You Know That in Truth We Walk Together to God!

You are made in the image of God; therefore, you reflect that which the Father is. And if God is but Love – and I assure you that He is – so, too, is Love the foundation of your Reality. So, too, is Love your purpose and your function, as it is mine. (JT -1)

And if that foundation of your Reality is a Love that far transcends all appearances, if it is indeed a Light and a Love that knows neither beginning nor end, if it is a Love that is also the foundation of my being, then we are One. Beyond all appearances, beyond all birth and death, beyond all comings and goings, beyond all fears and all doubts and all longings and all laments, we remain as we are created to be: the Holy and only begotten Son of God.

Therefore, understand well that I come not unto you as one who is above you, but I come to abide with you to demonstrate a Truth that cannot be taken from us. For indeed where you are, I am. And the only distance that has ever existed between us is the width of a thought, and no more. What, then, would the width of a thought be? Can you measure it? No, but you can choose it.

Therefore, when you choose to abide in and as Love, you have chosen to abide with me. When you choose fear, you have chosen a thought that separates you from me. And yet, that separation does not occur in Reality, although it does appear to do so within the construct that I would call your illusion. Each time that you have known fear, each time that you have tasted anger, each time you have looked out upon a world and seen a world that is unsafe, you have forgotten the Home in which you abide, eternally, without end. When you look out and see yourself separate from your brother and sister, when you would look upon me and some of the very odd ideas that you have been taught about me, and have believed that I must be someone or something far removed from you, you have not chosen to look through the eyes of Love.

When in those moments when the mind has tasted stillness and the Heart is open and you have extended unto yourself and unto the world the whole of your forgiveness and you have been willing to embrace and trust all, when you have touched the silence that comes from the depth of the Heart, the Holy of Holies, the temple where the Son and Father abide as One, then indeed you have chosen Love. You have looked through the eyes of Love and you have looked with me upon a world that is safe, and you have looked upon your brothers and sisters and seen them like as ourselves, and you know that in Truth we walk together to God!

Become That Focal Point Through Which the Light and the Radiance of Love Shines Forth with Every Thought and with Every Deed!

If God is but Love, it need not be a fearful journey. For in the end of all journeying, the Son awakens from what then appears to have been nothing more than a dream. He sees his splendor, and he sees it radiating out to embrace the whole of creation. He sees it in the smile and in the eyes of everyone that he comes into contact with.

And the Son fulfills his function for he has given up living as an ego, as a separate self. And he becomes that focal point through which the Light and the radiance of Love shines forth with every thought and with every deed, and his or her creations mirror all that the Father is: Love giving of Itself to touch and embrace, uplift and heal creation.

And yet the extension of that Love never leaves the Son because all things arise within the mind of the Son of God. And if that is true – and I assure you that it is – it means that when you extend Love, when you look past all of the conceptions and perceptions that the world would teach you to believe in, when you look past even the veil of the body, the veil of histories, and you see the radiance of the Light of Christ in your brother and sister, you have seen yourself. And you have embraced all that you are. You have put aside the things of dreams because the Light of day has returned.

I Merely Get Out of The Way and Allow Love to Pour Forth Through Every Cell of My Being!

I have said before that there is really only one lesson you need to learn, and it is simply this: "There is nothing outside of you." Nothing! All heavens and all hells arise within you, and it is given unto you with all the power beneath Heaven and Earth to choose in which domain you will abide – in Heaven, or in hell, if you will.

There isn't a single thing you could ever possibly do to earn the Love of God. There isn't a single technique you could ever master that would bring you to a state of being, the creation of God. There is only your willingness to look closely at all aspects of your experience evenly and to see those things that reflect to you a fearful choice, perhaps a judgment. And the way that brings you to where I am, the way that would replace a fearful world with a peaceful world, is the way in which you begin the simple practice of choosing peace. What may seem a bit outrageous – no matter what takes place – within you lies the power to say, "Instead of this, I can choose peace."

Now, how do I know that that's true? As a man who walked once upon this plane, I, too, had need of learning what you are learning, what some of you had already learned that: "I and my Father are One," and the appearances of this world hold no power over you, as it held no power over me. My demonstration was a bit extreme by some standards, and yet it taught me in the end the simple Truth that death is not real, that the body is not my home, that in Truth my Kingdom is not of this world. It is not of fear; it is not of doubt; it is not of limitation or weakness.

My Kingdom is a kingdom of perfect peace, of unlimited wisdom and unlimited strength. Although, paradoxically, when you abide in the Kingdom, you understand the meaning of these words, "Of myself I do nothing. My Father through me does all things. I merely get out of the way and allow Love to pour forth through every cell of my being!"

I have learned that I can gain nothing from the world, and I have learned that the world can take nothing from me. And that my purpose and function is to be that radiant Presence that allows Love to shine forth to touch the holy place that lives and dwells within each mind so that it, too, can awaken and look upon me and know itself. And when that happens – and you have all experienced it in fleeting moments – when two minds come together and set aside the world, a Light shines between their eyes and a Holy Instant arises. And the things of the past are forgotten, and the things of the future are of no concern, and there is a Light and a power and a Truth and a Love and a remembrance that seems to embrace those two and they are as One.

You Can Do What I Learned To Do!

Indeed, precious friends, I have never left you. You could say that I've never left this plane, this world, this dimension. And I will not until you come with me. What, then, is the way? It requires great seriousness. It requires astute practice. You must keep the muscles tight at all times. You must keep the jaw set. Don't forget never to eat chocolate. Frankly, I wish they would have had some of that back then. You must master all ancient texts – ideally, in Aramaic. You must master all magical techniques. And don't forget a lifetime or two locked in a solitary cell in a monastery where, of course, you must flog yourself to beat the devil out of you, wicked thing that he is.

Or you can do what I learned to do and what I taught as the secret science given to those that your world has called my disciples, though I looked at them as friends.

You can laugh at the world. You can laugh at the ego. You can let not one day pass by in which you fail to sing, laugh, dance and play and be just a little bit outrageous. You can wake up in the morning and remind yourself that right here and right now the appearances of the body and the world do not limit your union with God – not for one moment!

You can remember that you have not come to suffer the world. You have not come to work out your karma, I believe the word is. You have come forth for the very same reason, in this very moment, as you were sent forth in the beginning of moments to do one thing: to celebrate the Truth that "I and my Father are One" and Love is the only Reality that exists. And if somebody else doesn't believe it, demonstrate it to them by looking past their judgments, by looking past whatever clever device they might try to knock you off your center. Just love the devil out of them.

Thank God That In God There Is No Condemnation!

When I walked upon this plane I was not well liked by those serious-minded theologians – rabbis, they were called at that time – who had a rather elaborate structure in which their egos could believe that they were somehow a rung or two up the ladder from all the commoners, and they alone had the keys to the Kingdom. And, of course, the commoners, poor wretched souls that they were, had to give away a lot of their "loot", I believe you call it.

They had to give away a lot of their souls to the rabbis, to the system of religion in that land in that place in order to have some hope that God might look upon them with favor. And if they were lucky, He just might forgive them all of their terrible sins.

And so I came along and said, “That is utter nonsense. How could my Father forgive anyone when He has never condemned them in the first place?” How can the great Light and Mystery from which all things that are beautiful and radiant have emerged, that looks upon His one creation, the holy Son of God, and doesn't even see the fearful dreams that you have lived, sees only the radiance of the Light and the Love that you are, waiting patiently for you to acknowledge the Truth of your Reality. Can there be any judgment in that? Of course not.

Is there then room for forgiveness in God? I say unto you: there is not! For there can be forgiveness only when there has first been condemnation. And right where you are, right here and right now, no thought of guilt that you have ever held about yourself has ever been recognized by God. All He does is love you. And He waits for you to set aside the guilt that is born from your belief that you have somehow run out the back door of the Kingdom and separated yourself from Him – and that is where guilt comes from. He waits for you to set that perception aside, to throw open the shutters of the Heart, to let the mind rest in peace, and just say to Him, “Okay, I'm done dreaming now. Bestow upon me the Truth of Reality, for I am willing to receive what You have already given me.”

Thank God that in God there is no condemnation. And if that is true – and I assure you that it is – and if you are made in the image of God, you live in your right mind when you think like God. And you look upon your brothers and sisters and no matter what arises, even if it makes you grit your teeth for a moment, you love them. And you understand that every hurtful act and every hurtful thought really comes from fear and, therefore, is a cry for help and understanding and support and healing.

You Are Miracle Workers Every Time You Think With God and Extend and Teach Only Love!

There is something just beyond that I want to share with you. For upon each of you there has been the imprint of perceptions that the experiences you have known in this world – whether you believe in one life or a million is really beside the point – the world has impressed upon you the perception and therefore the belief that you can be hurt. The body can be hurt but you are not the body.

The ego, oh, indeed, the ego can be hurt in a million ways and you probably know something about that. But you are not the ego. To identify yourself with that small and harmless gnat, flitting about trying to shout at the vastness of space, trying to get all of the planets and stars to follow its orders – of course it doesn't even notice the gnat – to identify yourself with that is to have identified yourself with an illusion.

*“Miracles are seen in Light.
The body's eyes do not perceive the Light.
But I am not a body. What am I?”* (WL 91)

And if you are not the body and if you are not the ego, rest assured no trace of hurt has ever remained upon the radiant Heart of the Son of God – and that is who you are. And the way that you can prove that to yourself is by practicing peace and the extension of Love. For as you choose to extend and teach only Love, you must therefore learn it. And as you see the miracles that come from the extension of your Love, you must then learn the miracle has already occurred within you.

Teach only love, for that is what you are.” (T 94) [T-6.I.13.2]

It's rather important to get that. And if you see that somehow Spirit has worked through you and brought a miracle to the mind of another, in even what you might perceive as the smallest of ways, rest assured you are having reflected to you the reality that Grace has already descended upon your own Heart and mind and taken from it the weight of illusions: the belief in the perception of ancient scars that have been upon you that you've tried to work out of the body through a thousand bodies. As long as you believe that you have to work on them, they are going to continue to come up because you are creating them.

But through the practice of peace and the extension of Love, indeed every weight and every shadow will be translated into the power of Light itself. You are miracle workers, plain and simple. No manual to master. No graduate course to attend. You are miracle workers every time you think with God and extend and teach only Love! Nothing else heals. Nothing else brings miracle mindedness. And if you can do it – and I assure you that you can – that is the reason, listen carefully, that is the reason miracles were demonstrated through me: because I looked upon you and saw that the miracle had already occurred.

You Are Quite Simply The Thought Of Perfect Love In Form!

In the moment when the Son first held the thought of separation and seemed to cast himself from the Garden – to use that ancient story – already the Father had corrected it and a bridge was sent unto the mind of the Son that I have called the Holy Spirit. And the Holy Spirit is only the part of your mind that is right and miracle minded and cannot be apart from you.

The Holy Spirit is the Christ Mind which is aware of the knowledge that lies beyond perception. He came into being with the separation as a protection, inspiring the Atonement principle at the same time. Before that there was no need for healing for no one was comfortless. The Voice of the Holy Spirit is the Call to Atonement, or the restoration of the integrity of the mind. When the Atonement is complete and the whole Sonship is healed there will be no call to return. But what God creates is eternal. The Holy Spirit will remain with the Sons of God, to bless their creations and keep them in the Light of Joy. (T 74) [T-5.I.5.]

In that moment separation was healed, and the way that you have journeyed is the way you have chosen and are choosing not to gain Heaven but to remember that you cannot possibly have ever left it. That which is called the spiritual adventure is the game of hide and seek. Know you that game?

How many times have you played it today? “God must be far from me. Oh, I forgot to meditate this morning. That's it. If only I would just sit there for ten more minutes every day, I know I'd get it.” Seeking can be a fun game but there's a better one: the game of acknowledging that you have found. The game in which you lay aside all thoughts of a hurtful past, taken from you because you've been willing to extend your forgiveness to yourself for ever having imagined that the world could hurt you.

A new game in which you give up your thoughts and your devices for trying to control reality, and in which you simply acknowledge, “I am here as a channel of Love.” And if that is true and if my Holy Father through the Holy Spirit knows how to take everything that mankind has ever created and make into it a stepping-stone that must bring the whole of creation back to Heaven, then if I want to know my Father's Will for me, I don't have to master any texts. I don't have to stand on my head in a corner for seven hours, chanting a thousand names of God. All I have to do is open my eyes.

And in this moment – take just a moment – feel it then, and allow it. Wrap your fingers around the jewel that rests in the palm of your hand. Take it deep within your Heart and acknowledge that you are no longer a seeker because you have found. And you have found because in the deep place within you, if you would well receive it, you have created this time in which to be presented with the opportunity to acknowledge throughout every core and fiber of your being – which, by the way, has no beginning and no end – that you are quite simply the Thought of perfect Love in form.

In Truth, Who Are We?

Never a body. Not a conglomeration of emotions. You are an idea held in perfect pristine shape in the Mind of God, and rest assured God only has Loving thoughts. Can you feel that then? Right where you are feel the feet of the body on the floor. Feel, right where you are; look through the body itself. If you exist right now, you are the Son of God and there is nothing you need do to earn the Kingdom.

All you need do is release your grip on one insane thought: the thought of separation, and the guilt and the fear that it has engendered, that have created worlds upon worlds and complexity upon complexity, and as often as you have woven the tapestry of separation, you have worked diligently to try to unravel it.

But each fearful thought seems to add yet another strand, and so you try to release it, and for a moment the Light of Heaven shines forth and then a thought arises, “Whew, I’m not worthy of that much Light. Who, me? The wholly joyous? No, no, no. If I did that, what would people say? They might frown at me for dancing in the rain.” For getting goose bumps when someone walks around the corner and you just can’t wait to hug them. Indeed.

You Are The One That Has Come Forth To Be The Light Of The World!

Darkness frowns upon Light because it fears it. Be you, therefore, not conformed to the ways of the world but be you, therefore, glad with every breath, for Grace has already come and the light of day is returned. It fills your soul from the top to the bottom, and through your presence, not mine – there are too many that actually think that because I don’t have a body, they can’t see me, they can’t hear me, but they can see you and they can hear you – and through you they can learn that they can look beyond their own body and their own mind to touch the place of Truth.

You are the one sent unto this world, even as I was sent into a different one. You are the one that is the Word made flesh, that came and dwelt among mankind. And if you would receive it – and please hear this well – you, you are the one who, out of infinite compassion, has chosen to walk in the world of physicality until each of our brothers and sisters recognizes the Truth about themselves. You are the one that has come forth time and time again to be the Light of the world! And if that was ever my function, it remains eternally yours. And if it was ever my ability, it remains eternally your ability.

All power under Heaven and Earth abides within you. You are the one in whom my Father remains eternally well pleased. He Loves you and He gives unto you the whole of His Kingdom: peace and wisdom and power and compassion and gentleness and strength of purpose and of certainty of a divine Will.

Oh, beloved friends, the gifts are in you now. Each time you think a loving thought, each time you remember to choose Love over fear, rest assured the whole of creation dances. And every master that abides on many planes beyond this world is touched by your willingness to remember and live the Truth. For indeed you will know the Truth and the Truth has already set you free.

Here Now Is the Time Of Holy Relationship!

I have come because I am on a recruiting mission. You see, I need you as much as you ever thought you needed me. Because your brothers and sisters and my brothers and sisters, even when I walk on their street with them and shout into their ear and they see a flash of someone they’ve learned to identify as Christ, and the next moment they go, “Whew. Boy, what an imagination I have. I actually thought that Christ was walking right next to me. Can you believe that?” I believe it because I was there.

But they can't see me and they can't hear me because they've learned to hear the voice of the world and they've forgotten what my voice sounds like. And therefore I need you. I need you to be my body, my emotions and my voice. Not as one who carries something called a Bible under their arms and goes and beats everybody with it. But as the voice of forgiveness. The voice of compassion. The voice of right-mindedness. The voice of Truth that has nothing to prove because the radiance of that voice is its own proof.

I need you to be the one that your brother and sister can see. That is why relationship in this world is the greatest of blessings. Gone are the days of trying to find God by disappearing to mountain tops. Gone is the day of seeking to withdraw into some minute point of Light or something. How can you withdraw into something you've never left? You already are the Light you've been seeking.

Here now is the time of Holy Relationship, in which you choose to walk in this world and yet not be of the world, and to actually practice the outrageousness of watching the feet of a body, that you have formerly called your own, walk down the street while the mind is utterly amazed that there is nobody in it save the Love of Christ. So when you walk into your grocery store and you buy your vegetables and your chocolate, and you put them on the counter, you remember that if you would know your Father's Will for you, all you have to do is open your eyes. Who is before you? The grocery clerk who needs Love. Who needs the Love of Christ. Who doesn't need to be saved because actually they've never been lost. They just think they have been. They need to feel the radiance and the warmth of Love.

That is now the blessing of the gift I come to give you – for I am but a messenger sent of my Father, Whose Love is above all things – to share with you the Reality that we live as Grace: you are whole now and we are together now, and because you are my friends, you are the one Light of this world, and because we walk together, we walk with certainty and the end of the journey comes quickly. Walk, then, with great strength and great joy. And if you would know your Father's Will for you, believe and ask, and be willing to receive. This world is not your home, but while it lasts, it will be translated into that which reflects the Truth that has already set you free. (JT - ES)

And the time that remains is given unto you, is given unto you that you might allow me to work miracles through you, because it is by seeing them through you, touching the lives of others, that you must then come to acknowledge that the miracle has occurred within you, do you see? And what else could time be for but save to embrace miracles? Why not cut loose and let miracles become your guide – by being so outrageous as to believe that you and your Father are One?
