Trust, Precious Friends, Is The Foundation For A Miraculous Life!

For all that I have done, you too, will do and much more than this will you do. For in this age that comes to be born in this drama there comes quickly and some of you know what I mean, you are feeling a bit of an acceleration, a recognition between minds that they really share one self and that where they choose to relate in Holy Relationship, seeing and extending only Love, that all power is given unto them to create whatever they will. Whatever they will, will be in perfect accord with the Will of the Mind of God. It is but Love and your creations, though they may seem to come in many forms, will always express that Love and that unity and that timelessness, that eternity, the innocence and the forgiveness of Perfect Peace. (Arc)

This is the function of your Holy Relationship. For what one thinks, the other will experience with him. What can this mean except your mind and your brother's are one? Look not with fear upon this happy fact, and think not that it lays a heavy burden on you. For when you have accepted it with gladness, you will realize that your relationship is a reflection of the union of the Creator and His Son. From loving minds there is no separation. And every thought in one brings gladness to the other because they are the same. Joy is unlimited, because each shining thought of love extends its being and creates more of itself. There is no difference anywhere in it, for every thought is like itself. ¹

Struggle not to survive for one more day but allow yourself to receive the miracle that knows you are provided for above all things. Trust. Let trust be the foundation of every thought you think and all that transpires in your life, know that it holds a purpose. For you are the one who has asked that Wisdom to translate and transform every dark corner of your mind into a place of Peace and Light.

And if there are things that must fall away, count it all joy and know that indeed if the flower is to bloom it must break through the surface of the soil that has held it. And if shifts that seem difficult are happening, keep the heart in peace and the mind on the eternity of Love and around the corner you will see that in an expanded Light. Shifts through which, perhaps, Vision is being born. You will find yourself joining and doing things that you have never done before.

Trust, precious friends, is the foundation for a miraculous life. Trust in all things without the need to judge the pathway of another. To trust, that if you would know your Father's Will for you, all you need do is open your eyes. Where are you in this moment? Who stands before you? That is the one sent unto you who needs the Love of Christ.

And when you have thrown off the shutters of the Heart you will know without a shadow of doubt that if the one named Jeshua, could extend Love in that time frame that was wholly insane, surely you could do the same now.

When You Abide In Love The past Is Already Healed and Light Will Grow Exponentially!

Trust that process for when you are willing to release the past and remember who you are, a grand wisdom comes to build your future. You have learned by many, that history repeats itself and they are right. History does repeat itself because history is a perception held in a mind that continually holds on to the past and therefore, is destined to repeat it.

But the freed mind that has released the past and abides only in that Perfect Love that exists now, has opened up the door of infinite possibilities and potentials and because it trusts, the whole of the universe works through that mind and you will not repeat the past. For when you abide in Love the past is already healed and cannot come with you because you no longer choose to abide within it.

Therefore, beloved friends, be therefore, who you are and you are the Light that lights the world. I come and I knock upon any heart that will but open the door a crack and let me in because I am your friend and your brother and because as you would say, the times they are changing and the world needs your Light. It needs it more than it has ever needed it before and as you join with like minds and like hearts, that Light will grow exponentially.

The Second Coming Of Christ Is The Awakening!

Will you need to plan the changes that come? Hardly. All you need to do is know that they have already been changed. Be that Light and Love you are and know you come not to suffer, not to work out your destiny and your karma and your salvation. But you come because you are made in the image of God and where you are, the Kingdom dwells because you are the one who has chosen to let correction come to the mind and you are the mind that extends only Love. No matter what the world would seem to insist from you and then indeed you walk a little lighter as though you were floating a few inches above the ground. Others will look and see that the body is there but you dwell somewhere else. And yet that somewhere else is not apart from here. It is truly here.

The incarnation, if you will, the second coming of Christ, is only the simplicity of a correction that comes to all minds that sees their neighbor as themselves and sees themselves as the thought of Perfect Love in form. The second coming of Christ is the awakening in your mind that you and your Father are one.

The First Coming of Christ is merely another name for the creation, for Christ is the Son of God. The Second Coming of Christ means nothing more than the end of the ego's rule and the healing of the mind. I was created like you in the first, and I have called you to join with me in the second. I am in charge of the Second Coming, and my judgment, which is used only for protection, cannot be wrong because it never attacks.²

Do you need a special technique to make that happen? Hardly. The search for techniques only insures that you will put off that awakening until tomorrow. Now, that can be rather fun but is it what you really want? It takes great courage to be a seeker but in the moment the choice is made to be a finder, it will seem to take a courage you didn't even know you had. It is like leaping off a cliff unable to see the bottom and yet when you make that choice in your mind to look upon the whole of your experience and to say to yourself:

"You know, it's quite time I became a finder! I think I'll choose just to be the walking embodiment of unconditional Love and find out what it feels like to be awake!"

When you walk through that choice, that deliberate and unconditional and unequivocal choice, to be the awakened Child of God, it is like walking through a ring of fear and on your side it seems to be a wall fifty feet thick and yet with a simple choice as you walk through it and release fear, you find that it was a veil paper thin and made of illusory mists and then indeed right where you are is perfect. And though you may have only one golden coin in your pocket, you will know that you are wealthy beyond measure. And what comes to you, you rejoice in and find a way to use it to extend Love to others.

The Miracle That Heals Your World Has Been Given To You! That Power Is Given Unto You To Uplift The Whole of Creation!

It is not knowledge that would heal your world. It is not facts and opinions that will heal it. It is not miracle cures for the body that will heal it. It is your Love. Your Love, and if you are presented with an opportunity to be a little shocked or to perhaps need possibly to judge someone, if you choose but Love in that moment, rejoice for the miracle that heals your world has been given to you and through you. The extension of Love to anyone who sits in front of you uplifts the whole of creation.

Are you then responsible for creation? Only in this sense: you cannot separate yourself from it and when you extend Love to even a blade of grass that seems to be in front of you and especially to the mind of a brother or sister who seems to sit with you in the guise of a body, you are the one who has chosen to open the arms of Christ and to embrace and uplift the whole of creation. That is the power given unto you. That is the freedom given unto you. The divine and glorious freedom to be only Love.

And those who love in that way indeed have come to where I am. Have indeed come to be all that I represented and still seem to, to the world. I am no great master. I am only your friend and your brother. I see you only as the Thought of Love in form and I rejoice when I look upon you.

Do I see your pain? Only for a moment because you insist that it yet cling unto you. But I look through it and past it to the spark of Divine consciousness that you are and I know that once your journey has begun by making the choice to awaken, the end is certain and is only a breath away.

Trust then, precious friends, trust is so central and so key to your own process. For you come in the image of God to extend Love into this world. Which by the way, must necessarily include the extension of Love to yourself.

Miracles Will Occur As Naturally As The Way In Which The Falling Rain Caresses The Earth!

How then, are you extending that Love to yourself? How then, in this day did you make sure that you extended Love to you? For you too, are worthy of the Love that would pour forth through you. Give that Love to yourself with every thought. Never see yourself as having failed. Never see yourself as someone who lives in lack. See yourself as your true Reality and each time you correct the mind that is habituated to seeing yourself as something other than your own Truth and your own Reality; each time you choose that, you strengthen that Reality and the day comes when it will be constant and not one idle limiting thought will enter the mind at all. It will be like a ray of darkness and as it begins to approach the radiant Light of your mind, that darkness itself will be translated into Light.

And then you will marvel that you have ever known fear and ever known pain, ever known self-doubt and you will be at peace. You will be one who has transcended the world and lives above time and through you, miracles will occur as naturally as the way in which the falling rain caresses the Earth.

You will not be the doer of those miracles but you will be the one who allows them to be done through you. And when another says, "Thank you, what you said to me was incredible, how did you think that up?" You will look very quite dumb to them and you will say, "Well, I don't know. It just came." And you will lay your hand upon the shoulder of a friend and for a moment, they will remember where peace is to be found. And when they embrace you, you will smile with your inner body and the mind will connect with the Holy Spirit or use whatever word you will and you will give thanks to that invisible intelligence that has just worked a miracle through you and you didn't even have to think about it.

There Shall Be A Period Of What You Have Heard Called A Thousand Years Of Peace!

What life could be simpler than one lived as a bringing of miracles? And though your life might seem to be mundane and ordinary in the eyes of others, who cares? You will know and the one Who has created you knows. And you will know because your sleep will be deep and when you awaken, a gentle smile will touch your lips and you will see that this whole world is but a momentary drama. A game if you will, thought up in the mind itself. For that mind once thought, "What will it be like if I were to become many and pretend that I am separate from God? What would I create?" You know what he has created and you are the ones, beloved friends, you are the ones who are joining with a growing number by the thousands daily who are choosing to see that the time has come to lay down the dream of the dreamer and to let Love guide.

Love has not yet truly been allowed to be the guide in your world. It's never been tried. Masters have come and talked about it and certain minds have gotten a reflection of it and given some of it away but it has never been tried on a global scale but that day is coming. Think you not that you can look ahead and know the hour or day but be you therefore, prepared for the day indeed comes and it is hastened every time you choose to acknowledge:

"I am the Thought of Perfect Love in form and in this moment, I extend only Love."

And thus, is the mind awakened and then you give to your brother or sister the greatest gift you could ever give them. For you will be one who no longer tolerates error in yourself and then they are free to choose anew. To look upon you and say, "I might try that too."

And the two become four and the four become a million and in the twinkling of an eye you will look upon this world and see only peace and the unhappy dream will have been translated into a happy dream and there shall be a period of what you have heard called a thousand years of peace. A time in which the awakened Christ, the one mind of the only begotten of the Father, remember the Truth of his Reality and then, even the happy dream shall be no more for the purpose of creation translated by the Holy Spirit shall have been completed and not one thing can be said of that moment.

Prepare you now for the undoing of what never was. If you already understood the difference between truth and illusion, the Atonement would have no meaning. The Holy Instant, the Holy Relationship, the Holy Spirit's teaching, and all the means by which salvation is accomplished, would have no purpose. For they are all but aspects of the plan to change your dreams of fear to happy dreams, from which you waken easily to Knowledge. Put yourself not in charge of this, for you cannot distinguish between advance and retreat. Some of your greatest advances you have judged as failures, and some of your deepest retreats you have evaluated as success.³

It is a return to the perfect union that existed before the thought was held, "Would that I, the Holy Son of God, become many and create worlds unlike the creations of my Father." And yet it is a Reality that has never been changed and never been lost. When you walk down your city streets, it's just beneath the surface of every mind that you come in contact with. That is how close the Kingdom of Heaven is and if your brother or sister is to recognize it in them, you must be the one who has first recognized it in yourself.

Therefore, in this, I give unto you the essence of what I have come to share with you. I come and I ask you to be that one in which the Kingdom dwells awakened, so that your brother and sister can see it in you always, always, and all ways. To be the one who chooses in each moment, Love instead of fear, forgiveness instead of judgment, unlimitedness instead of limitation, Vision clarified by Light instead of the perceptions created in your insane world. That is how close each and every one of you are to the place you have sought for so long. A thousand lifetimes and more.

Choose To Be The Messenger!!!

Some of you have been great healers, great psychics, great priestesses, monks, nuns, murderers. Well, let's not look at the shadow side. Can you look upon everything that has ever pushed your buttons and realize it does so only because you too, have been and done that? And it is time for you to extend Love to that one so that that dark shadow of your past can be healed.

You could say that you are like one that holds a sword high over your head and every time – every time – you have ever held enmity against your brother or sister, that sword has fallen on your own head and then you have wondered, "Why do I feel such pain at times? Why do I feel such loneliness at times? Why is my peace disturbed? If only the rest of the world would get its act together I could be at peace." And yet in the extension of your forgiveness, that must come from a certainty that Christ dwells in you and in your brother, you will know peace because you will have chosen to look beyond the world in all of its insanity. Indeed!

Forgiveness and trust are the great needs of your world but those are lessons that it cannot learn unless you choose to be the messenger. You, you, right where you are in a body that is whatever age that body is, right now where you are. "But I have lived such an ordinary past, I have not traveled to monasteries, I have no grand degrees." You have what you were given when you were created: Unlimited Light that rests in unconditional Love.

Never think, never think, that in any moment you do not have the power to extend Love or the change the circumstances of your life. That is to believe you are a victim and the idea of being victim is a treasure in minds that resist the Truth that lives within them. Be you therefore, never a victim of the circumstances around you. Nothing can arise that can steal your peace. That is the power given unto you since before time began. And when you want to know peace as your only Reality, you will find then, that the world is not a fearful place at all because each thing that arises in your life is being given to you as an opportunity to make a new choice. Where once you failed to extend Love, where once you chose fear over Love, where once you chose pain over peace, now you have a new opportunity.

And in the power of that new choice, precious friends, all things are made new and suddenly the shutters are thrown off of your life and miracles begin to happen and six months hence, you can't even understand the changes that have come to you life all because you have chosen with whatever circumstances arise, to be the one who extends Love.

Miracles occur naturally as expressions of love. The real miracle is the love that inspires them. In this sense everything that comes from love is a miracle. All miracles mean life, and God is the Giver of life. His Voice will direct you very specifically. You will be told all you need to know.⁴

The Essence Of The Greatest Spiritual Teachings!

Love will make all things new again. Therefore, strive not for what you cannot lose. Seek not for what lies within you. Only allow the Truth of your Being to be lived now, now and now. Look at the one for a moment who seems to sit next to you or across from you. Who is that one, if not yourself? See not the body, that's just the calling card. See the Light of Christ that dwells so close to you. Open every cell of the body and receive the joy of seeing that Light. And if you see it, you must have received it. And when you know you have received it, you know you can extend it.

Now, the grandest of techniques that you could ever master is simply this: please, please, never in any day, no matter what the world is doing around you, never fail to sing, to dance, to laugh and to play and do one thing totally outrageous.

That is the essence of the greatest spiritual teachings the world has ever known. After you have mastered every pose of meditation, after you have mastered every breath, after you have mastered great schemas of levels upon levels upon levels, once you have given a label to everything in the universe, once you become the grandest of metaphysicians, you are still left with a choice to make. And through your singing and your laughter and your play and your dancing, you will come to know that you, just as you are, are the embodiment of Perfect Peace and you always have been.

And then you become, not so much a master of technique but a simple master of miracles because the grandest of masters is the servant. Meek, but filled with power and the master is one who knows how to allow the Infinite Wisdom that brought you into form to pour forth as a river of Light through you. That is the essence of mastership. Anything less is a game the ego has devised to keep itself from its own death.

The meek shall inherit the earth because their egos are humble, and this gives them truer perception. The Kingdom of Heaven is the spirit's right, whose beauty and dignity are far beyond doubt, beyond perception, and stands forever as the mark of the Love of God for His creations, who are wholly worthy of Him and only of Him. Nothing else is sufficiently worthy to be a gift for a creation of God Himself.⁵

Therefore, precious friends, please be who you are and you are the Light. The Light that has come to dwell in darkness and to translate that darkness into Light. Extend the peace that you are and you will heal the world.

Let Your Perception Be Translated Into Vision!

I love you, I love you with a depth that your world could never possibly comprehend. It's actually very simple you see, because when I love you, I embrace myself. That is who you are to me. That is why each and every one of you is so dear to me. I see only Christ in you. I see power and I see compassion and great wisdom. I see beauty and perfection. I don't even see a body that seems to age and crumble to dust.

The body is just a thought that has arisen within the mind and it will serve its purpose and then you will think the thought no longer. In the perception of your world, that's called death. I call it the release of a thought that has served you for a time.

And when you choose, beloved friends, to be that embodiment of Love always, the Light in you will come to shine so brightly that it outshines the body and it outshines this world and then you can rest content knowing that you will not return to it. For in my Father's house are many mansions, this is but one of them.

You are eternal. There is never going to be a moment in which you cease to exist. So you might as well practice existing as Love, as Love because Love heals all things.

Let your perception be translated into Vision. Dare to be one who lives only from Vision. Not from the perceptions of the world that would teach you, you have to find a way to survive today and tomorrow and the next day but open to Vision. Let Vision be your guide. Dare to see a world totally healed and then ask, "How can I participate in that?"

"God is in everything I see."

The idea for today explains why you can see all purpose in everything. It explains why nothing is separate, by itself or in itself. And it explains why nothing you see means anything. In fact, it explains every idea we have used thus far, and all subsequent ones as well. Today's idea is the whole basis for Vision. When Vision has shown you the Holiness that lights up the world, you will understand today's idea perfectly. And you will not understand how you could ever have found it difficult.⁶

.....

"I am but Love and I choose nothing else."

If you know lack in your life, then tell your Father you are ready for abundance and to bring a way in which you can manifest it because you are worthy of it and then use what you manifest to heal the world. Indeed.

The distance between us is smaller than the distance between two thoughts. Think about what that must mean for there is no distance in the mind at all. Therefore, there is no distance between where you may yet think you are and where I am, and my hand is stretched out to you and I stand on just this edge of a world you have dreamed into being and the threshold that seems to be between us is for you to step across and you do so each time you choose to hold the thought in your mind:

"I am but Love and I choose nothing else."

And if the world arises and passes away, let it. Only Love is Real and I choose only my Reality. And suddenly without any effort you find that you already stand where I am. There is no longer a need for crucifixion in your life, you already abide One with God and then everything is translated.

The things that you are involved in that you thought would help you get to salvation or enlightenment or mastery, whatever you call it, then becomes the ways in which you extend that mastery and that salvation unto others. It's a clever trick and it works. Indeed.

It Is A Glorious Thing To Behold: A Light That Permeates and Joins All Minds!

Some know that it is a fire burning within that compelled you to this time. A fire that won't stop until it consumes every last trace of belief that you are separate from God.

And there are those that have touched that place in your consciousness where you know that is really why you are here and that that's why you are anywhere. Just to be at peace and to extend Love. Forgiveness instead of judgment.

Think not that you must secure your way for when you trust the guidance of the One Teacher that dwells within you, all will be set before you and no obstacle will but melt away before you reach it and it will all seem quite incredible and yet it will all work out.

And all that I have said is only to confirm what you have felt and known but weren't quite sure you could trust. It is a glorious thing to behold; a Light that permeates and joins all minds.

There is a depth in the soul of each of you to abide in the quiet of the Heart and there the Truth will speak clearly to you. Time to trust and let that move take place.

"Your Grace is given me. I claim it now."
"God is but Love, and therefore so am I." ⁷

Indeed.
