum of all that God created. Miracles therefore reflect the laws of eternity, not of time.

And that Light transforms what you have believed to be your mind so that you no longer see a distinction between the two because that which has been filled with a bit of turmoil and contraction and darkness is nowhere to be found. You will come to see that which flows through you mirrors the Love of God in all that you do and all that you think and all that you say. And yet you will not attach yourself to anything that arises through you. For indeed, those words I have spoken unto you will have been realized to be your own:

"Of myself, I do nothing. It's my Father that does it through me." (ARC)

So, what are you going to take credit for? What are you going to fear losing? The Mind of Christ is vast. It knows no boundaries. Nothing taints it. Abide in that Mind and that alone and all things shall be possible unto you for there will not be a trace of separation. Time and space will no longer be a barrier. Problems will not arise because you will have already turned them over, and in the Mind of Christ solutions will be given in the form of effortless miracles.

Miracles bear witness to Truth. They are convincing because they arise from conviction. Without conviction they deteriorate into magic, which is mindless and therefore destructive; or rather, the uncreative use of mind.<sup>5</sup>

Are You Willing To Turn Your Ears From The World To The Still and Quiet Place, The Temple Of The Heart?

What can death mean if it is not the death of the illusion that you are separate from God? And what is a master, save one who finally got it? And what, then, can be said of that rebirth? There is not one thing that blocks the turning of the Light within you, save your own insane insistence that "Surely I am guilty, somewhere. I cannot be loved so fully. How can I release that which I have clung to for so long?" For, indeed, many of you have come to understand that what you have felt and experienced often in this lifetime is nothing more than an old record being played over and over and over. (ARC)

You are that Christ Child and that seed of your enlightenment, which I far prefer to call your own Divine remembrance. It was already planted in the depth of your soul through the Grace of your Father when first you, as the only Begotten Son of God, held one thought and believed it to be true:

"I am separate from God. I must journey forth and find my own way."

And you have carried that seed within you always. It has whispered to you in your anguish and in your aloneness. And even at the height of your successes, that seemed a bit temporary, the Voice in that seed has spoken unto you. Listen; perhaps you can hear it even now.

For just beneath the din and the roar of your world there comes a quiet Voice, the Voice of the Christ within you, who abides with perfect union with the Father always and who knows you better than you could ever know yourself – because that seed is yourself.

Listen. Can you hear it? Are you willing to turn your ears from the world to the still and quiet place, the temple of the Heart – indeed, the Holy of Holies – and to hear the echo of the song that has been sung without ceasing,

"You are My beloved Son, and in you I am eternally well pleased"?

Unto You It Is Given To Know and Remember and Embrace and To Live The Secrets Of The Kingdom Of Heaven!

I have called out unto you since before time began. You have heard me and you have joined with me, and you have fled from me. And never have I ceased in calling. I have come and I have knocked upon the door of your Heart and now, there is Light. For in Truth, you have come forth not into this world to suffer, not to take more side-trips. You have come because the time is at hand, and you knew it since before you chose this incarnation. You have come forth to participate in the turning of that age in which darkness relents and gives room for Light.

And you are that Light that has come into the world. You are that eternal Word made flesh. You are, then, my guest of honor. I did not say "guests." I said, "guest." For when I look upon you, though you choose to see bodies in space, I see only the splendor of the only Begotten Son of God. And unto you it is given to know and remember and embrace and to live the secrets of the Kingdom of Heaven. And, precious friends, the time is at hand. What will you embrace and make your own?

If you would embrace me, embrace your Self. For you cannot find me apart from where you are. You are already all that I am and all that I have come to represent to the consciousness of mankind. You are the Word made flesh, and I bow before your Grace and your Beauty and your Power and your Wisdom to indeed heal and transform this world. What does it mean to cry out to the Father, "What would you have me do?" If you would know your Father's Will for you, open your eyes. You are sent into this world as its savior. Not to be conformed to it, but, indeed, to set apart the Kingdom of Heaven to keep it Holy in your remembrance, in your vigilance and with every breath you breathe.

Simply Acknowledge In Your Heart That You Are The Holy Child Of God!

Precious friends, let this be the time in which you throw open the shutters of your Heart and say, "Enough of this nonsense. I'm tired of the drama and the games. I am tired of the separation. I am tired of not having myself fulfilled. I give myself over to that Light. Do with me what you want, Father. For now I have realized my life has never been mine. It is Yours. In You do I find my Being. Become my breath. Become my movements. Become my dreams and visions. Become my laughter and my tears. Become me, that I might die in you." Be the one who is Christ reborn.

Great is my Love for you that have journeyed for so long. Great is my Love for you who are already with me before the beginning of time and, for the twinkling of an eye in which all worlds have arisen, you chose to forget for just a moment. And the distance between us is no greater than the simplicity of choosing anew.

Miracles are both beginnings and endings, and so they alter the temporal order. They are always affirmations of rebirth, which seem to go back but really go forward. They undo the past in the present, and thus release the future.

Indeed, I am with you always. And I can be nowhere else. Look not, then, to the east, and look not to the west, but, indeed, the Kingdom of Heaven is within you. There I dwell eternally. So, celebrate well because, you see, that yet is the secret to the Kingdom of Heaven that I shared with my friends; sing, laugh, dance and play every day and allow outrageousness to be your style.

Outrageousness doesn't mean that you offend anybody. Outrageousness means that you become so outrageous as to simply acknowledge in your Heart that you are the Holy Child of God. No more and certainly no less.

That is outrageous in the eyes of the world that believes in struggle and loss and pain and fear and death. When you become so outrageous as to throw such perceptions out the window and to acknowledge that only Love is Real, that is what it means to be outrageous. Always be a little outrageous in each of your days. For outrageousness is a gift of the Kingdom. But it comes from a playful Heart.

Extend The Love That You Are and The Whole Of Creation Will Become A Mirror!

You are Love and you are Light. You are unbounded and eternal, and there is no Power that is withheld from you. No matter what the world says or does, you are that One that can demonstrate the presence of the Kingdom of your Father. You are that One to whom the world turns for its salvation. You are that One who brings Peace. You are that One conceived in Love. You are that One who is the bearer of Love divine. You are that One you have always sought. Become, therefore, what you are and join with me in bringing the Light of a new wine into this world.

Play and laugh; discard the cloak of seriousness; become outrageous and bring the unbridled Light and Love that your Father is into every dark corner of the sleeping world. You've done everything else, so you might as well do this, too. Embrace the Peace you are and be the Peace that you would extend. NEVER judge your brother or sister. Give up the habit of forming opinions. It simply wastes your time. Extend the Love that you are, and the whole of creation will become a mirror, reflecting unlimited and unbounded Joy. And when that task is completed, even the world will be no more. And the whole of creation will have returned to its Source: the release of one thought.

Be at Peace always and know that I Love you always. For I have watched your journeys and I have never ceased in Loving you. And whatever form you choose for your journey to take, I will be there with you because, in Truth, I am with you always.
